

TO OBSERVE MOTHERS DAY IN THE CHURCHES

Interesting Programs Have Been Arranged at Several Churches.

ALL TO WEAR FLOWER

Today is "mother's day" and every one will be expected to wear a flower in memory of she who rocked the cradle, a white flower should be worn in memory of the mother who has passed away, while a colored flower is for the memory of the mother who yet lives and continues to minister to the wants of her own who are still children, no matter the age. Exercises will be held in a number of the churches and in several instances interesting programs have been arranged. Below is copies of program that will be offered at the Southside Baptist, Grace Methodist and Trinity Methodist. The Southside program to be rendered at 11 o'clock is:

WALLACE.
 Wallace, May 11.—Liston Mallard, of Camp Sevier, stopped over with his cousin, Mrs. DeLeon Wells, for a few hours Thursday en route to Kenansville. He left in a car in the afternoon, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Emma Blount, and sister, Miss Ella Mallard.
 Aubrey Cavanaugh, of Rocky Mount, who is with the Planter's bank there, spent Sunday with his father, Mr. J. A. Cavanaugh.
 Mrs. J. S. Westbrook and Miss Charlie left Wednesday or a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Robert Ruark, in Wilmington.
 Miss Jessie Rose, who graduated at Delway school last week, is at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rose.
 Mrs. John Parker and little daughter left this past week for her home in Hopewell, Va., called home on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Dave Newkirk, formerly of Wallace.
 Mrs. F. P. Powers is spending several days in Wilmington.
 Mrs. Nealey Hussey and mother, Mrs. Moran, of Wilson, have returned home, after a visit to Mrs. C. E. Hussey.
 Dr. C. S. Sloan has returned from a trip to Raleigh.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bobbitt, of Wake Forest, stopped over with their cousin, Mrs. J. W. Carroll, for a short while en route to Wilmington, through the country in their car.
 Mr. Wilbert Carter, a Delway school student, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Carter, of this place, and winner of the declaimer medal, left a few days ago to be with his brother, Almond Carter, in Columbus county.
 Mrs. Carl Adams and little son, of Akron, Ohio, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Carter, left for their home Thursday night.
 Friends will regret to learn that Miss Anna Car, while crossing a little bridge, was thrown into the ditch by the bad condition of the bridge, breaking her arm at the elbow. She

MR. MERCHANT

Are You Standing Still, Or Going Forward with WILMINGTON, The Great Shipbuilding City?

The Merchant who Advertises is the Merchant who is going forward. You cannot get new business unless you tell the thousands of new comers to Wilmington what you have to sell.

The Afternoon Newspaper

Goes into the homes of the people every afternoon, except Sunday, at an hour when it is most convenient for the members of the family to read its columns.

The Wilmington Dispatch

Has a wide circulation in Wilmington and surrounding territory. The merchant who advertises in The Dispatch puts his wares before thousands of people not only in Wilmington but to those who live in near by towns and buy in the city.

Tell the people what you have to sell through the advertising columns of The Dispatch. You will get results.
