

CANNING CLUBS ARE DOING FINE

Craven County Makes Glorious Report—Railroad Directors to Meet

(Special to The Dispatch.)
New Bern, July 14.—According to reports reaching New Bern, the canning clubs in Craven county are making greater efforts now than has ever before been the case and, in consequence, thousands of cans of vegetables and fruit are being put up for consumption during the winter months.

The Chamber of Commerce's action in securing 30,000 cans for members of the clubs in Craven county has greatly aided them in their efforts to purchase these at an extremely low cost. A large number of these cans were returned to be placed, but it is believed that the last one will have been taken before the season comes to a close.

According to statements made today by Mr. John H. Parker, secretary of the Eastern Carolina Fair Association, horse racing will be a feature at all of the fairs on the Eastern Carolina circuit and horsemen from all over the country will be in attendance at these events.

Mr. Parker, accompanied by President Clyde Eby, of the local association, attended a meeting of the secretaries held at Kinston this week and at that time all arrangements were made for carrying out the racing program.

Announcement has been made that the stockholders of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railway Company will hold their annual meeting at Morehead City on August 2 and at that time a number of very important matters are to be attended to.

These meetings are looked forward to with a deal of interest by holders of stock in that company and are always largely attended.

BIG EVENT FOR THE RED CROSS

National Theatrical Day Will Be Presented in Fall by War Council.

Washington, D. C., July 14.—What will undoubtedly be the most gigantic undertaking ever attempted in the way of theatrical benefits, is now being planned by the War Council, of the American Red Cross, of which Henry P. Davison is chairman. A National Red Cross Theatrical Day will be designated some time in the fall, probably in October when the theatrical season will be in full swing. On this day it is planned to stage a huge nationwide theatrical benefit in practically every theatre in the entire country.

Special performances will be given. The entire receipts of the various theatres will be donated to the Red Cross War Relief Fund. All of the actors will contribute their salaries for the day. And the public at large, will probably have still another opportunity to evidence their loyal support of the great humane task of the Red Cross, by paying special prices for tickets.

Seldom does such work as the Red Cross is doing go without the active support of the theatrical profession. The people engaged in this work have given ample proof of their ability and willingness to bring cheer into the lives of the needy in ways other than mere entertainment.

The theatrical profession is living up to its reputation and the movement is already well under way with the able direction of Mr. A. L. Erlanger who has been appointed National chairman for the Theatre Day by Mr. Davison. Over 250 of the most able theatrical managers throughout the United States have already volunteered to turn over their entire receipts on this day to the Red Cross Fund and Mr. Erlanger is enlisting the active support of these men in enlarging the scope of the plan and in carrying it through to a successful conclusion.

GERMANY ADOPTS A NEW SYSTEM

Endeavors to Meet Crisis in Prussia With an Electoral Reform.

(By Associated Press.)
Berlin, July 13 (Delayed), Via London, July 14.—Germany has settled one of the main points in her present crisis by instituting a new electoral system for Prussia.

There remains in the parliamentary controversy settlement of the Reichstag's future place in government. Today the main committee of the Reichstag held a meeting with most of the State secretaries, except Chancellor Hollweg, present. The meeting was brief. Adjournment was regarded as demonstrating to the Kaiser that a conference is not possible on the situation until the cabinet is made responsible to the committee.

The new Prussian electoral system, as announced in the Kaiser's rescript, provides for equal, secret and direct suffrage. According to liberal leaders the new plan will benefit equally the millionaire and the beggar, giving them one vote each.

Hitherto Prussia has been the leading State in its influence on the German empire. Its politics have been reactionary. They are now being democratized, although naturally Prussia's influence is against such a move, as proved by the furious opposition to reform of the conservative press.

HEALTH SURE IN THE ARMY

Army Men are Following The Doctor's Orders Which Always Mean Good Health

Let's see how it works. First they pick out only a healthy, sound man, and then they make him live right. Regular hours, regular sleep, regular drills and exercise, regular meals and they omit all the fancy pastries that cause so much indigestion. It is adding years to the lives of thousands of young men. This sensible living which they enforce in the army, without the hard grinding mental worry, "edge" the nerves, or late hours, irregular meals, dissipation and excess, as we folks stand up under. And with a healthy start, get hard as nails, tough as shoe leather and full of pep and energy reserve strength and vitality.

