

TAKE ORDINARY IRON INSTEAD OF ALCOHOLIC PREPARATIONS

Alcohol injures Stomach, Nerves, Digestion, Kidneys and Bladder. Proprietary Remedies Often Contain Alcohol. Only Temporary Relief.

NATURAL NON-ALCOHOLIC IRON, KNOWN AS ACID-IRON MINERAL SOLD BY ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS.

The moment that the stomach, digestion, appetite, energy, sleep or nerves become slightly deranged or disordered, due to our present day methods of living and the tension and strain of war and excitement, we should assist nature back to normal again by giving the system iron in sufficient quantities to make up for the deficiency. Iron cleanses and purifies the blood.

In a natural form, bottled in the Ferrrodine Chemical Corp. iron in three forms, together with calcium, sodium, potassium and sulphuric acid, is now prepared and sold in convenient size bottles for home use, highly concentrated and economical. To secure this splendid, non-alcoholic, natural iron, ask your druggist for Acid Iron Mineral which comes in fifty cent and dollar size bottles. Highly concentrated and economical, this natural non-alcoholic iron is non-injurious to the stomach, digestion, bowels or teeth. Alcohol, it must be remembered, injures the stomach and nerves, causes damage to the kidneys, liver or bladder. It has but a temporary effect upon the digestion with reaction later on.

Note carefully in buying iron preparations whether or not the preparations offered you contain alcohol. The government forces all proprietary remedies to be so labeled for the protection of the public.

Acid Iron Mineral, free of alcohol and pure as the rippling brook, not only possesses a huge percentage of iron in three forms, but also has elements of wonderfully medicinal value in the treatment of the stomach, blood, liver and kidneys. Get a fifty cent or dollar size bottle from your druggist, or large size bottles will be sent prepaid $1.00 by the Ferrrodine Chemical Corp., Roanoke, Va.—Adv.

Nuxated Iron Makes Strong, Vigorous, Iron Men and Beautiful Healthy Rosy Cheeked Women

Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician—Brooklyn State Hospital, says:

Goal That these stuff (Nuxated Iron) sets like magic. It certainly puts the glister of youth into a man.

"Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale, and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. A patient of mine remarked to me (after having been on a six weeks' course of Nuxated Iron). 'Say, Doctor, that there stuff is like magic.'"

"If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron, I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it should be kept in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country."

Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. James is for sale by Jarman & Futralie and all good druggists on an absolute guarantee of success, and satisfaction or your money refunded.—Adv.

THEATRE

The Grand management for the first time in its history presents a great seven reel-motion picture production for tomorrow without knowing one thing in the world about what it is. It's the "Seven Deadly Sins," the last of the sensational series that has been crowding the Grand for the past six weeks, and it is in seven great reels.

It ought to be good — with all of the seven world renowned stars of all of the "Seven Deadly Sins" together in one production. But the management does not know what the story is nor anything about it, for no one has been allowed to know in advance what "Seven Deadly Sins" really is. There were no trade papers or newspaper reviews of the film. The National Board of Review, of course, looked it over before release, but they did not make public the nature of it.

Shirley Mason and George LeGuere, with Nance O'Neil, Charlotte Walker, H. B. Warner and all the other stars seen in "Seven Deadly Sins" collaborated in making the final great production in seven reels, and it is a production that for the more mystery about the thing will undoubtedly draw capacity crowds tomorrow.

CONTINUE TO MAKE BIG HIT.
Rogers and Marvin. "The Song Birds of the South," continue to register a tremendous hit at the Royal every performance and are easily the greatest of all the feature attractions with Bob King's Southland Maids Company this week. Their act in the new show which went on yesterday and played to the largest crowds of the week, was an instantaneous hit. It was a medley of old time favorites, ranging all the way from "Home Sweet Home" to "Dixie," each number being wildly applauded by the audience at each performance.

