

RICH MAN NABBED; ALSO POLITICIAN

Virginia Republican Cursed the Flag and the President of His Country.

(By Associated Press.) Richmond, Va., June 6.—John L. Lutz, prominent Republican, wealthy business man and widely known politician, who was arrested at Coeburn, Wise county, yesterday, on the charge of cursing the President, the United States flag and the Democratic administration, is a former member of the Virginia House of Delegates. He was a member of the House at the time Richard Evelyn Byrd, who is now United States attorney for the Western District of Virginia, was speaker. Mr. Byrd will, it is expected, appear in court to prosecute him.

ROLL OF PATRIOTS GREAT IN ANSWER TO NATION'S CALL

tration totals will exceed expectations. The day passed without disorder of any kind and with but few arrests. The threatened opposition to conscription in the mountain districts of southwest Virginia failed to materialize and the mountaineers were reported to have registered in large numbers. Negroes also responded readily to the country's call, in spite of propaganda spread among them by German agents.

In some sections, particularly around Danville, Va., the registration was so heavy that the supply of cards gave out early and more had to be supplied. Few Slackers in New England. Boston, Mass., June 6.—Such figures as were available today indicated that there were few slackers in New England. The estimate of those bound by the law to register was exceeded in many places.

In Boston the registration was 75,567, as against an estimate of 74,435. Seventy-nine Massachusetts cities and towns outside of Boston reported a total of 201,955; the estimate for those places was 190,475.

It probably will be several days before some of the more remote counties of Arizona, New Mexico and Wyoming are in the hands of the governors of those States.

Developments anticipated today included action by Federal authorities against more than 100 Russians near Phoenix, Ariz., who refused to register because of religious scruples against war, and a further effort to register Navajo Indians near Flagstaff, who also refused to enroll.

Action of some sort also was expected to be taken against a small band of Utes near Ignacio, Colo., who refused to be registered and who went into the hills threatening to burn the town as they left.

On the Pacific Coast. San Francisco, June 6.—Registration under the selective draft act in the Pacific States, Idaho and Montana exceeded the estimates made by the provost marshal general's office at Washington, the partial returns today indicated. The response for registration was enthusiastically heeded in every city and hamlet in the far west.

Except in Butte, Mont., where citizens last night attempted to mob an anti-registration procession which resulted in the troops being called to suppress rioting, the western States conducted their registrations without special incident. Fifteen were arrested at Butte as a result of a demonstration.

Expectations Exceeded in Middle West. Chicago, June 6.—Registration under the conscription law in the middle-west exceeded expectations of Federal officials, incomplete returns today indicated. In Chicago, for instance, complete unofficial returns show that 309,024 men registered, while the most liberal forecast for the city was 300,000.

No serious disorder was reported in Illinois, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Indiana and Michigan. The nearest approach to an outbreak was in the mining districts of the Michigan peninsula. National guardsmen were called upon to patrol Negaunee when agitators, said to be Industrial Workers of the World, attempted anti-conscription argument by means of a parade. The parade was broken and the I. W. W. headquarters searched. Several rifles and sabres were seized.

From Rocky Mountain States. Denver, Colo., June 6.—Governors of the Rocky Mountain States today awaited returns from the counties on the number of men who registered yesterday under the selective draft act. Philadelphia Exceeds Estimates. Philadelphia, June 6.—Registration in Philadelphia exceeded the government estimates. Because of the slow rate of registering aliens some polling places did not complete their work until long after midnight. The total for the city was 172,502. These were subdivided as follows: Asked exemption, 21,823; those who are married, 78,483; single, but with dependents, 35,599; aliases, 38,306.

BONDS REFUSED BY SUBSCRIBERS

Craven County Halted in Road Building—Man of Many Aliases.

(Special to The Dispatch.) New Bern, June 6.—J. M. Hall, alias Frank Sargent, alias Lester Wise, alias half a dozen other names, who was placed under arrest in this city several weeks ago on a charge of being a German spy, and who was later held on charges of larceny, is to be allowed to leave the county. He was found guilty in Craven Superior Court yesterday of robbing two boarding houses of bedclothing and other articles, and suspended sentences totalling 16 months were placed on him, with the understanding that if he leaves the county and stays away these sentences will not be put into effect.

