

EASTERN CAROLINA LOSES ONE OF HER LEADING CITIZENS

Entire City Saddened in Announcement of Death of Mr. J. T. Foy

OCCURRED SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME TODAY

One of Foremost Figures in Pender's Politics—Owned Much Real Property in This City

All Wilmington was shocked and saddened this morning in the announcement of the death of Mr. J. T. Foy, of Scott's Hill, one of Pender county's foremost citizens, and one of the best and most favorably known men in East Carolina, which occurred at his home at 9 o'clock, following an illness that extended over but an hour's time. The deceased was in the seventy-second year of his life, a life that had been devoted largely to the uplift of his county, section and State, and a life that had been fraught with usefulness to all with whom he came in contact with. The deceased is survived by his widow, who prior to marriage was Miss Nora Dzier, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Dzier, of Britton's Neck, Marion county, South Carolina. Funeral services had not been completely arranged for this morning, but it was stated that they would be held from the residence Sunday afternoon and that interment would be made in Oakdale cemetery, this city.

Mr. Foy was one of the foremost men of his county. He has been actively identified with the politics of that county for the past 25 years and has served three terms in the House of Representatives and also represented Pender and Duplin counties in the State Senate. He was chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Pender for 12 years and his every action in political life was toward progress and the upbuilding of the Democratic party.

Mr. Foy was actively identified with the business life of this city being a large owner of real estate and a director of the People's Savings Bank. In addition he had other business interests in the city on a smaller scale and was well and favorably known to practically everyone in Wilmington.

He was a trustee of the Methodist church of Scott's Hill, a staunch member, and always a large contributor to everything advocated by his church. In the death of Mr. Foy Pender loses a citizen that any community can ill afford to give up. His every action was open and above board and he was held in the very highest esteem by all who knew him. In addition to his wife he is survived by three brothers, Messrs. H. S. Foy, of Winston-Salem; J. W. Foy, of Scott's Hill, and F. M. Foy, of Scott's Hill.

BASEBALL PROVIDED.

Giants and Dodgers Will Hook Up Tomorrow Afternoon.

The Giants and Dodgers will hook horns at the Robert Strange Playgrounds tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the weather permitting, and those who go out are assured an exhibition of the National pastime that will be well worth watching. Horne and Wilson will compose the battery for the Dodgers and Boswell and Bell will perform similarly for the name-sake of John McGraw. No admission will be charged and all are invited.

Manager Transferred.

Mr. H. T. Campbell, local manager for C. D. Kenny Company for the past four years, has been transferred to Columbia, S. C., and leaves Monday for his new field. Mr. E. T. Teague, of Baltimore, will succeed him here in the management of the Kenny store.

NEW MEMBERS TO BE INITIATED AT REGULAR MEETING

Traveling Men to Discuss Coming Session of Grand Council of Carolinas

OFFICERS WILL MEET SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Imperative That All Members Of the Council Attend Tomorrow Night's Meeting in Odd Fellow Hall

The initiation of new members will feature tomorrow night's regular meeting of Cape Fear Council No. 374, United Commercial Travelers, although there are many other matters of importance to be handled at this meeting which will be preceded by a meeting of the officers of the council, which is called for 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Both meetings will be held in the organization's quarters on the third floor of Odd Fellows' building, Third and Princes streets. The afternoon meeting of the officers will be called to order at 8 o'clock. The afternoon meeting of the officers is of paramount importance and all officers are expected to be on hand promptly. Matters pertaining to the meeting of the Grand Council of the Carolinas, to be held in Charlotte in May, are to be discussed at the evening meeting, and this is a matter that every knight of the grip is intensely interested in. Delegates to the convention were recently elected and other members of the council will probably want to discuss with them what they are to do while away prior to their departure from the city.

Shipbuilding will also probably be discussed at the meeting, since the traveling men took such an active interest in the propaganda looking toward massing the citizenry of the State for an attack on Washington in an effort to have shipyards located here, and in view of the fact that much has happened in shipbuilding circles since the last meeting of the council the members will in all probability want to reminisce a bit over the city's good fortune in landing both concrete and fabricated steel yards. The traveling men, it will be remembered, recently held a special meeting looking toward working out plans for assisting in the city's drive for port recognition and as a shipbuilding center.

SELECTMEN ENTRAINED. Sixteen from City and County Left This Afternoon. Sixteen selectmen, fourteen from the city and two from the county, were entrained for Camp Jackson this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and will go into active military training tomorrow morning. The men reported to their boards yesterday afternoon and were given final instruction. They were banqueted at the Y. M. C. A. on the previous night. Many of their friends accompanied them to the station, despite the inclemency of the weather, to bid them good-bye and wish them the best of luck. All of the men were in the best of spirits and went willingly to camp.

Those from the county are Messrs. W. C. Taylor and John W. Ennett. The men from the city include: J. H. Malpass, W. M. Wells, C. G. Ambrosiano, Charles E. Scherer, Jr., Ralph Taylor Davis, Bob Caswell Malpass, John Pinos, W. E. Sessoms, Moses Nevell, Willie Sellers, Noel Gil Jespy, Neally, John Mathis, Bremer, George Willie Summerlin, Ross Kennedy.

