BETHEA FIRST IN RACE

All South Carolina Youths, 21 Since Last June Must Register For Service

(Special to The Dispatch.)

Columbia, S. C., May 22.—Andrew J. Bethea, lieutenant governor, was the first candidate to file his pledge for any office in the coming campaign. He filed his pledge this week and entered the race for governor. Mr. Bethea is regarded by many people as the leading candidate at this time for the office of governor, although there is no telling what may develop between this time and election day.

Announcement that June 5 will be designated in a proclamation by President Wilson as the day for the registration of all men in the United States who have reashed the age of 21 years since last June 5, is made in bulletin No. 78, sent out Saturday by Captain R. E. Carwile, officer in charge of the selective service regilations, to local exemption boards throughout the state.

Under the joint auspices of the state food administration of North and South Carolina, a meeting will be held at Charlotte, N. C .. on the morning of Thursday, May 23, at which time matters relating to cotton seed and cotton seed industries will be considered.

On May 15 the regulation of the food administration providing that no dealer in sugar, wholesale or retail. is permitted to sell sugar to any manufacturer using sugar except upon the surrender of sugar certificates. Dealers who continue to sell sugar to such manufacturers without certificates are doing so in direct violation of the law and are laying themselves liable to heavy penalty.

These rules do not apply to hotels, restaurants, boarding houses or to bakers and cracker manufacturers, but they do apply principally to manufacturers of ice cream, soft drinks. syrups, candy, confectionery, flavoring extracts, fruit preserves, jam. felly, medicines and to soda water fountains.

It is necessary for these manufacturers and users of sugar to secure sugar certificates from the food administration; and to surrender these tificates may be obtained.

NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, May 22 .-If I had my own way I'd eat pie with a knife, And I do like To saucer my coffee. But outside of that I shake a fairly decent fork At every banquet I've always made it a rule To leave the table A little bit sober, And I never use A toothpick twice. So there is no reason Why folk shouldn't ask me Out to dinner more. The last time I dined out I shook hands with the butler. But he didn't seem to mind, And I tucked my napkin Under my chin And everybody nudged Each other. And I got so nervous I stuck the napkin In my pocket And picked up an oyster, And the darn thing Was so slippery It slid out of my fingers Into a lady's lap, And I tried to grab it. And it must have bit me Or something. For I upset a plate of soup, And it got away. And the butler came over To do a little buttling, "There's something the matter with you, 'Isn't there?" And I said: "There is." And I get paid for it." And since that time Nobody seems to want me When it comes time To put on the feed bags. But I've been practicing Holding up my little finger When I drink tea, And I can eat toast Without it sounding like Somebody stepping On a basket. So there's still hope Unless Mr. Hoover gut light eating altogether.
