COTTON.

Table with 2 columns: Location (Wilmington spot, Savannah spot, Charleston spot, Norfolk spot) and Price.

New York, June 16.—Renewed anxiety over the crop outlook seemed responsible for the firmer tone of the cotton market today.

Table with 3 columns: Date (July, Oct., Dec., Jan., March), High, Low, Close.

NEW YORK SPOT.

New York, June 16.—Spot cotton steady; middling, 25.30.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, June 16.—Cold weather caused a rise in the cotton market here today, amounting to 25 to 36 points in the first half hour of business.

COFFEE.

New York, June 16.—Coffee: Rio No. 7, 10. Futures, steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, June 16.—Down turns in the value of wheat continued today.

The chief new bearish development was an estimate that 60,000,000 bushels was available in the United States for export July 1 and for carrying over into the new crop year.

Active demand from commission houses lifted the corn market. After opening unchanged to 1-2c off, prices scored a sharp advance all around.

Oats developed strength owing to reports of frost at several points. Provisions reflected the bearish exhibit made by the monthly statement of warehouse stocks.

CLEARING HOUSE STATISTICS.

New York, June 16.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $54,050,750 reserve in excess of legal requirements.

This is a decrease of $14,868,450 from the last week.

DEAD AND INJURED IN FACTORY EXPLOSION.

(By Associated Press.) London, June 16.—The casualties in the explosion in a munitions factory at Ashton-Under-Lyne on Wednesday were reported officially as 41 killed and 130 injured. The announcement follows:

"The casualties reported in the Ashton-Under-Lyne explosion are 41 deaths, including 29 men, 3 women, 9 children, 130 injured, some seriously. It appears that the explosion resulted from a fire. A majority of work people escaped, all the women having left before the explosion. The manager is among the dead."

SENATE PASSES THE SHIPPING BILL.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, June 16.—The Senate without a record vote today, passed the administration's priority shipping bill which would prevent obstruction of interstate commerce and authorize the President to direct that shipments of commodities "essential to the prosecution of the war" be given preference in transportation. The bill now goes to the House.

ADDITIONAL SOCIAL.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold its regular social and educational meeting Monday afternoon, June 18th, at 5 o'clock, in the lecture room of the church. Mrs. Jas. H. Taylor and Mrs. C. D. Weeks will have charge of the program and a cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of the congregation.

JAP. SHIPS ATTACKED SUBMARINE.

(By Associated Press.) Tokyo, June 16.—While Japanese destroyers were attacking a submarine in the Mediterranean on June 11, the destroyer, Sakaki, was torpedoed and damaged, says an official announcement of the Japanese admiralty today. The damaged craft was towed to port. It is believed many of the crew were killed or wounded.

STOCKS.

New York, June 16.—(Wall Street)—An advance of two points in Marine preferred and a decline of slightly more than a point in United States Steel were the contrasting features of today's early operations.

Elsewhere except for a 3 1-2 point rise in Savage arms, changes were limited to fractions. Equipments and the general run of war issues were irregular with metals and specialties, but coal shares continued strong. Trading was of the usual week-end professional character.

There were numerous transactions in Liberty bonds at premiums of 250 to 550.

NEW YORK—DAY-BY-DAY.

(Special Correspondent of The Dispatch). New York, June 16.—With the opening of the Hotel des Artistes the artistic colony has jumped from old Fifth Avenue and Washington Square to West Sixty-Seventh street.

Across from the new hotel, to be occupied exclusively by artists and writers is another ten-story co-operative studio building occupied by artists. It accepts no transients.

On the same street there are four other studio buildings all occupied by the same profession. One are the days of Washington Square, Greenwich Village and Gramercy Park. As a matter of fact, the artists who have moved down there who could draw anything but checks. Too much fun was poked at these sections and so those who wanted to get away from the atmosphere made the big jump.

The Hotel des Artistes also proves the business ability of artists, for it was planned and built by them. Among those who will live there are Charles, Dana Gibson, Penrhyn, Stanlows, Charles Dana Gibson, Howard Chandler Christy, Penrhyn, Stanlows, Howard Chandler, and James Montgomery Flagg. The building will have a public cafe, roof garden and swimming pool and gymnasium.

