

59 COLUMBUS COUNTY BOYS GO TO GET KAISER

Tobacco Market Will Open at Chadbourn July 9—Prospects Are Good

(Special to The Dispatch.) Chadbourn, June 29.—The 7:20 train yesterday morning carried off 59 more Columbus county boys on their "way to Berlin." Strong, brave, manly boys they were, with determined faces and strong wills. They entrained at Whiteville, where they were served breakfast at the hotels by the Red Cross members.

The canteen members and a large crowd had gathered here with magazines, smokes and other favors to bid them a hearty God speed. The women are bravely giving their sons and husbands and some would be ready to accompany them if need be to the battle.

A lively crowd of young folks, chaperoned by Mrs. F. T. Wooten, motored to Lake Waccamaw Tuesday night, having no end of fun going and no end of fun coming back, as a thunder shower added to the "activities" of the evening.

Capt. E. D. Williams and Mrs. Williams, of Wilmington, are visiting relatives in the city.

Among visitors in town this week were Mrs. Katie Hand and Lucile McCracken, of Wilmington.

The tobacco market will open formally July 9, and the outlook is quite encouraging. With two fine large warehouses the farmers should get the best of attention.

Cardinal Gibbons' Anniversary.

Baltimore, Md., June 29.—Cardinal Gibbons tomorrow will complete 57 years as a priest and 32 years as a cardinal. In accordance with custom the double anniversary will be observed with a special mass in the cathedral. Next month His Eminence will enter upon his 85th year, having been born July 23, 1834. Both mentally and physically he is remarkably vigorous for a man of his years. He shows the same keen interest in world happenings that has made him one of the best informed men in America. Since the United States entered into the war he has given a large part of his time and attention to the various movements having to do with the successful prosecution of the conflict.

SOUTHPORT

Southport, June 29.—A party composed of W. A. French, wife and son, Capt. L. D. Potter, wife and daughter, and Miss Jessie Harper, all of Wilmington, and Mesdames Mortimer and Aarning Pratt, of Staten Island, N. Y., spent several days in Southport last week. While here they visited Fort Caswell and Mrs. Mortimer Pratt sang several selections at the Y. M. C. A. for the boys, who showed their pleasure and appreciation by many encores.

D. McDonald, of Rockingham county, was in the city on a business visit last Tuesday. He was greatly pleased and even surprised at the growth and improvements made since his last visit 30 years ago.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker Monday, the 24th, and left a 10-pound boy.

The family of A. R. Marwick left last Tuesday for Piedmont, Ala. Mr. Marwick, who has been in the Y. M. C. A. work at Fort Caswell for several months, will leave soon for France. Mrs. Marwick will remain in Piedmont while he is away.

Dr. J. A. Doshier arrived Monday from Camp Dix, N. J., on a 10-day furlough.

Pincard Holmes, of Washington, D. C., was in town for a few days last week, visiting his brother, Ralph Holmes. From here he went to Charlotte to see his mother.

Mrs. Davis and Miss Julia Gore, of Wilmington, are in the city for the summer, occupying the Glass home.

Miss Ruth Boyette, who has been visiting her father, Dr. J. M. Boyette, for about 10 days, returns Monday to Charlotte, where she is in training at the Mercy General hospital.

Prof. Heman Shaw, of Haverford college, and wife, arrived Wednesday to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Alberta Shaw.

Mrs. Tucker and daughter, of Indiana, are in town, visiting friends at Fort Caswell.

Sergeant James Lyons returned Wednesday from a seven-day furlough to visit his parents at Salisbury.

Sergeant and Mrs. Drake have returned from a trip to Atlanta.

Six more of the Brunswick boys left Friday for Camp Jackson.

Capt. J. A. Williams and Miss Lily Morse were married Friday night, June 28. They will leave in a few days for Lewis, N. J., where they will remain for several months.

The addition to the army and navy club is nearing completion. The band stand was used for the first time at the speaking Thursday afternoon and a band concert was given Thursday night by the Caswell band.

A grand parade closed the war savings drive Thursday afternoon. After the parade the crowd marched to the army and navy club grounds, where rousing speeches were made by R. D. W. Davis and Rev. Mr. Moore. The results of the drive are not yet definitely known further than that they were fine. The colored people have made a fine showing. One collector, Mrs. Mary Stratman, secured over $200.

Miss Gladys Craig is visiting Miss Gertrude Laughlan.

RALEIGH

Raleigh, June 29.—Miss Hamlin Landis gave an informal dance at her home on West Morgan street last Monday night. During the evening dainty refreshments were served the dancers. About fifteen couples enjoyed Miss Landis's hospitality.

The following announcement cards have been received in the city:

"Mrs. Archibald Young announces the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Ellen, to Mr. Marion Emerson Weeks on Saturday, the first of June, nineteen hundred and eighteen, Washington, D. C."

