JUDGE CONNOR WANTED AGAIN

Local Attorneys Ask Him To Exchange Courts With Judge Bond.

Judge George W. Connor, who this afternoon will adjourn the present term of Superior Court, was this morning presented with a petition signed by practically every member of the Wilmington bar, requesting that he hold the next term of court for the trial of civil cases which is to convene shortly after the first of the new year. As there are several receivership cases to come up at that term which Judge Connor is familiar, the local attorneys are anxious that he arrange an exchange of courts with Judge Bond, who is scheduled to come here.

Hon. George Rountree and Addison G. Ricard, Esq., made short talks in court this morning expressing the wish of the local bar for the return of the presiding judge. It is understood that Judge Connor is willing to try to perfect the change with Judge Bond.

This afternoon and this morning several motions were heard by Judge Connor. Some were made by members of the Pender county bar. The National Wood Company was given a judgment against Joe Schad for $522.83 with interest on $500 from Dec. 4, 1914. The Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company was given judgment against J. Hicks Bunting. A motion to allow the plaintiff in the case of Robert N. Gadsen vs. George H. Craft & Co., to appeal to the Supreme Court, was allowed.

COMPANY WONT COME 'Maid to Order' Attraction Has to Close Its Tour.

Wilmington theatre-goers will have to forgo the pleasure of seeing the merry music show, "Maid to Order," which was booked for two performances at the Academy of Music tomorrow. According to press notices that the attraction has received, they will miss a treat. However, it can be helped, though Manager Bailey, of the Academy of Music, regrets. Mr. Bailey received a wire this morning that the leading lady of the attraction had been taken suddenly ill and that therefore the company had to close and return to New York. Hence, the cancellation of the Wilmington date.

ARE YOU HAPPY? GOOD VISION.
