Miss Julia Cromartie has returned from Newark, where she spent the weekend with friends.

Mr. J. H. Hill, of Maysville, spent the weekend in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Plaff have returned from Washington, D. C., where they have been visiting friends for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Branson, of Florence, S. C., is in the city, visiting her son, Mr. W. J. Copeland, of No. 707 South Fourth street.

Friends of Mrs. J. F. Parker, of Wallace, who underwent a serious operation at the Harper-Tankersley Sanitarium Saturday, will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly improving.

Today's Raleigh News and Observer: "Mrs. Thomas A. Wortham and two children, Richard and Lillian, of Wilmington, are the guests of Mrs. Henry Cabell Bentley on Salisbury street."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. Announcement of the engagement of Miss Catherine Russell, daughter of Mrs. F. H. Russell, of this city, and Mr. B. R. Reynolds, also of this city, is made. The wedding will take place in November. Both Miss Russell and Mr. Reynolds are well known in this city.

LAST OPPORTUNITY Housewives Should Get Beans Tomorrow

Announcement was made early this afternoon by Mr. J. P. Herring, county farm demonstrator, to the effect that the Central Market at the Castle street tabernacle, will in all probability be flooded with beans tomorrow, and the housewives of the city are urged to bear this in mind and make a special effort to get quantities for canning purposes. Mr. Herring states that while it may not be convenient for the ladies to do any canning tomorrow they should make sacrifices for this once, as in all probability the bean market will not amount to a great deal in the future, as the farmers are preparing to plough them in to make room for new crops.

This, Mr. Herring says, will probably be the last opportunity the women of the city will have to get beans in quantities and they should take advantage of the flush condition of the market tomorrow. An additional can of beans will mean that much of an increase of the supply of foods conserved.

Some Drum. Mr. E. R. Pickard, of the Queen City Cycle Company, claims the honors for having landed the largest drum fish of the season. The fish, which weighed 42 pounds and 2 ounces, two ounces less than the largest of last season, was landed after a 45-minute fight at Green's Inlet yesterday afternoon.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. Earl Collins, of Maysville, spent last night in the city with friends, returning to his home this morning.

Rev. J. H. Hill, of Maysville, spent several hours in the city yesterday with friends, returning to his home late in the afternoon.

Manager Christy Mathewson is keeping his Reds knocking at the door of the front division. If the Red Birds keep on hammering the line they may be able to break through.

MANY ATTENDED EXERCISES. The services held at the Delgado Baptist Sunday school yesterday morning for the children were attended by an unusually large number of persons and were of a very enjoyable nature.

CITIZENSHIP WEDDING. At Trinity church, Mobile, Ala., on Friday evening of last week, Miss Katherine Ottoway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Ottoway, of this city, and Mr. Horace D. Brown, of Point, Miss., formerly of this city, were married. Miss Ottoway will be here Wednesday to meet her fiancé, who is a nephew of Mr. E. L. Prince, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clayton, of Leakesville, returned to their home this morning, after spending several days at Wrightsville Beach.

While the crowds at the beach yesterday were fairly large, the weather was a little too cool for surf bathing and, considering the immensity of the crowd that went to the beach, the number of bath suits was woefully small.

The surf was unusually rough yesterday and while the experienced ones, got much pleasure from riding waves that was poor consolation for the novice, who was slapped down by the angry breakers on numerous occasions. The under-tow, however, considering the roughness of the surf, was not in evidence to any great extent.

From The Monroe Journal: "R. S. Blakeney, president of the Bank of Union, and Hon. J. J. Parker will leave here Sunday for Wrightsville Beach to attend the meeting of the State Bankers' association there Tuesday. Mr. Parker will deliver an address before that body on that day. Mr. Blakeney is president of the association."

Yesterday's Charlotte News: "Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Watt arrived in the city yesterday from Silver, where they have a beautiful home. They made the trip in their car and were accompanied by Miss Mary Bryson, of Webster, a pretty and attractive, Miss of twelve, who will go with them tomorrow to Wrightsville."

CONVENTION WEEK OPENS TOMORROW

Thousands of Visitors Will Be at Wrightsville Beach During the Present Week

Convention week at Wrightsville Beach starts tomorrow, and Wednesday will see four conventions sitting at the famous resort at the time. Thousands of people will see the guests of Wrightsville during the present week and the English language will be exhausted in the speechmaking and discussion of the all-important and interesting subjects that are to come before the business sessions of the various organizations that will have hundreds of representatives in attendance.

The ice of convention week will be broken when the Hardware Association of the Carolinas is convened in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Delegates to this convention are arriving today and among those registered this morning were Mr. N. W. Thorp, of Monroe, and Mr. E. G. Ridgeway, of Charlotte.

The Bankers and Red Men will be in before the water is hardly ruffled by the Hardware men. The Red Men will assemble for the initial session of their convention at 8:30 o'clock in the evening in the assembly hall of the Oceanic Hotel and the opening session of the Bankers' Association of the State will be held thirty minutes later in the auditorium on Harbor Island.

The opening session of the North Carolina Building and Loan League will be held in Hanover Inn at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the sessions will extend through Wednesday.

