

THEATRICAL

The public in general should certainly see at least two of the great acts to be presented with "On to Washington" by Guy Johnson's Dolly Dimple Girls at the Royal today and tomorrow. They are the acts to be presented by the Dolly Dimple Quartette and that by Weist and Myers— "Two Singing Lads and a Piano". Each one of these individual acts alone will be well worth the price of admission and you will hear and see something nifty and something out of ordinary from both of these big vaudeville teams.

Sherman and Kramer, in the great novelty and "strong man" act direct from the big vaudeville time, will also be another feature of today's bill. And Louise Wright, the South's favorite entertainer will have something new, bright witty and spicy for the audience today. She is a great favorite and always gets three or four big rounds of applause at every appearance. Harry Myers and Miss Wright will also present a great novelty singing and dancing act that is another rare treat. Guy Johnson the inimitable "Jake" of course will be there with a new line of talk a bunch of gags and a general run of fun-making material that cannot be beaten.

Rose Tapley, Tomorrow
And the Grand is pleased to announce another big scoop for tomorrow. Charming Rose Tapley, who was seen and heard by several thousand Wilmington people when she visited Wilmington on New Year's day last, will be presented tomorrow as co-star with dimpled and beautiful Lillian Walker. In a mammoth Vitagraph release, "The Foolish Virgin," a human interest drama in five reels, the cast also including Evert Overton, Donald Hall and Denton Vane.

Although "Hesper of the Mountains" is decidedly a drama, we find the tension relieved in many instances by several clever comedy bits.

Donald McBride, who is responsible for the majority of these, has made a name for himself in filmdom through his comedy roles in a number of Vitagraph releases.

In this film he poses as the ranch owner—his facial expressions are humor itself—the knots into which he twists his body are his utter ignorance of "what's what" will be sure to demand a laugh from his audience.

His comedy skits, interwoven with the strong dramatic points which the story contains, carry enough humor to relieve the high points in the ac-

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY TOLD HERE BY CLARKTON MAN

"Why Shouldn't I Recommend Tanlac?" Asks W. M. Oliphant, After Explaining How His Wife Gained On It After Suffering for Six Years.

Not a few of the people who have called at the Bellamy Drug Store to join with the great number of men and women in acclaiming their praises to Tanlac, in return for the good it has done them, are residents of neighboring counties.

W. M. Oliphant, who is well known in the business field of Clarkton, was one of the out-of-town folks to tell his interesting story of Tanlac in this city.

"And why shouldn't I lend my hearty endorsement to Tanlac?" Mr. Oliphant queried of the Tanlac Man. "Tanlac has done so much good for Mrs. Oliphant that we are only too glad to give a statement for publication that others who suffer may learn of Tanlac and gain from it as my wife has.

"Before taking Tanlac my wife suffered for six long years from indigestion, stomach trouble and rheumatism. And, during that time we spent lots of money trying to find something that would help her. We heard many good things about Tanlac, and, until taking it, Mrs. Oliphant was continuing to suffer instead of gaining relief.

"This Tanlac, however, has proved to be one medicine different from all others she tried—and they were many. After finishing her second bottle of Tanlac Mrs. Oliphant is feeling greatly improved. Rheumatism has left her and she no longer suffers from indigestion. Then, too, her appetite is just fine and good, sound sleep is hers.

"That's why we recommend Tanlac," Mr. Oliphant concluded, with a broad smile.

Genuine Tanlac is sold in Wilmington exclusively by R. R. Bellamy. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.—adv.

ABRAHAM I. ELKUS

Washington, Feb. 15.—Officials of the State Department are showing the effect of considerable worry over the failure of Ambassador Elkus, American representative at Constantinople, to report his whereabouts. Repeated attempts to communicate with him through State Department channels have failed and the capital is beginning to wonder what is going on in the land of Mohammed.

Hotel Proprietor Given Up By Doctors.

"In conversation with a representative of your company today, I could not help expressing my feeling of gratitude at the good your medicine had done for me. For three long years I suffered untold agony with what they said was a severe case of Rheumatism. After the best doctors had exhausted their knowledge in regard to my case, I consulted an Osteopath and after an examination he said the hip joint had become irritated and it would take a long time to cure it, if it could be cured at all. I felt so discouraged over my condition, for I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain pursuit of ease, for my suffering was terrible. Hearing of the good effects that Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy had on others, I decided to try it. I bought a dozen bottles, thinking that if I took it at all I would get at it right. And, wonderful, yes it is wonderful, the cure it made of me, as my friends can testify. I began to improve on the first bottle and by the time I had finished the course I was a well, strong man and have had no symptoms of the disease since.

I would feel that I had neglected my duty to my fellowmen if I did not tell them of my wonderful cure and I advise any sufferer to give Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy a trial.

to crime and even murder, is the theme of next Monday's and Tuesday's attraction at the Victoria a marvelous and startlingly realistic filmization of Thomas Dixon's great novel, "The Foolish Virgin," which has been pictureized as Clara Kimball Young's second great Selznick release.

The story of "The Foolish Virgin" is intensely dramatic in character and off its popular and beautiful star unlimited opportunities to display every phase of her notable talents. In fact it is said that in this second Selznick picture Miss Young will be seen to even greater advantage than in "The Common Law," her first production at the head of her own company.

Albert Capellani, the noted French master of screen craft, who produced "The Common Law," also directed "The Foolish Virgin," and this fact is sufficient to guarantee a photographically perfect picture. The star is ably supported by a company of screen players of the first rank, headed by Conway Teale, who also played the leading male role in "The Common Law," and Paul Capellani, who has been seen in a number of Miss Young's best productions.

Among the other players are Catherine Proctor, Sheridan Tansey, the remarkable ably boy actor; William Welch, Marie Lines, Agnes Mapes, Edward Elkus, and little Jacqueline Mophango.

THE ENEMY OF URIC ACID IS ANURIC

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depressions, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain a small amount of Anuric, which is dispensed by most every druggist. Anuric (double strength) is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. It is much more potent than lithia and many find that Anuric dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.

People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in the land.—Adv.
