WHAT PRUSSIANISM MEANS

The actions of the German armies in Belgium, in Poland and in northern France have blotted the record of humanity. This policy of Prussianism—this deliberately adopted "frightfulness"—with its savor of blood and tears, is one of the great wrongs against which America fights today. The evidence in the case is set forth in an official book just published by the United States government.

A copy of this book will be sent free to any reader of The Dispatch. It is based on the reports of American diplomats and relief workers, on the protests of high church authorities, on official German proclamations, on the field diaries of German soldiers. To secure a copy of this free book send your name and address with a 2-cent stamp for return postage to The Wilmington Dispatch Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C. JUDGE GEORGE PELL IS CONFINED TO HIS HOME

Factionalism in East Raleigh Breaks Out—Blanche McDade Declines Ride

(Special to The Dispatch.)
Raleigh, June 18.—Judge George P. Pell, member of the corporation commission, is quite ill at his home and unable to return to his work.

Judge Pell's trouble is a more aggravated form of his long disfigurement as the result of paralysis. Until a week ago he was constantly in his office, but the exceeding difficulty of getting into his office and getting out to the car, made his stay at home for a time necessary. Judge Pell has attended all the hearings recently held and he has hardly missed a day from work since coming on the commission.

The Clyde Mills company, of Newton, with $150,000 authorized capital, was chartered today, $300 of the stock being paid in by N. B. McCausess, J. D. Norwood and W. T. Busby, of Salisbury.

The G. F. Garrett company, incorporated, of Rocky Mount, amended its charter today with $100 authorized capital. The original amount was $30,000.

The Richfield Milling company, of Richfield, was chartered today, $9,000 of the $25,000 being paid in by J. R. C. Morgan, S. R. Morgan, G. W. and E. L. O. Miller, George W. Lester and W. J. Fisher.

Factionalism in the red light district broke out yesterday when Blanche McDade, of avoirdupois fame, declined to come up town to one of the heavy delivery trucks and chose after raising a rugged resistance, to ride in the police patrol wagon.

GERMAN BAKER FACING FEDERAL COURT TRIAL

Raleigh Man Objects to "Hang Bill Kaiser" Song—Royster Succeeds Pass

(Special to The Dispatch.)
Raleigh, June 18.—Ernest Alfred Reichel, baker employed in the Bretsch bakery, of this city, is held under a thousand dollar bond, which has been given, and he is in a fair way to take a trip to Fort Oglethorpe.

Reichel's alleged offense is violation of the espionage act and the specific allegation is his attack upon a little negro who picked up last week from the colored soldiers who were going through on their way to France and were happily singing, "Hang Bill Kaiser on a sour apple tree." "Good gott, doan sing dot," the German baker said, as he collared the boy and declared that the "gott tam nigger soldiers" would not amount to anything.

Chief Deputy Marshal W. T. Woodley had him arrested yesterday and fastened a bond of $1,000, which his employers gave. Reichel came here from Southern Pines. He had worked in the German navy and this perhaps was responsible for his big public interest. He was pointed out as the baker on a submarine and was understood to have come over here in one of the pirate boats that hauled goods back. It seems now that he landed in this country on one of the interned ships.

Reichel had received a beating from one of his fellow workers a few days ago when indulging, as his flogger said, in un-American remarks. Although the attack on the little negro occurred several days ago, nothing was done officially until Saturday, when the warrant was sworn out.

Because of continued illness of Capt. J. W. Pass, member of the state board of elections, Governor Bickett has announced the appointment of Gen. B. S. Royster, of Granville county, and General Royster has accepted.

Captain Pass, who lives in Yadkinville, has been ill in bed several weeks and it will be impossible for him to attend any more board meetings soon. Governor Bickett was very unwilling to part company with him, he has been one of the most faithful. But increasing demands made it necessary and the tie vote of the democratic and republican member made a decision necessary on all issues. This had not come.

General Royster is a fine lawyer and he will be the only barrister on the board. He will live nearest Raleigh and should find attendance easiest of them all. Break of the tie in the Abernethy-Dortch case is now confidently expected.