There are other big features with this show, too, and Happy Gibbes in a ludicrous black face role again delighted everyone.

This big bill goes on for the last times today and tonight and patrons who missed it yesterday should most certainly attend one of today's performances.

KERENSKY LED RUSSIAN DRIVE IN PERSON.

MINISTER OF WAR KERENSKY

The brilliant Russian drive in Galicia, the news of which sent a wave of patriotic rejoicing throughout revolutionary Russia, was led by Minister of War Kerensky in person, according to dispatches from Petrograd. For several days before the beginning of the offensive Kerensky had been at the front, personally urging the troops to fight for their new-found freedom. Kerensky's appeals had their effect. The soldiers, who have most explicit confidence in him, voted to resume the offensive and the new Galician drive with the capture of more than 18,000 Teutons, was the result.

The new Russian dreadnaught Volia (Liberty) which was to have been named Alexander III, has been commissioned for service in the Black sea.

BENNY LEONARD GOING TO RUST

Loafing on His Laurels—Fans Anxious to See Him in Ring.

(By United Press.)
New York, July 5.—For some reason not yet given the public Billy Gibson is allowing Benny Leonard, formerly one of the most active lightweights the country had ever known, to loaf on his laurels and to grow rusty from inaction.

With one of the best matches in sight the fans ever were known to sigh for Leonard is holding aloof, and while Johnny Kilbane is eager to form his half of the bout he and his manager are going no further than mere statements.

Leonard and Kilbane have been offered various sums for their appearance in a scrap for the world's lightweight championship.

Matt Hinkel, the famous Cleveland referee and promoter, came out the first offer the very night Leonard was successful in bouncing Freddie Welsh's crown onto his head. He came to New York for the purpose of trying to stage a bout between Kilbane and Welsh, but switched to the new champion when Leonard was crowned.

Hinkel offered $25,000 for the bout and offered to stage it over a fifteen round distance in Ohio. Jimmy Dunn was agreeable for Kilbane to go through with it, but Gibson held off and is still doing so.

Next John Weismantel, who holds a license to operate bouts in Ebbsfeld, Brooklyn, came through with a wad of kale to offer for the bout. But there was nothing doing. Gibson declared Leonard would not sign for any bouts until he had entered some branch of service in the country's war on Germany. The sentiment was nice, but Leonard had gone no further with either idea at last reports.

The most recent offer came from Colorado, where they were so vulgar as to offer the two champions a $20,000 purse for a 20-round tilt. Managers for both men were shocked and then replied there was nothing doing. We can do better in the East," was he unanimous answer they sent to the Coloradans.

Meanwhile the fight fans are waiting. They know the best match in years is possible. They are beginning to feel it never will be offered them.

Abram I. Elkus, former United States Ambassador to Turkey with which this country served diplomatic relations last April, arrived in New York yesterday. He was accompanied by his wife, 3 children and attaches of the embassy at Constantinople.

Use "Gets-It," Lift Corn Right Off

Shrivels, Loosens—and It's Gone!
"Just like taking the lid off—that's how easy you can lift a corn of your toe after it has been treated with the wonderful discovery, 'Gets-It.' Hunt the wide world over and you'll find nothing so magic, simple and easy as 'Gets-It.' You folks who have wrapped your toes in bandages to look like bundles, who have used knives that turned your toes raw and sore, and used plasters that would shift from their place and never "get" the corn, and who have dug and picked at your corns with knives and scissors and perhaps made them bleed—just quit these old and painful ways and try "Gets-It" just once. You put 2 or 3 drops on, and it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. You can put your shoe and stocking right on again. The pain is all gone. Then the corn dies a painless, shriveling death. It loosens from your toe, and off it comes. "Gets-It" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world today. There's none other as good.

"Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Wilmington and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by R. R. Belmont, Smith Drug Store, Southside Drug Co., Livingston's Pharmacy, Harding's Pharmacy, Green's Drug Store and Mission Pharmacy.
