

HUGHES SURRENDERS TO POLICE AT LA GRANGE

is Charged With Murder of Fred Lane—Blockaders Are at Work

(Special to The Dispatch.)
 Goldsboro, N. C., June 22.—Will Hughes, the white man who is charged with the murder of a negro man, Fred Lane which occurred several days ago, who, after the killing made his escape, surrendered to the LaGrange police, the scene of the murder, this week, and was held under $1,000 bond. It is alleged that up to the time of his surrender Hughes had been in hiding at the home of relatives in this county, who advised him to give himself up and stand trial.

A report reaching this city today is to the effect that blockaders are doing as they please in Sampson county manufacturing and selling whiskey in unlimited quantities, and that the proper authorities are taking no active steps to put a stop to these alleged conditions. One story has it that the sheriff was recently advised to search for a still in a community, it being alleged that he did so and took dinner with one of the "blockading offenders," and returned home without making any search for a distillery. It is said that in one township alone there are 20 blockade distilleries. It is said a petition is being circulated calling for signatures, but so far only a few people have signed same, which was drawn up for the purpose of appealing to the governor to give his aid in putting a stop to the open violation of the law in that county.

The officers of Goldsboro Lodge No. 634 and the officers of Wayne Lodge No. 112, A. F. & A. M., for the ensuing year, will be installed in the Masonic lodge room next Monday night at 8:30. Arrangements are being made to have a good speaker present and refreshments will be served.

Carson Brock and Sylvester Odon, two well known farmers of this county, have been tried before United States Commissioner R. F. Mintz upon the charge of blockading. After hearing the evidence the commissioner bound the defendants over to the next term of federal court, which convenes at Wilson. Bond was fixed at $200 each, which the defendants furnished.

WALLACE

Wallace, June 21.—The Christian Endeavor society held its regular weekly meeting last Monday night in the Presbyterian church; Miss Mabel Carr, leader; Miss Madge Southerland, organist. The report from the state convention was given by Miss Ruth Williams, the returned delegate. It was decided that some time in the near future the Wallace Christian Endeavor should invite the Willard and Teachey societies to meet with it.

A few days ago Mrs. W. F. Murphy, of the extension committee, and Mrs. J. W. Carroll, chairman of the Red Cross work here, attended a meeting at the Turner schoolhouse, four miles west of Wallace, where they organized a Red Cross auxiliary to the Wallace branch. There were 25 members, with 15 juniors.

Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Murphy attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Duplin county Red Cross chapter at Warsaw, Thursday. The packers from the branches of the county also met to pack the county supplies to be shipped to Atlanta. Wallace is proud that she met her allotment for the branch and for the junior auxiliary this month.

The two first aid classes under Mrs. R. J. Potter are doing good work. There are 50 members, there now being allowed 25 to a class, instead of 20 as for a while.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Paisley Boney was hostess to the woman's club. All officers and a good crowd, for summer time, were present, the president, Mrs. J. N. Southerland, presiding. In addition to the interesting reports given in a letter from one of the camps thanking the club for the box of books sent the soldiers, was read; also one from the headquarters of the treasure and trinket fund, acknowledging a contribution from this club.

The friends here were shocked, as was his family, to learn of the sudden illness of John Westbrook, of Rocky Mount, Tuesday, and are gratified to know that he is now doing so nicely. An automobile party from Kinston visited Mrs. R. C. Williams, Wednesday, she accompanying them next day to the beach. The party was composed of Misses Lucile Collins, Carrie Wooten, Margaret Marsden, Martha Hood and Joe Collins.