Hall comes from California and has served a term of five years in the State prison there for larceny.

The board of trustees of the New Bern public schools have decided that the adoption of a military training course in the local schools is the proper thing, and hereafter the youngsters who attend the schools will have the benefit of this. Prof. Frank L. Ashley, the principal, who has had several years of military training, will be in charge of this work and it will be taken up immediately after the beginning of the fall term.

Claiming that they were not legal, Spitzer Rorick & Company, of Toledo, O., have refused to take Craven county bonds to the amount of $275,000 which were awarded to them several weeks ago by the board of commissioners, and this action on their part bids fair to put the county to considerable inconvenience. The money from these bonds was to be spent in the construction of brick roads in Craven county, and if this money is not forthcoming the commissioners are going to be up against it, as the work has already been contracted for and started and must be paid for. The county attorney claims that the bonds are legal and declares that he will take the matter to the Supreme Court and show the Ohio concern that their claims have no foundation.

Several days ago it was announced that Dr. R. D. Y. Jones, of this city, who is surgeon in the United States navy, would leave within the course of a few days for France, having been appointed as chief surgeon on a fleet of fast ships which were to be sent to Europe. It is understood now that there is a possibility that Dr. Jones will not make this voyage, at least, not just at this time, and it is possible that he will remain in the United States for several weeks.

Dr. Jones is one of the most able surgeons in the navy and has been highly praised for his excellent work by the heads of the department in which he is located.

FOOD TO LAST TILL NEXT CROP

So Announce Heads of Departments of German Government After Conferences

(By Associated Press.) Berlin, (Via London), June 6.—It is officially stated that at a conference between the Prussian House of Lords and the heads of the various government departments, it was decided that there was complete assurance that the food supply was sufficient to enable the country to hold out for the remainder of the crop year and until the conclusion of a victorious peace. All problems connected with the matter of public feeding were thoroughly discussed.

The conferees formulated regulations for the crop of 1917-18 and considered all possibilities of food distribution.

BELGIAN MISSION TO COME TO AMERICA

(By Associated Press.) Washington, June 6.—Belgium will send an official mission to the United States headed by Baron Moncheur, former minister here. It will arrive within the next three weeks. Belgium regards the United States as her great benefactor and is eager to express her appreciation in the most whole-hearted way.

OVER THOUSAND IN BRUNSWICK COUNTY

(By Long Distance Phone to The Dispatch.) Southport, June 6.—Official reports made today show that 1,070 men registered in Brunswick county yesterday. The Government's estimate was 1,245, but the shortage is accounted for by reason of many young men having recently left the county to work elsewhere.

OLD GRADUATES FLOCKED BACK

Alumni Day at The University A Big Success—Some Fine Speeches.

(Special to The Dispatch.) Chapel Hill, June 6.—Old graduates by the score journeyed to the Hill yesterday to take part in the exercises of commencement which marked Alumni Day at the University. Eight classes, those of 1857, 1857, 1892, 1897, 1902, 1907 and 1912, held meetings and all were present at a delightful luncheon. Judge Francis D. Winston presided over the ceremonies.

Major John W. Graham, of Hillsboro, and Colonel Robert Bingham, of Asheville, class of '57, were the first to speak. They received an ovation. Among those who took part in the morning program were Dean Lucius Polk McGehee, '87; Hon. Walter Murphy, '92; H. G. Connor, Jr., Wilson, '97; R. S. Hutchison, Charlotte, '02; Senator C. A. Jones, '02; Holt Haywood, '07; J. J. Parker, '07, and C. E. Norman, '12.

Other members of the class were introduced and spoke briefly. R. D. W. Connor, Raleigh, was elected president of the alumni.

Many made short talks at the alumni luncheon. The class of '07 presented $1,000 to the University to erect a suitable flag pole.

The trustees hold their annual meeting tonight.

"Strangler" Lewis Loses. San Francisco, June 6.—Wladek Zbysko, of Poland, took a flying fall and the decision from Ed. ("Strangler") Lewis in a two and one-half hour wrestling match here last night.

The statue of Sequoyah, inventor of the Cherokee alphabet, was unveiled today as Oklahoma's first contribution to Statuary Hall at the National Capitol.
