COTTON LETTER.

New York, Nov. 23.-Today's cot ton market again labored under steady liquidation, with spot houses and Liverpool free sellers. were reports of easier spot in the south and perhaps, some apprehen sion of the effect on prices of December deliveries, tomorrow being the first notice day.

Indications are for somewhat lower prices in the immediate future, from which the price trend will turn upward, as the dates for the next gin ners' and quantitative government estimate are approved.

New York, Nov. 23.-George M. Church and Harold A. Throckmorton, two of the most noted of American tennis players, leave here today for Vancouver, whence they are to sail for the Philippines a week hence to compete in the Far Eastern championship games to be held at Manila in January. Throckmorton holds the national junior title and is New Jersey State champion. Church was one of the prominent contenders for the national championship and in that tournament defeated Ichiya Kumagae, the present champion of the Orient. Kumagae's ambition to have another try at Church led him to urge the American to go to Manila.

Huntington, West Virginia, Nov. 21. -F. R. Pyle, of this city, has just learned what became of a baseball he mailed to C. L. Talbott, a civil englneer in South America. Talbott wrote and asked Pyle to send him a baseball, but a year ago Talbott returned to the United States and took Pyle to task for not sending him the ball. Pyle has just received a letter from a South American postmaster declaring the package had gone all over South America, and the postmasters were unable to find the owner. It is estimated that the ball traveled over 25,000 miles. Pyle will ask its return and will keep is as a sou-
