

MILITANTS STAGE A BIG PICKETING DEMONSTRATION

Forty-three Were Piloted from White House to Police Station.

WIVES OF PROMINENT MEN WERE ARRESTED

Among Those Arrested Were Mrs. Harvey Wiley and Mrs. William Kent—"Hunger Strikers" Still at It.

(By United Press.)—The National Woman's party staged its greatest White House picketing demonstration here late today.

Forty-three suffragettes, including Mrs. Harvey Wiley, wife of the pure food expert, and Mrs. William Kent, wife of the ex-Congressman from California, were arrested.

The pickets marched from their nearby headquarters in five groups. As fast as one line was bundled off to the police station in motor, patrol wagons, another file, bearing banners, silently came up.

Thousands of persons thronged Pennsylvania avenue but there was no disorder.

Miss Mary Ingham, of Philadelphia, accompanied the prisoners and put up bonds for their immediate release pending a hearing next week.

President Wilson was motoring when the demonstration began. He returned as the last arrests were made, entering the White House grounds through an unpicketed gate.

Many of the picketers had previously visited the district jail where Miss Alice Paul and Miss Rose Winslow are "hunger striking" to enforce better treatment for other women militants imprisoned. These prisoners are still being denied personal callers and the suffragettes had to content themselves with trying to see their sister party members through barred windows from a distance. Suffrage headquarters made no further statement regarding Miss Paul's condition and jail officials pool-pooled the whole thing.

The demonstration was staged with a number of human interest touches. Mrs. Kent's 13-year-old son, clung to her arm as she tramped away in the parade. The last picket of the group to be arrested was Mrs. Mary A. Nolan, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is 73 years old. Miss Ida Sharpe, of New Orleans, who planned to be in the picket line, fainted just before the suffragettes started toward the White House.

Captain Flather, of the metropolitan police, approached to do the arresting. He had his hat to each suffragist as he selected her to step into the "Black Maria."

While the last group of pickets was at his front gate, President Wilson entered the White House through the side entrance of the executive offices.

"I am in this work for good until the end of my life," said Mrs. Mary Nolan, of Jacksonville, Fla., the aged leader of the rear guard.

Among the women arrested were: Miss Alice Cuba, New Orleans; Mrs. Mary Barrett Dixon, Easton, Md.; Miss Julia Emory, Baltimore and Mrs. Harvey Wiley and Miss Lucy Burns, Washington.

Miss Mida Sharpe, New Orleans, had planned to be in the picket line, but fainted just before the suffragettes left for the White House, it was said at headquarters.

RUSSIA'S AFFAIRS GIVING DIPLOMATS SERIOUS THOUGHT revolutionary movement that such things must be expected.

"The United States government feels that it must continue to have faith in Russia, even to an extent which might appear badly from a financial point of view. As soon as there is a government firmly established undoubtedly the United States will seek to learn just where the new government stands with regard to all questions affecting America's interest."

So far the Maximalists have been playing a lone hand, too busy with internal affairs to work outside recognition. They have at last permitted Ambassador Francis and other Allied diplomats to cable, but the dispatches were withheld and only confirmation of earlier press reports were given out.

State Department officials tonight said they were hopeful that next week would bring detailed information on conditions throughout Russia upon which this government can base its future attitude.

The diplomatic sensation locally was the embassy's deft buried at the Maximalists.

"Russia can be headed only by a national government uniting all the constructive elements of Russian democracy," stated Ambassador Baklanoff.

The belief was strong that he would not have issued such a statement unless he had received encouragement at the State Department. But it was pointed out that if the Maximalists establish their government finally, the ambassador and practically his entire staff will be relieved of office.

WHOLESALE FORGERIES CHARGED

(By United Press.)—Washington, Nov. 10.—Cuban officials and United States postal inspectors today arrested Jose Linares on a charge of swindling American firms of more than $100,000 by wholesale forgeries. Linares, formerly employed in the Cuban postal service, is accused of victimizing about 50 companies by fraudulent money orders.

PLOT TO RESCUE I. W. W. PRISONERS

Plan to Release 60 from Chicago Jail Foiled by Guards.

(By United Press.)—Chicago, Nov. 10.—A plot to rescue the 60 I. W. W. members held in the county jail here on charges of conspiracy against the government was frustrated by guards late today.

As a result, plans were under way tonight to divide the I. W. W.s into small groups and scatter them about the country until they are brought to trial, probably next month. Ten of the prisoners already have been transferred to Joliet, and nine to Wheaton, Ill.

The plan was for the prisoners to keep together and at an agreed signal to overpower the guards. The signal was to be observed by friends on the outside, who were to assist the prisoners in hiding as soon as the latter forced their way out.

The guards suspicions were aroused by a great number of loiterers.

A man who gave his name as J. C. Russell has been carrying food daily to William Haywood, international secretary of the I. W. W. He was intercepted late today and a note taken from him which read:

"What can we do for you on the outside?"

The reply it was alleged, was to be given to a "woman in red," who has been among those loitering near the jail.