The move uptown is another indication of the steady growth of business uptown. The Century Theatre is only a few steps away on the south, the Majestic is a few blocks away on the north. Central Park is right across the street with its bridge path, athletic fields and motor garage. Au Caprice is near. So is Nealy's and other of the liveliest places in New York.

Those who mourned when the Rialto moved to Fourteenth street have passed on. It would be hard to picture their amazement if they could return to see Columbus Circle at Fifty-Ninth street the coming hub of the city.

Up in the quiet little village of Auburn, N. Y., they have an itinerant vampire, judging from the following item clipped from the Auburn, N. Y., Citizen, the village paper: "Mr. Frank Brown, who has been in Auburn for some time breaking up the Fingree home, left last evening for Englewood, N. J.

Commercial success based upon inspiration came the other day to Toby Bessa, whose four-cylinder rifle range is on Broadway. For nearly a month he has been getting but a small return into long sights, and just when he had decided that business was not all it was shot up to be, he developed the big idea. Now the rattle of musketry is heard constantly in his little cubbyhole. He replaced his Central target, a large bear, with an excellent picture of the Kaiser. Throughout the day and night, his Majesty is being continually peppered on the West Front.

Women are to become cigar salesmen in New York shortly. The United Cigar Stores Company, which operates 350 stores in greater New York, is already training women to take places behind the counters. While learning they are to receive salaries.

Mayor Mitchel has put a ban on "rag timing" national anthems in the dancants. He learned that "The Marslaise" and "The Star Spangled Banner" and other national anthems were being transposed into ragtime and used for dancing. An amusing incident occurred in connection with the move to stop it. An officer rushed up to the leader of the orchestra who was playing, "If I Had a Son for Every Star in Old Glory, etc." and told him to stop it. "Why?" asked the leader. "Because" he snorted. "That's the National Air."

AMERICAN STEAMER IN BATTLE.

(By Associated Press.) An Atlantic Port, June 15.—An American steamer arriving early today reported an engagement with a German submarine off Brest, France, May 23. The U-boat fired two torpedoes at the steamer, one at the bow and one at the stern, but neither found its mark. The naval gunners on the steamer fired on the U-boat, but do not think they registered a hit. After ten shots from the steamer the submarine disappeared.

Henry Piaggio, a shipbuilder of Orange, Texas, will build five or more ships at Pascagoula, Miss., it is announced. Nearly 500 men will be employed.

A semi-official note says that the German submarine, U-52, which was towed into Cadiz June 12, was operating outside that port. On June 12 a Norwegian steamer was torpedoed off Huelva and a Russian sailing vessel between Larache and Cadiz, which leads to the belief that a group of submarines has been sent to blockade ports of Cadiz and Huelva.

Plans for making the United States a great elementary training base for aviators of all the allied nations have been formulated by the defense council's air craft production board which believes this country can supply only machines suited for training work for some months to come, but can take care of the needs of all the allies in that respect.

Festival of Friendliness.

San Diego, Cal., June 16.—Governor Esteban Cantu, of Lower California, is to be accorded an unusual courtesy here next week, when governors of American States and mayors of American cities of the Southwest will participate in a festival of friendliness at which the Mexican official will be the guest of honor.

The governors of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Nevada and California have been invited to attend the festival, with the mayors of some 200 cities. The aim of the festivities, which will continue over a period of several days, will be to promote greater friendliness between the United States and Mexico and closer relations among the various sections of the Southwest.

fourth annual convention of our league.

"To genial 'Charlie' Hooper, manager of the Oceanic Hotel, we wish to express thanks for the able manner in which he and his assistants have contributed to the welfare and pleasure of this convention and to express the hope that we will come again.

"Read and approved in convention assembled this the 15th day of June, 1917.

"E. R. BROWNE, "O. F. DARDINE, "D. M. BAIN.

"Committee on Resolutions."

One of the most interesting addresses of the day was made during the early afternoon by Mr. W. Stephen Bush, of New York, editor of the Exhibitors' Trade Review. Mr. Bush reached the city unannounced, and remained but a very short period, and yet every delegate missed his presence immediately that he was gone. He spoke commandingly of the work accomplished by Mr. Wells and Mr. Varner regarding the proposed tax on motion picture houses and predicted great things for the motion picture exhibitors of the South—especially those of North Carolina.

