HALF HOUR SCHEDULE. Effective Tomorrow Beach Cars on Half Hour in Afternoon. Preliminary to the regular summer schedule of beach passenger trains, which schedule becomes effective on Saturday, increased service will be given on the suburban line during the remainder of the week. Also the cars leaving the "Center" at 8:15 and 11:15 p. m. will go through to the beach instead of turning back at Wrightsville. Returning, these cars will leave the beach at 9 p. m. and 12 o'clock midnight.

BADLY OFF SCHEDULE. Incoming Train from the North Arrives Early in the Afternoon. Coast Line passenger train No. 41, from the north, was over two hours off schedule this morning, reaching the city at 12:05 p. m. The delay was caused by having to wait on connections, the traffic into Washington being unusually heavy, because of the many Confederate veterans who are wending their way toward the National capital to participate in the first reunion held outside the borders of the Southland.

ALL RUN-DOWN AND NERVOUS

Says This Lady Who Had To Support Family Of Four. Read Below Her Statement About Cardui.

Tallahassee, Ga.—Mrs. Sallie Eldson of this place, writes: "I was in very poor health, all run-down, nervous had fainting spells, dizziness and near fluttering. I had these symptoms usually at my . . . times. I had a very hard time, working for seven years in a hotel after my father died. I had to support our family of four. I read the Birthday Almanac and thought I would begin taking Cardui. I received good benefit from it. I am sure it will do all that it claims to do. I took three or four bottles before it began to show effects. After that I improved rapidly and gained in health and strength. I took nine bottles in all. This is the only time I have taken it. I was down to 108 pounds and I gained to 122. I felt like a new woman. I couldn't sleep before and now I sleep like a baby. And all this was stopped by Cardui."

The true value of a medicine can be determined only by the results obtained from its actual use. The thousands of letters we have received every year for many years from grateful users of Cardui, are powerful tributes to its worth and effectiveness. If you suffer from womanly ailments, try Cardui, the woman's tonic.

NAME DELIGATES TO ATTEND GOOD ROADS MEETING

Commissioners Considered Many Matters of Minor Importance Today

JURY LIST DRAWN NEXT TERM OF COURT

Joint Session Of Pender and New Hanover County Commissioners at Burgaw Late This Afternoon

The appointment of ten delegates to attend the annual Good Roads Convention in Asheville, June 27th, 28th and 29th, and the decision of the commissioners to attend the monthly meeting of the Commissioners of Pender county at Burgaw this afternoon, were the most important matters handled at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, held at noon today.

Chairman W. H. McGirt and several other members of the board left this afternoon about 3 o'clock for Burgaw where they will meet with the Pender County Commissioners to urge them in taking steps for better roads in that county. The New Hanover County Commissioners are particularly anxious about this matter, as the Federal good roads appropriation for Pender county, which would be used on the Wilmington-Fayetteville and Wilmington-Goldsboro highways, depends on whether or not the Pender people expend money on their roads.

Messrs. J. B. Thompson, H. Lacy Hunt, George P. Galvin, W. J. Bradshaw, Roger Moore, M. W. Jacob, W. D. Rhodes, J. R. Morris and R. A. Burnett were named as delegates to attend the Good Roads Convention in Asheville.

L. Clayton Grant, Esq., and Mr. P. W. Wells, of the Howard-Wells Amusement Company, addressed the board in regard to schedule B taxes, which require a large license from moving picture houses in the city. The speakers claim that the tax is an erroneous one. The matter was referred to the county attorney and the county auditor for action.

The roads committee reported unfavorably on the request upon the county to construct a road to Fort Fisher Sea Beach, made by Mr. Kure, giving the reason that the heavy summer travel over the county's roads would require the entire convict force for maintenance. A petition urging the commissioners to construct a cottage for Wilmington boys at the Jackson Training School was referred to a committee. The county home committee was instructed to purchase a mowing and baling machine.

The following jury was drawn for the next term of court: George L. Schutt, J. C. King, T. M. Ellis, W. H.

WRIGHTSVILLE BREEZES

Items of Interest From the Popular Resort.

