

Big Prohibition Campaign Starts

Under the direction of the Anti-Saloon League of America and with the co-operation of the Anti-Saloon League of North Carolina, a campaign in the interest of nation-wide prohibition will be conducted in North Carolina between January 6th and February 24th, inclusive.

This campaign will include 335 meetings, and every town of 250 or more inhabitants in the state will be reached.

veteran League worker who lives in Indianapolis; Dr. George W. Young, Louisville, Kentucky, Confederate veteran, Methodist preacher, and a fighter for Prohibition; Dr. Edwin J. Stearns, New York City, a man as handy with the chalk as with the talk, a Presbyterian preacher of no mean ability; Hon. Minor Wallace, of Little Rock, Arkansas, former Congressman; Fred G. Bale, ex-mayor of Westerville, Ohio, a man who has had large experience as attorney in juvenile court in Columbus, Ohio, and has been prominent on the Chautauqua platform, and Rev. Edward Hanson Dalley, a young man who has done great work with young people's societies.

In every case these meetings will be free, and for the general public, who will be given opportunity to hear some of the most noted orators known today on the American platform.

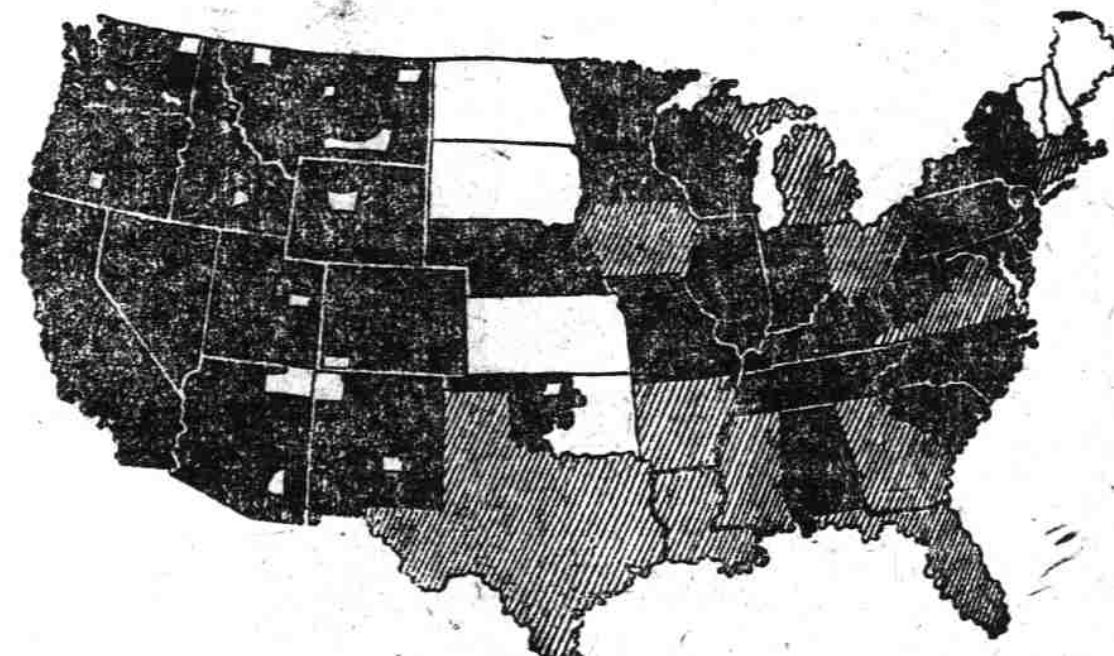

Although North Carolina is dry for keeps, the state must do its bit, League folks say to help dry up the other states and to bring about nation-wide prohibition.

Wet and dry Territorial Map of the United States, September 1, 1917. (Including those states that have voted dry, but whose law is not yet in effect.)

Dr. George W. Young. Louisville, Kentucky, Confederate veteran, eloquent preacher and reformer. He is one of the speakers in the campaign for a dry nation.

Hon. Minor Wallace. Accounted one of the most eloquent men in a former Congress, who is one of the speakers in North Carolina in the interest of nation-wide Prohibition.

Wet and Dry Map of the United States by States, January 1, 1893. White—Prohibition territory. Shaded—Local option territory. Black—Wet territory.

Malcolm R. Patterson. Former Tennessee governor and Senator, who will speak in the campaign to be held in this state in the interest of nation-wide Prohibition.

Captain Richmond P. Hobson. Merrimac hero and former Alabama Congressman, one of the speakers in the state campaign for nation-wide Prohibition.