A motion picture was made of the delegates early in the afternoon, and the dance at Lumina, which was the concluding feature of the second and final day of the convention, was enjoyed by all. The dance had been beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and the breeze that blew off the ocean whipped and fanned the flags of the allied nations of the world back and forth as though they were keeping time with the music of Kneisel's famous orchestra.

The moonlight parade from the Oceanic to Lumina was staged with the moonlight missing, and the patter of rain that struck straw hats and board walk just a minute before Lumina was reached warned all that it was time to double-quick a bit. The parade was led by the Wilmington Drum and Bugle Corps and their marching music brought scores from the cottages lining the board walk to their doors and verandas to wave a welcome.

BRITISH PEOPLE URGED TO READ.

President Wilson's Speech on Flag Day—Secretary Balfour's Comments On It.

(By Associated Press.) London, June 16.—Arthur J. Balfour, Foreign Secretary, yesterday signalled his first public appearance since he returned from the United States by a speech at the second annual meeting of the National Committee for Relief in Belgium, at the Mansion House.

In his address Mr. Balfour advised every one to read President Wilson's Flag Day address, published in the morning papers, because of its relation to Germany's treatment of Belgium.

"If you have not already read President Wilson's speech," said Mr. Balfour, "I strongly advise you to do so, and at the same time to bear in mind Germany's actions and policy in Belgium. In it you will find justification of this great alliance among all nations who love liberty.

"The one true remedy for the wrongs of Belgium is the defeat of Germany." The action of the United States in taking over the whole cost of the relief of Belgium was greeted with loud applause by several hundred persons, most prominent in the relief work, which has been carried on since the outbreak of the war and who have collected nearly two and a half million pounds for it.

Walter Hines Page, the American Ambassador, followed Mr. Balfour. He thanked the American members of the Belgian Relief Commission and announced that although the entry of the United States into the war had made it impossible for Americans to carry on the work in Belgium, the machinery of the Commission would be kept intact for eventualities.

Among the speakers was Paul Hyman, the Belgian Minister to London.

Mr. Hyman paid tribute to the work of the commission under the energetic impulse of Herbert C. Hoover, which he said, under strict neutrality, was the first intervention of the United States in the European war.

MISS FRANCES T. MORGAN A BRIDE.

New York, June 16.—One of the most notable of the June weddings in New York society was that of Miss Frances T. Morgan and Mr. Paul Geddes Penoyer, which took place today in St. John's Church at Lattington, L. I. The bride is the younger daughter of Pierpont Morgan. The bridegroom, whose home is in Berkeley, Cal., was a classmate at Harvard of the bride's brother, J. S. Morgan, Jr.

"OH! BUT I FEEL GOOD," SAYS MISS ANNA RAU, SINCE I BEGAN TO USE IRONIZED PAW-PAW.

"Scores of my friends are saying the same thing about Ironized Paw-Paw. Miss Anna Rau, who lives at 113 South Elmwood avenue, Baltimore, Md., is truly grateful. She says: 'I was a nervous wreck, but now I feel good. I can't tell you the change that Ironized Paw-Paw has made in my stomach so that I could eat anything. No distress after eating, no belching of wind, no palpitation of the heart, no dizziness, my feet and limbs are now warm, where before they were cold and clammy. It rested my nerves so that I could enjoy the pleasures of life. It doesn't seem possible that (2) bottles of medicine could do such a great change. My friends all say, 'What have you been doing to yourself? Your cheeks are rosy.' 'So a thing,' I say, 'but taking Ironized Paw-Paw.'"

Yes, this Remedy has made the town. Druggists are busy asking questions about this new and wonderful Remedy. The Iron Men can be seen at Elvington's department store. He will tell you the scores of people who have bought in the last two (2) weeks. You buy or not, come in and see one of the new strength builders you will begin to feel better before you leave the store.

Ironized Paw-Paw Remedy will do more to brighten the world, to cheer the gloom, to make happy, to give strong iron bodies, than all the medicines that have ever been compounded. The evidence we are public here every day should be conclusive proof.

There is no guesswork about these statements, they come from your neighbors, from people you can see and from people that you can't see and believe.

We most earnestly ask every sufferer from coughs, colds, indigestion, stomach trouble, sleeplessness, general nervousness or impaired blood to get a bottle of Ironized Paw-Paw.

Ironized Paw-Paw sold at all drug stores promptly attended to. Remedy on every bottle.