Russell was arrested and is being held.

THIS I. W. W. HAS LEARNED A LESSON

One of Men Whipped Says He Is Going to Go to Work.

(By United Press.)—Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 10.—"We have learned our lesson. I am going to Drumright, Okla., and start to work in the oil fields and the other men also are going to work. The next time the government asks for a Liberty loan I'm going to buy my share, as will the other men, but take this from me, we are not going back to Tulsa."

This was the brief, but pointed statement of one of the 17 I. W. W.s who were horsewhipped, tarred and feathered here early today by 43 masked and armed men and later told to "get"—the command emphasized by the reports of W. W. Chesters over their heads.

The 17 I. W. W. members were taken from the police station at the point of rifle and revolver after being up in municipal court on charge of vagrancy.

The member who made the statement was found by Tulsa citizens in the Osage hills north of Tulsa late today putting in most of his time removing the tar from his body.

UP TO AMERICA TO WIN THE WAR

Pershing Sends a Message from Troops to Folks at Home.

(By United Press.)—New York, Nov. 10.—Germany today is stronger than she was eighteen months ago. It is up to Anglo-Saxons to see the war through.

That was the opinion tonight of Isaac F. Marcossin, author back from a visit to the Italian, French, British and American fronts.

With him Marcossin brought a message from General Pershing to the American people.

"The American troops in France must be made to realize that the whole country is behind them," read Pershing's note. "This is the war of the real fighting spirit and the best way to keep that spirit alive is to have a united nation stimulating and encouraging its army at the front."

"At first the French coached the American forces," said Marcossin. "Now the British non-Coms do that. That symbolizes the coming together of the Anglo-Saxon forces of the world for humanity."

"German peace propaganda and German corruption of a large body of Southern Italian troops were blamed by Marcossin for the Italian disaster. A reign of terror and anarchy was predicted for Russia.

Ambassador Francis was forced to send for troops to protect the embassy from Lenin, Marcossin said.

"SKIN" PLAYERS CAUGHT

Party of Colored Men Arrested Early This Morning.

Plainclothesmen Leon George and W. T. Mansley flushed a covey of alleged gamblers this morning about 1 o'clock, over the Scloss-Bear-Davis Company stables on Market street.

When the officers appeared on the scene, the party is said to have been engaged in a game of cards, popularly known as "skin" among the colored gentry, who delight to flirt with Dame Fortune.

The men, who were bundled into the "Black Maria" for a trip to the hall are James Kelly, Robert Marshall, Joe Raeford, Dick Lane, Grant Hayes, Ed Campbell and Richard Davis. Some of them gave bond, while others were locked up to insure their appearance before the Recorder on Monday morning.

PLAN TO ESTABLISH IRISH REPUBLIC

(By United Press.)—New York, Nov. 10.—Documents throwing light on the last Irish revolt and directly connecting Germany with moves for an Irish rebellion were made public tonight by Chief Flynn of the United States Secret Service.

Some of the most important were taken from "General" Liam Mellows, who is held here.

They contained intimate details of the plottings and declared there was an agreement with Germany to set up a republic in Ireland during the war. Extensive "gun running" to arm every man in Ireland, is planned, the document said.

TAR HEEL AGGIES WON FROM V. M. I.

(Special to The Dispatch.)—Richmond, Va., Nov. 10.—North Carolina Aggies defeated Virginia Military Institute here this afternoon 17 to 9, in a spirited game, in which Gurely, Faucett and Hudson proved themselves the bright particular stars for the Tar Heel eleven. Twice, toward the latter part of the contest, Hudson made spectacular runs that netted almost 40 yards on each trip across the mid-field. It was Faucett who took the ball over for the second touchdown in the third quarter, following a series of line plunges.

WILSON SUPPORTS Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN

(By United Press.)—New York, Nov. 10.—Supporting the Y. M. C. A. campaign for $35,000,000 to get increased comforts for American soldiers, President Wilson wrote to Dr. John Mott, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., New York, this letter, made public tonight:

"The special campaign for $35,000,000 which the Y. M. C. A. has inaugurated is of vital importance to the work of increasing the contentment and efficiency of our citizen army. It is fundamental to making morale the basis of military morale, and should engage the generous support of our people. I bespeak for it a unanimity and a unity of effort and of gifts, to need this patriotic and practical work forward to abundant and complete success.

The campaign opens Monday morning.

Grounds for Divorce.

(By United Press.)—Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 10.—Because Gustav Bielefeld, pattern maker, said Kaiser Wilhelm should be ruler of the United States, Mrs. Bielefeld sued him for divorce today. She alleges her husband beat her because of her loyalty.

"Every citizen may aid in the winning of the war by helping to provide funds for wholesome environment and a generous measure of hospitality and recreation in the communities adjacent to the camps."—From a call to the American people adopted at recent national conference in Washington to discuss vital military importance of War Camp Community Service. A fund of $3 for each soldier and sailor—$3,750,000—is being raised for this work.
