ADMIRAL UPSHUR IS 92 YEARS OLD TODAY

Washington, D. C., Dr. 5.-To be able to recall stirring personal experiences in Uncle Sam's navy that happened before many of the present-day officers were born, is the wnique privilege enjoyed by Rear Admiral John Henry Upshur, U. S. N., sary and to enlist the train crews in retired, who celebrated his ninetythird birthday anniversary today at his home in this city. Admiral Upshur is the oldest of the high-ranking great industrial paralysis, he clearly officers on the rolls of the navy. More sets forth that he would hesitate to than thirty years ago he was placed on the retired list, after 44 years of active service filled with adventure in all parts of the world. Admiral Upshur is a native of Virginia and graduated from the Naval Academy, just in time to see active service in the war with Mexico. As a lieutenant he served with Commodore Perry in the expedition of 1855 which opened Japan to commerce. He was with the North Atlantic squadron during the first two years of the Civil War and was present at the capture of Fort Hatteras and Fora Royal. Near the close of the war he was given command of a ship and

HERE is your future charted for you, based on the actual average earnings of trained and untrained men.

-or down?

Which way will you go? You'll either go up, through training, to a position that means good money and more comforts as the years go by, or you'll go down, through lack of training, into the ranks of the poorly paid.

It rests entirely with you which way you go. You can make or break your own future. And now is the time to decide. Not next year, not next month, but now. You can go up if you want to. You can get the training that will command a trained man's salary. The International Correspondence Schools have helped hundreds of thousands of men to qualify for advancement. Let them show you how you can prepare yourself, in your own home, for the position you want in the work you like best.

At least find out what the I. C. S. can do for you, by marking and mailing this coupon. It will be the first step upward. Choose your future from this list, then get this coupon into the mail today.

25th Anniversary I. C. S. Schools celebrate the completion of 25 years of successful educational work in the interest of technical and industrial preparedness.
