THEATRE

Today Charles Morton's Kentucky Belles company present another allnew show, with every song, every costume, every dance and every specty teams. This company, composed entirely of seasoned vaudeville artists, can make so many different combinations of duos, trios and quartets that there is really no end to the many closed. big acts they can present, and today's hig week-end show promises to be the very biggest yet.

A feature of today's show in the specialty line will be "Charles and Tommy Mullaly will present a big act impersonating Italian characters in native songs, thus again demonstrating his wonderful versatility in character impersonations. Macy and Maybelle in a modern dancing specialty will be enjoyed to the fullest "Songs and Chatter," will prove a sterling entertainment and novelty ples to everyone.

In these pictures the citizens of the United States will be shown how Uncle Sam may depend upon his factories and foundries, the mills and shops of our land, in the event of sudden attack from unexpected enemies.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG AT THE GRAND TOMORROW.

Tomorrow the Grand announces the very last of the great World-produced Clara Kimball Young productions, consequently the last picture in which this supreme artiste is starred which can be presented at a low admission price. These productions were booked through a lucky arrangement and the Grand has therefore been able to present them at regular prices. But tomorrow's great production is the last of the series.

"The Savage Instinct" is the title of this final great Clara Kimball Young-World triumph, and it presents Miss Young in a role totally different from anything that has previously been presented with her in the stellar role. 'The Savage Instinct" was filmed in the State of North Carolina, among the beautiful and majestic Blue Ridge mountains, around Lake Toxaway and Hendersonville. North Carolina, Bat Cave and other well-known mountain places, served as backgrounds for many of the beautiful scenes. It is a production that should do capacity business at the Grand
