WARSAW.

Warsaw, Jan. 19.—Jackson Day was celebrated by the little Confederate Chapter, C. of C., when they were entertained by Miss Lois Best at the home of her parents on Wednesday afternoon. The exercises opened with the regular ritual, after which Miss Evelyn Anderson read an address by the late Chas. B. Aycock, eulogizing Lee. This was followed by a general discussion of Lee and Jackson, after which "Stonewall Jackson's Way" was sung as a chorus by the chapter. Miss Sallie Faison Best then read "Marse Robert is Asleep." The program closed with the singing of "Old-time Confederates." A new member, Miss Florence Johnson, was admitted. The young hostess assisted her mother and Mrs. D. E. Best to serve delightful sandwiches and iced drinks at the close of the meeting.

The Woman's Club held an interesting meeting on Friday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Womack. Routine business was dispatched, after which the subject of civic improvement was introduced by Mrs. Erle Best, and it was decided to ask help from the railroad company in converting the site of the old depot into a plaza. It was voted to have the district meeting of the Federated Women's Clubs of the Ninth District some time in April, if the district president can make arrangements for the desired speakers to be present then. It was also decided to have an entertainment at an early date, a special feature of which will be an old-time spelling match; and part of the proceeds from which will be donated to the local Red Cross chapter. Following the business meeting a pleasant social hour was enjoyed, during
