NEW YORK LETTER

New York, June 3.—As Samuel Pepys would record in his diary: At my waking, a great hub-bub of towncriers beneath my window and I in my bare feet spent a two-pence for a news sheet, two days old and fretful all the morning at the hoax. My wife, poor wretch, off early, we being not very good friends nor great enemies, the trouble arising over my buying a brave striped suit of gay mixture which she avers resembles the garb of a Monte Carlo croupier.

The war is a great leveler. It has caused many who thought nothing of buying an imported car to buy the cheapest kind of rattle-trap second hand car for the summer season. They had a sale of rare old push carts, mortally wounded automobiles, buggies and other junk at police headquarters the other day.

A WAR MEASURE THROUGH FORCE OF A COMBINATION OF CIRCUMSTANCES BROUGHT ABOUT BY SHORTAGE OF HELP AND INCREASED COST OF LABOR AND ALL MATERIALS, Effective June 4th The following changes will be made in handling our business: All work will be strictly C. O. D., but to take care of our regular customers we will sell a $5.00 COUPON BOOK at 10 per cent DISCOUNT. The Council of National Defense has advocated the curtailment of all deliveries in every line of business, and we are forced to comply with this request both as a patriotic duty and because of the great increase of the cost of deliveries. After June 3rd we will make a charge of 10c for handling any bundle from Water Street to Tenth and Castle to Campbell, inclusive. For any package in the city beyond stated limit a charge of 15c will be made. A survey of laundry prices in other cities of the size of Wilmington shows that our prices are considerably lower than the prevailing prices elsewhere. It is our earnest desire to keep our prices lower, hence we are forced to make a charge for collecting and delivering packages. We ask your co-operation and help in this matter and where possible please BRING AND CALL FOR YOUR WORK and let it come in early Monday morning if possible. Those wishing continuance of wagon service please notify office just when bundle will be ready, thus preventing delay to drivers.