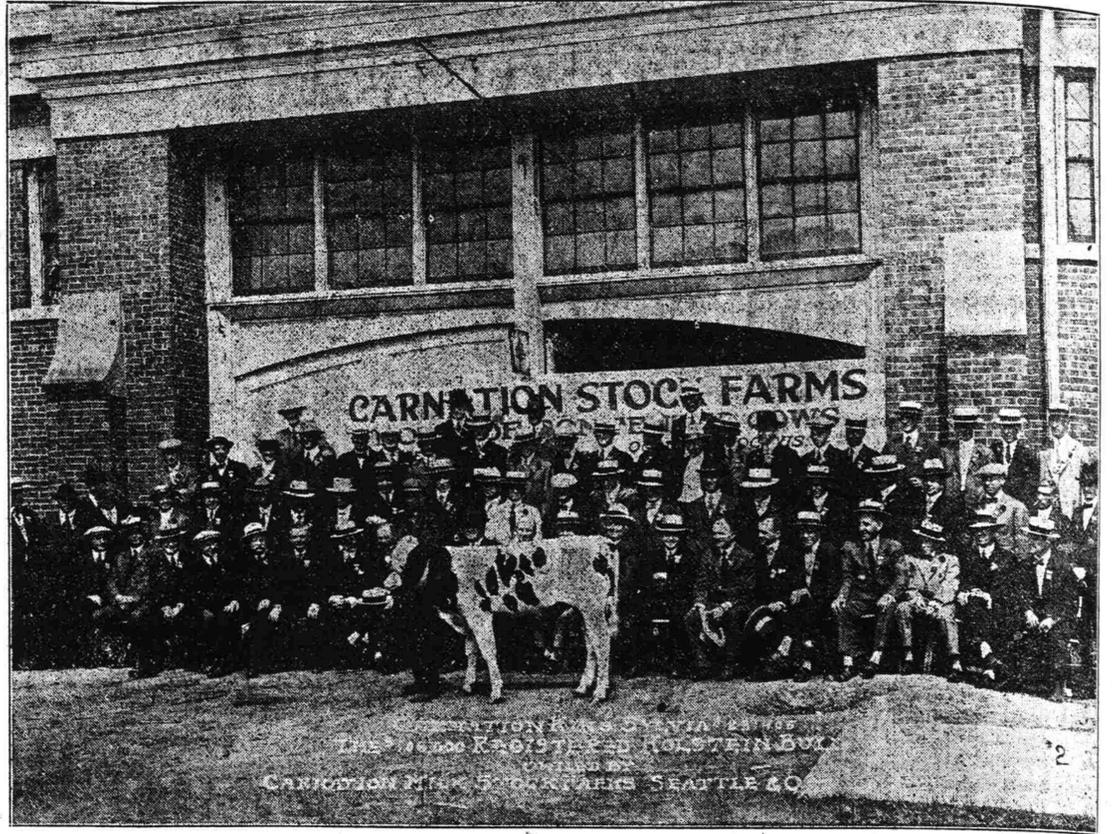

Mrs. Robert Ruark and children, of Wilmington, are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. S. Westbrook.

After a visit to her sister, Mrs. Robert Farrior, Mrs. Tom Lawther and children, of Wilmington, have returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Exum Southerland and little daughter, of Petersburg, Va., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Southerland.

Miss Ruth Camp, of Franklin, Va., is visiting at the home of her brother, John Camp.

CARNATION KING SYLVIA

The $106,000 Registered Holstein Bull Owned by Carnation Milk Stock Farms, Seattle and Oconomowoc

At the annual sale of the Holstein-Friesian association in Milwaukee a six-months' old registered bull calf was sold in the auction ring for $106,000—nearly twice as much as ever before was paid for one such animal.

Elbridge A. Stuart, president of the Carnation milk stock farms, located at Seattle and Oconomowoc, was the purchaser of the bull, an imported one. Its name when purchased was Champion Sylvia Johanna 231405, but it was rechristened "Carnation King Sylvia." Mr. Stuart, when asked regarding the purchase, said: "I merely want to do my part toward helping improve the dairy industry by the breeding of better Holstein cows. Judging from the records of the ancestors of this bull I believe I have purchased the best bull in the world. His dam, May Echo Sylvia, holds the world's record for milk production. She produced 152.10 pounds of milk in one day and 41 pounds of butter in one week. Another of her records is 4,196.90 pounds of milk in thirty days, which is also the world's record. She has a total of six world's records. "Carnation farms own the largest herd of registered Holsteins in the United States. Our farms are operated as model dairies and breeding farms for the benefit of dairymen supplying milk to the Carnation evaporated milk condenseries. Our company being interested in the distribution of unswartened canned milk, we must have the best quality of fresh milk. Again, we want the dairymen not only to produce milk of good quality, but also to produce a maximum quantity at a minimum expense. The only way to accomplish both purposes is to have good cows with high producing records." The $106,000 bull calf will be insured for $100,000 and shipped by express on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul's limited Columbian train to Carnation farm, near Seattle. In the express car will be several high priced Holstein cows with high record ancestry, valued respectively at $12,000, $10,000 and $5,000.
