SECRETARY BAKER TO THE NEW OFFICERS that this was winding up things; that

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Aug. 14.-Secretary Baker today issued the following statement commending the work of the men who have filled the officers' training camps and noting the patriotic motives that have prompted them to make sacrifices in order that the nation should have officers. The statement said:

"The War Department feels no small pride in the commissioning during prophecy and how can you call it an these days of thousands of young of unjust war from your own country's ficers who have passed through a period of training as thorough and inof the regular forces.

NEW RAILROAD TO COAL FIELDS

(By Associated Press.) Newport News, Va., Aug. 14.—It is reported here that Rockefeller interests will build a railroad from the Northern West Virginia coal fields direct to Newport News as soon as possible. This is to be an emergency road for coal only and is to be built on account of conditions arising out James A. Somerville, who has just returned from a trip through the valley of Virginia, says that many persons of that section have already sold property to be used as a right of way for the railroad. He says the interests who bought the right of way said that the terminal was to be at Newport News.

The Virginian Railway taps the southern coal fields of West Virginia and this road is on tap and this road is to tap the northern

GERMAN SUBMARINE TAKES CREW FROM SHIP

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Aug. 14.-The crew of the American schoner A. B. Sherman recently found abandoned at sea, has been brought into an English port and reported to the American consul that their vessel was attacked by a German submarine on June 26, which set all hands adrift in a life boat. One American seaman was shot in the foot during the attack. The submarine took off some provisions and the crew supposed the schooner was then to be destroyed. Instead a passing vessel found her afloat and took her safely to port.

FOR BRANDON MURDER

(By Associated Press.)
Baltimore, Aug. 14.—John Snowden, negro, was arrested in Annapolis last night charged with murder of Mrs. Lottie May Brandon, whose body was found in her home in Annapolis Wednesday. The information that led to the arrest of the negro was furnished by Mrs. Spencer Murray, a suffragist leader in Annapolis. She was told by a negro woman in her employ that the later5s daughter, from a house across the street, had seen Snowden enter the Brandon house on the day of the murder.