The city's quota of 42 colored men, who have been ordered for military duty, are directed to report at the offices of the board in the Masonic Temple building Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Twenty-seven of these will be entrained the following day for Camp Jackson.

IMPROVED ORDER RED MEN RAISE DUES SLIGHTLY

Made Necessary if Members and Loved Ones Are to be Protected

MEMORIAL SERVICE BEING PLANNED FOR

Services of Collector is Dispensed With by Eyota Tribe—Think it Unnecessary Waste of Money

Preparations looking toward the annual memorial services of Eyota and Cherokee Tribes, Improved Order of Red Men, to be held at the Fifth Avenue Methodist church Sunday evening, May 19, are going forward steadily and members of the two tribes feel that the service will eclipse any yet heretofore held. The sermon will be preached by Rev. J. H. McCracken, pastor of the church, and friends of the membership of the two tribes are invited to attend.

The fact that the dues of the tribe have been raised in order to meet increased expense and insure protection of the member and his dependents will be learned with interest. The following statement issued by Mr. Henry Lee Hewitt, sachem of Eyota Tribe, and also signed by Mr. F. K. J. Fuchs, chief of records, will be read with interest. The communication, a copy of which has been sent all members of the tribe, follows:

"As you have been previously advised, our tribe deemed it wise and necessary to increase the dues to two and one-half fathoms per quarter, making 10 fathoms per year. Do you fully realize just what this $10 that you pay into this tribe offers you in return? Let us see what this $10 really does accomplish:

"From a financial point of view it pays for $250 insurance on your life; it pays for $100 insurance on the life of your wife; it pays you $5 per week in case of sickness; it furnishes you a nurse free of charge, if needed during sickness; and it gives you a free burial on their lot in Oakdale Cemetery, if needed. Did ever any man's $10 buy quite so much?"

"But the financial part is the smallest part of what membership in the tribe means. It means protection of loved ones during the absence of the bread winner from the home; it means the education of the orphans and care for the widows; it means taking care of the needy families of those of our brothers who have responded to the country's call and are wearing the khaki.

"In order to properly conserve our resources, to enable us to live up to the above obligations, we have decided not to use the services of a collector which has been costing the tribe $5 to $10 per month; and instead, we ask each brother to send, or better still, to bring his dues, to the lodge with him on Wednesday night, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Third and Princes streets. If this is not convenient, he can pay it any time during the week to the chief of records at his store or home, who will never be too busy to stop and give you a receipt.

"We urge you during this National crisis to pay your dues promptly, in good standing and giving your loved ones the above-named protection, very enabling the tribe to fulfill very promptly their obligations."

MERRITT SENT OUT.

Time Will Be Served at Stockade and Not on the Roads, However. Levi Merritt, one of the several young white men arrested on a charge of vagrancy during the recent crusade against idleness and vice and who left the city under a deferred capias to later return and be taken into custody by Officer George was sent to the stockade yesterday afternoon for service of a 30-day sentence. The commitment, however, does not provide for road service and he will only be obliged to remain at the stockade.

CAPT. VICKERS TONIGHT.

Noted Scottish Officer to Relate Incidents of Trench Life.

Captain Leslie Vickers, who recently spoke here in the interest of the third Liberty Loan campaign, speaks tonight at the Academy of Music at 8 o'clock and will give details of his life in the trenches. A small admission is being charged and while it is not enough to inconvenience anyone it is sufficient to insure those who attend that they will not be obliged to stand as on the other occasion when the noted Scottish officer was here. His first address dealt largely with the war in general, but tonight he will go into detail, giving the little incidents of his life as he lived it during the eighteen months that he saw active service with the British armies.

All will want to hear Captain Vickers. He is a pleasant talker and has a message that Wilmington should hear. His address will be superior to that of the average chautauqua address, for he will discuss a subject that America is intensely interested in—the war. One can have seats reserved without extra charge, and be assured a comfortable chair throughout the speaking.

The speaker will be introduced by Rev. William H. Milton, D. D., and there will be no others on the stage with the speaker. Few Wilmingtonians can afford to miss tonight's address.

TWO WILMINGTON BOYS.

Represented in List of Ensigns That Go to Annapolis.

Among the thirty young men sworn in as ensigns and who are to be sent to Annapolis for training, according to the Charleston press, appear the names of two Wilmington boys, Messrs. D. G. Munds and Will Sharp, the latter better known locally as "Bill" Sharp. Wilmington will hear with peculiar pleasure of the progress of her sons and all their friends hope that their progress may be of a continued nature.

MRS. QUINLIVAN BEREAVED.

Received Message This Morning of the Death of Her Brother.

The many friends of Mrs. Dan Quinlivan will sympathize with her tenderly in the death of her brother, Mr. Michael Quinlivan, of Rochester, N. Y., which occurred this morning at his home. Mrs. Quinlivan will be unable to attend the funeral and burial services which will be conducted from the late residence Sunday morning.
