

"The Eagle's Wings," coming to the Victoria tomorrow, contains some views of the big munitions factories at work which have never before been allowed to be filmed in pictures. These pictures were taken by sanction of the government, under whose supervision certain parts of this great patriotic preparedness drama was filmed.

"The Eagle's Wings" is a thundering drama with a thundering message, a production dealing with industrial preparedness, inspiring patriotism and love of home and country, a production that has created a sensation all over the entire country wherever shown. At several points in Ohio recently this production was presented for a solid week's run, at prices of 25 and 50 cents admission. At Toledo it packed the house for six consecutive days at that price. Wilmingtonians will get it for ten cents.

MARY MILES MINTER TOMORROW

"Faith" presents Miss Minter in a sympathetic role in which she is seen in the strongest part she has ever played. It is in six solid reels, 6,000 feet of beautiful photography, and patrons will remember to come promptly on the starting hour in order not to miss the beginning.

TO CONSTITUTION WENT INTO EFFECT

The Question Argued Before Supreme Court in Case From Durham.

COURT INTIMATES AGAINST VALIDITY

New Physician at State Prison Farm—Barn at The Farm Burned—Convicts Act As Firemen.

(Special to The Dispatch.)
Raleigh, May 25.—The city of Durham presented in the Supreme Court Wednesday its $250,000 bond issue case, and if the Court does not decide that the amendment restricting local legislation went into effect January 10, instead of November 7, it has a mighty poor way of giving a hint to its opinion by the questions asked.

Jacob Morehead was arguing the case for the city in the action of R. P. Reade vs. City of Durham. The action was brought to restrain the board of aldermen from issuing under an act passed January 9 $250,000 in waterworks bonds, and to restrain further the aldermen from turning over to the water commissioners the municipally owned waterworks system of the city of Durham. The order was denied by Judge John H. Kerr and the plaintiff in a friendly suit appealed.

Judge Manning, Attorney-General, is not arguing any of these cases, but he appears to be the one lawyer of exceptional ability who does not think the amendments have any standing. His opinion has stirred up the State. Perhaps no legal matter ever came up that has aroused more excitement. There are 400 acts dependent upon these amendments.

Dr. H. I. Clarke, of Scotland Neck, has been named to doctor the Calenderia farm camps. Dr. Clarke comes highly recommended. The retiring physician, Dr. Register, rebelled at the witnessing of flogging provided for in the late prison act. While the Legislature passed this piece of barbarism, it greatly improved on the old savagery that had prevailed under unskillful employment. The barbarities of the older day were permitted at all hours, under all conditions, for all offenses and by men in all moods. The new act, while recognizing the right to beat, superintends it. It is permitted only in incorrigible cases and does not reach the first and second classes. Dr. Register would not countenance it. He had whipped the old management in its efforts to depose him, but could not bring his mind to the view that he ought to stand by and see a prisoner beaten on his bare back with a buggy trace hitched to a hoe handle.

Superintendent J. R. Collie, of the State prison, yesterday declared that a fire Monday night at one of the farms destroyed a big barn, but the 177 prisoners who were set free to aid in fighting the flames kept the faith and all returned. The wind was high and promised a lot of trouble. The bucketeers of the camp held the flames down and lost only the barn. It had considerable forage in it and horses. All the animals were saved.

The War Department is sending out from Raleigh letters indicating that those who wish to come into the National Guard before it is drafted into service July 25 may do so, but after that time conscription will take them in.

SURE TO TAKE RIGHT KIND OF IRON

Nature Combines in Acid Iron Mineral Three Best Forms of Iron.

Dangers and Objections to Iron Are Overcome.

From the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico iron is found, but there that man might stiffen the backbone of ships, build like skyscrapers and speedy locomotives. This is the iron of the maker of shrapnel and cannon, which kills men and ruins teeth and stomach and causes constipation.

Then off one side nature deposited iron for another purpose and it is called "Acid Iron Mineral." Unlike commercial iron, this medicinal iron mineral has been protected through thousands of years from elements, water and air, by a casing of marble like rock and clay. Acid Iron Mineral was set aside by the Creator for medicinal purposes in one great deposit not far from the world's greatest commercial iron ore beds. It is the only deposit of its kind known to exist in the whole universe.

Acid Iron Mineral (natural iron) possesses wonderful medicinal properties. Three forms of iron, calcium, sodium, potassium, magnesium and sulphuric acid, blended and proportioned

UNDER INDICTMENT FOR CORNERING ONIONS

(By Associated Press.)
Boston, May 25.—Eighty-eight corporations and individuals were indicted by the federal grand jury here today for conspiring to monopolize interstate commerce in onions. The indictments, which were returned as a result of a Nation-wide inquiry into the cost of food conducted last winter by United States Attorney George W. Anderson, of this city, allege that the defendants divided territory of the country between them for purpose of eliminating competition; that maximum prices were fixed for the purchase of onions, and that the supply was hoarded in order to increase