Mrs. F. M. Griffin and daughter, Miss Griffin, are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Week-end house parties have already become fashionable, and several held sway from Saturday until today.

Among those registered at The Seashore for supper Saturday night were: Messrs. John J. Blair, High Point, J. E. Keith, Boston, and Raymond Hunt, Donald MacRae and C. R. Cohen, City.

Again is the "street lighting" in full glow at the beach, all the boardwalk lights having been turned on, and this makes the great stretch of boardwalk, known as Lumina Avenue, over a mile long, a great promenade after the eventide.

Many persons went to the beach yesterday afternoon and surf bathing was indulged in by quite a few. However, the storm that broke late in the afternoon sent all hurrying turtle-like for shelter, quitting the surf in an effort to keep from getting wet.

The Sunday schedule that is in operation between the city and beach on the Seacoast Road means that all who go down can ride comfortably. Trains of three cars will seat quite a few persons and the inconvenience and annoyance of having to stand is practically eliminated.

Mr. "B. T." Ferrell, popular traveling man of Durham, is spending today with a rod and reel on the Seashore pier in an effort to have something to tell friends when he returns up State. Although Mr. Ferrell expressed preference for an ordinary cane pole and line he finally selected a reel and announced his intention of showing up more experienced fishermen during the afternoon.

Messrs. O. L. Wagstaff, of Thomasville, N. C.; James C. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga.; E. M. Barnes, of Birmingham, Ala.; William B. Owen, of Philadelphia; Kermertan Dean, of Boston; S. J. Wellman, of Richmond; W. R. Philips, of Raleigh; W. S. Rowe, of Norfolk; H. E. Willingham, of Little Rock, Ark.; W. E. Cook, T. R. Matthews, of Atlanta, and R. Pitts, of Washington, are registered at the Seashore Hotel.

It is perhaps just as well that Professor Kneisel was not at Lumina yesterday afternoon, for had he heard the vocal and instrumental music furnished by two young men in the ball room during the storm his heart would perhaps have been broken. While the soloist knew or rendered but one selection to an accompaniment that was far from good his efforts kept the spirits of all high and kept the thoughts of all from the storm that was raging outside. "Nearer, My God, to Thee," was sung to a tune that was hardly recognizable, but sung nevertheless.

Among those who enjoyed a supper at The Seashore Sunday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Reard, Judge W. M. Bond, J. W. Weathers, Carl C. Pridden, J. L. Toon, Jr., F. J. Andrews, S. Baller and wife, M. Lipsky, City; E. C. Fields, New York; John Luter, Stanford, Ky.; Ward Lutes, City; Charles Lutes, Goldsboro, N. C.; G. Herbert Smith, Miss Elsie W. Smith, G. Herbert Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Griffith, Miss Rehder, Miss Morrison, Mr. O'Neill, Mr. Goodman, M. H. French, Miss Dozier and Mr. H. C. Calder, City; H. D. Chipley, Lynchburg, Va.; T. H. Cousen and Miss Annie Lynch, City.

Hot Weather Suits for Men

The man attired in one of these comfortable, feather-weight suits is usually about 15 degrees cooler than his neighbor in woolen garb. These cool, porous linens and mohairs persuade the investigation of every wandering breeze. Besides which, their cool appearance usually has a psychologic effect upon their wearers, including another drop in temperature of at least five degrees! You can and you will give of your war are fighting the battles, the who sons. With hearts that bleed and with lips that smile you will send them out to battle for that righteousness for which our fathers thought it worth their while to suffer and to die. We will give of our means; gladly making sacrifices and enduring privations in order that the causes to which we have dedicated our country may not fail. There are other things that we can do, our patriotic duties that we can perform, and in this agricultural diocese, so wonderfully blessed of God, we can and must raise food for the less favored sections of our country and for our Allies across the water. In so far as our own country is concerned, the man behind the plow has a mission to perform not less high and holy than the man behind the gun. This is no time to be misled by the lure of high prices for himself, when the crying need is for food for those who upon the firing line of the world beyond our borders.
