The Academy of Music management announces for its attraction at an early date Neil O'Brien and his minstrels, all newly equipped and organized for their fifth annual tour. Mr. O'Brien has always brought to this city some of the best minstrel organizations it has ever had and there seems every reason to believe that the show he offers this year will maintain the high standard established by this most popular of all minstrel comedians. The company is a large one, and includes Jonathan Haw and many others. BIG SPECTACLE AT ROYAL TO-

MORROW. and Saturday at the Royal.

The Golden Revue is the banner bill carried in the repertoire of this allstar company of artists and has been the means of packing every theatre to the doors where it has been presented. It is a distinct novelty from beginning to end, totally different from anything ever seen in Wilmington before, and partakes of the qualities of musical comedy, pantomime, burlesque and vaudeville, all together in one grand galaxy of fun, music, dancing and