Social sessions will be held at the beach during the week by delegates to the mid-summer reunion of the Scottish Rite Masons of North Carolina. The business sessions of which organization will be held in the Masonic Temple on Thursday and Friday, when an unusually large class of candidates will be initiated.

The week will be closed by the Southern Textile Association, one of the largest conventions that will be at the beach this season. Their sessions will be held in the assembly hall of the Seashore Hotel, Friday and Saturday, the opening session being set for 11 a. m. Friday.

Social functions of the Land Owners' Association, which will hold business sessions at the Chamber of Commerce, will begin tomorrow. It will be one of the biggest weeks in the history of the beach that has entertained scores of conventions and thousands of visitors.

The managers of the two hotels, Messrs. Hooper and Hinton, of the Oceanic and Seashore, respectively, have given out the information that they are prepared to take care of all the guests and every visitor to the beach will be assured of the most courteous of treatment. Many of the visitors will stay at the cottages and inns that line the board walk leading from The Oceanic to Lumina and all will quit the beach with the feeling that the time spent there was well and enjoyably spent.

The crew of the Norwegian sailing vessel Perfect, 1,088 tons gross, has arrived at Yumiden, Holland. The ship was torpedoed and sunk. Two of the crew are Americans. The Perfect had a cargo of wheat from Bahia for Copenhagen.

ROYAL ARCANUM SCORE VICTORY

Court of Appeals Overrules Receivership Action Taken Recently in Mass.

Grand Secretary Henry E. Bonitz, of the North Carolina Royal Arcanum, received a telegram yesterday from Supreme Regent C. Arch Williams, in Chicago, informing him that the Royal Arcanum had won the famous "Hobart" case and that the Federal Court of Appeals had just decided that the United States had no jurisdiction in the receivership case, and that the Court of Appeals had directed the lower court to dismiss the proceedings which will end the matter.

Grand Secretary Bonitz, upon receipt of the telegram bringing the good news, immediately wired all of the North Carolina lodges, which will convey the tidings to the 3,600 members of the Arcanum in this State. There are about 200 members of the local lodge of the Royal Arcanum who have received the news of the action of the Court of Appeals with much satisfaction.

It will be remembered that several weeks ago Judge Aldrich, in Massachusetts, threw the organization into the hands of receivers on a petition of a member of the order, who held a $500 life insurance policy with the Royal Arcanum. The action of the judge was without any warning to the officers of the organization and it came as a thunderbolt out of a clear sky.

It was stated by Grand Secretary Bonitz this morning that it has been recently announced that the Supreme Council of the Arcanum had decided to pay all policies of members of the Arcanum who will enlist or be drafted into the service of the United States in the present war.

Celebrate Bunker Hill Day. Boston, Mass., June 18.—Not in many years has Boston and vicinity witnessed such an outburst of patriotism as that which marked today's celebration of Bunker Hill Day. Although the day was not a legal holiday, practically all the business activities of the city were suspended in observance of the 142nd anniversary of the battle that began the American war of independence. The patriotic celebration centered, as usual, in Charlestown, the scene of the famous fight. A big military and naval parade was the leading feature of the program.

Major James Bourke, of the army medical corps, shot and killed himself at his home in Washington Saturday night. He had been suffering from a mental breakdown. He was born in Iowa and was a graduate of Rush Medical College and of the Army and Navy Medical School.

THEATRE

Manager Bailey, of the Royal, declares that he has booked for this week the rip-roaringest, rolltickngest, funniest and best musical tabloid organization that has ever visited the city. It is a new one for Wilmington and Mr. Bailey is expecting great things of it. Don Nichols headed the aggregation, which is known as the Nephews and Nieces of Uncle Sam. It is widely advertised and pronounced one of the best in the business presenting tabloid attractions.

Comedy and music will reign supreme at the Royal during this engagement. According to today's announcement by the management, there will be "miles of smiles without a blush," and that ought to mean a thoroughly good show and at the same time a perfectly clean and wholesome one. The corps of comedians carried is excellent, according to advance notices, and as for beauty, the young ladies with the company have been taking prizes at beauty shows since they were babies, which may or may not be a good while. Unless appearances lie, however, or are misleading, there will be optical attractions at the Royal this week surpassing any for many moons. All that is asked of you is simply that you be on hand for the opening bill today and judge for yourself.

FIVE-PART MASTERPIECE AT GRAND.

"One of Many," the five-part feature screen drama, which, presented by Arthur James, will be seen at the Grand theatre tomorrow, with Frances Nelson as star, is a great moral pantomime. On the screen is flashed the story of the struggle, the sorrows and the regeneration of Shirley Bryson, the little manicure girl whose love for her mother blinds her eyes to her duty to herself.

"One of Many," which has been written and directed by William Christy Cabanne, lays bare the pitfalls that beset the path of young girls who go out into the world to grapple with modern conditions. Especially it flays those who take the attitude that a rich man can do no wrong; that youth, beauty and innocence, are fit commodities to be sold over a counter—or across a manicure table. It is unsparring in its denunciation of those parents, who, secretly walking in forbidden ways themselves, display hypocritical anger at the shortcomings of their children. "One of Many" preaches in plain terms the doctrine that "they who sow must also reap."

The National Board of Censorship, after seeing "One of Many," pronounced it a profound moral lesson, and its entertainment and moral values were described as of unusual strength.