But if They Pick You and I They would have a different course to adopt. But they don't and that is why the volunteer system is spurned. It brings out too many unfit for the army and more or less unfit for anything else. They pick out the cream of young manhood by the selective draft, and you and I are left home to fustle and worry, hurry and scurry trying to earn a living, unfit for one reason or another to pass the examination. No wonder some of us don't earn much, feel like working mules, and don't enjoy much the pleasures, and life, that the younger, or healthier ones do.

There is Something Wrong With Us. Let's begin toning up the rundown system, speed up the faltering vital organs of the stomach and digestion. Let's get some Natural, Medicinal Iron for our kidneys and blood. Let's take Acid Iron Mineral. All the druggists have it. It is economical powerful and not at all bad to take. The beauty about it too, is that it contains no alcohol which everybody knows injures the kidneys, digestion, nerves, brain and general system.

The calcium, sodium, potassium and sulphuric acid which analysis shows is in Acid Iron Mineral, is just the right proportions help the appetite, stimulate the vital organs of the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels and with the wonderful effects to come from the three forms of iron in it, you get a splendid tonic, system builder and blood purifier, which is economical and just fine. Whole families take it with wonderful results. A half teaspoonful in a glass of water is a dose. It goes from two to ten times as far as other and weaker iron preparations, which in many instances contain the dangerous alcohol. Your druggist has it in fifty cent or dollar size bottles now.

When General George W. Goethals, "builder of the canal," was chosen general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation under the government shipping board, he just naturally turned to the men who helped him carve up the Isthmus.

The most important offices in the Fleet Corporation are today filled by men Goethals relied on down there. Major R. E. Wood, who served under Goethals on the canal as chief quartermaster, is general purchasing agent of the Fleet Corporation.

HOLT'S CIRCUIT DRIVE WON GAME

Wilmington Light Infantry Team Takes Another From Fort Caswell Regulars

Holt's home run over centerfield fence with two men on the bases, at Robert Strang play grounds, yesterday afternoon, is what won the game between the Fort Caswell regulars and the local Militia Coast Artillerymen for the latter. The final score was 4 to 3 and Second Baseman Holt's home drive, which landed in Ann street, came after the Fort Caswell team had scored two runs in an early inning.

The Wilmington Light Infantry team then scored another run as did Uncle Sam's regulars.

More than a thousand enthusiastic baseball fans witnessed the contest, which was the fourth between Manager Gaylor's Light Infantrymen and Engineer Putnam's soldiers. The series now stands 3 to 1 in favor of the local boys. A fifth game will be played at Southport on Thursday of this week, when a picked team of the City League will cross bats with the Caswell Artillerymen.

Collection was taken at the ball ground during the game and a neat sum was realized for the local Red Cross, for which organization's benefit the game was played. At 2 o'clock a parade moved over the downtown streets and to the play grounds. In the procession was the Coast Artillery band, which accompanied the ball team from the army post for the event, and the First Division North Carolina Militia, in command of Lieutenant Henry B. Peachau. Just prior to the parade the band gave a concert in front of the post office.

At the play grounds, for the benefit of the large crowd of fans, the sailors were put through a number of maneuvers in the nature of an exhibition drill. The band, in the grandstand, rendered music between the innings during the game.

Holt, whose home run drive, with two men on the bases, won the game for the Light Infantrymen, also cracked out a double and played a steady game at the key position. Orr, twirling for the regular soldiers, came in for a share of the honors by smashing out a home run over the centerfield fence and striking out 9 men. The bases were empty when Pitcher Orr made his circuit drive.

KEEP VEGETABLES AND FRUIT IN STORAGE.
Washington, D. C., July 14.—Fruits and vegetables will be preserved through freezing storage in the present emergency by concerns not primarily engaged in commercial cold storage operations, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Many hotels, restaurants, and ice cream factories are equipped with facilities for refrigerated storage and pie factories and other large users of fresh fruits and vegetables may find it advantageous to provide similar means for the preservation of their raw materials or utilize the facilities of the large public cold storage houses with which most of the large communities are provided.

The fresh products should be stored in a temperature of 10 to 16 degrees Fahrenheit until they are to be used. Sweet corn on the cob, string beans, green Lima beans, peas, asparagus, parsnips, peas in the pod, budlong spinach, raspberries, strawberries, cranberries, blueberries, gooseberries, loganberries, currants, plums and cherries are among the perishables that already have been kept satisfactorily in this way to some extent, the specialists point out. These as U. S. Marshal of the Canal Zone. In addition, F. A. Brown, mechanical engineer; A. L. Bell, who was Brown's first assistant in building the canal locks, and W. B. McCann, electrical engineer on the Isthmus job, are now again with Goethals, their former chief.
