William Dacy was making hard going in the Harlem court. All he had to do was to explain the disappearance of a quantity of copper wire floundering. Finally he pointed an accusing finger at Herbert Kelsey, his ragged companion, also charged with petit larceny.

"Your honor", said Dacy "there's the guy. Until I knowed near me life was a clean slate, but ever since

THE SPY QUESTION UNDER DISCUSSION

(By Associated Press.) Washington, July 5 -The unsuccessul submarine attacks on the ships of he American expeditionary force has revival spy rumors in the capital and will result in even more stringent measures if possible to cloak the movements of military forces from the enemy. The relief and gratincation of officials over the safe arrival of the last units of the expedition is tempered by manifest feeling of indignation that the German admiralty was able to lay its plans so well and to attack the American vessels in force before they reached the zone which had been regarded as most dangerous.

Discussion of possible spy activities took many angles today. Some officials were inclined to believe that the Germans must have had a warning of the definite time agreed upon for the crossing, but others discredited any such theory, arguing that an attack was to have been expected as a natural consequence of the general knowledge