Mr. Weeks is a former graduate of the State College, a graduate in mechanical engineering of the class of 1904. The announcement of his marriage will be received with great interest by the numerous friends he made during his stay in Raleigh.

Miss Anna Strong, who has been teaching school in Davenport, Iowa, will spend her summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. George Strong on North Blount street.

A bridge tournament will be held at the Woman's club Saturday afternoon at 4:30. Numbers of tables have been reserved through Mrs.

Charles Mason who has the management of the tournament in charge. Light refreshments will be served.

The bath house fund is well over $3,000 and the canvassers hope to make it $3,500 at least though active canvassing has ceased. Work began Monday for the erection of the building and will be rushed to an early completion. Of equal importance will be the service hall which is a real necessity at Johnson street station where the soldiers in passing stay from twenty minutes to two hours or more. Numbers of Raleigh citizens are enthusiastic over the prospective bath house with its equipment of a hundred shower baths, a service hall and various other comforts and conveniences for the passing troops.

Mrs. L. W. Blanton entertained at progressive hearts last Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Brown of Kansas. Miss Nannie Conn, the highest scorer, was given a pretty handkerchief which she presented to the guest of honor. Punch and a salad course was served the fifteen or more invited guests.

A most enjoyable event was the linen shower which was given last Friday afternoon by Miss Adelaide Blacklock in honor of Miss Almada Kelly whose marriage to Mr. Robert Waters is scheduled for July 15 at Ellison, Va., the bride's summer home. Miss Kelly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kelly of this city. The announcement of her engagement to Mr. Waters was made several weeks ago. Miss Corinne Blacklock received the guests in the hall, presenting them to the hostess and the guest of honor. During the afternoon each guest was asked to write a wish for the bride and Mrs. Carlyle Hacker was presented with a lovely box of candy as the prize, her wish having been accounted the best. The guests were later included into the living-room when the bride was showered with exquisite bits of lingerie, linen and other most useful gifts. An ice course was served in the dining-room.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Timberlake, Miss Agnes Cotten Timberlake and Lieut. Julian Timberlake, U. S. N., motored to Cottendale last Saturday to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Cotten, Mrs. Timberlake's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mazinter, of Roanoke, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sarah, to Mr. Harry Kaplan of this city, the wedding to take place shortly. Mr. Kaplan is a member of the Kaplan firm, owners of The Fashion, and is a prominent young business man of Raleigh.

Miss Esther Marshall was hostess Wednesday morning in honor of Miss Elizabeth Shaw of Tennessee, the house guest of Miss Ellen Seawell and Miss Hamlin Landis. Miss Shaw leaves in a few days for Charlotte where she will make her home.

Mrs. John C. McDonald entertained at bridge Tuesday morning at her home in the Raleigh apartments in honor of Miss Olive Aydtlett of Elizabeth City, the attractive guest of Mrs. James J. Thomas. Mrs. Wilbur Royster making the highest score, was presented with an exquisite handkerchief. Miss Josephine White, second highest, was also given a handkerchief and the honor guest, Miss Aydtlett, was given a beautiful corsage of sweet peas. Four tables of invited guests enjoyed the delightful afternoon at cards.

The new home just opened by the Milwaukee Athletic Club is declared to be one of the finest and best equipped clubhouses of its kind in the county.

"I HAVE used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and find it a most effective and pleasant laxative—one that is worth recommending to one's friends. I know that my health has been greatly improved since using it."

(From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Miss Alice Lombard, 22 Boylston St., Springfield, Mass.)

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

The Perfect Laxative

Sold by Druggists Everywhere
50 cts. (Two Sizes) $1.00

A mild, pleasant-tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Brings relief without griping or other discomfort. A trial bottle can be obtained free of charge by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 458 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois.

Hate's labor lost: Striking a Hun medal for a victory that never comes.—Washington Post.
Secretary Baker can now see by the newspapers that the war has come nearer than 3,000 miles.—Philadelphia Press.
No further argument for inland war-torwards is needed; if it were, this submarine episode would supply it.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Men In Every Walk of Life Ride a Bicycle

Going to work you're always on time---after the day's work you're home in a jiffy!

Ride a Bicycle; Pay While You Ride
Cash or Installments

Repairing of Bicycles and Talking Machines---Accessories

QUEEN CITY CYCLE COMPANY

209 Market St.

Phone 862

THE ROUTE OF THE AUSTRIAN ARMY.—The solid line on the map shows approximately the battle front at the height of the Austrian advance. The arrows indicate the retreat and the Italian pursuit. Diaz is reported to be establishing bridgeheads at Falze (1); Nervesa (2); Point di Plave (3), and Capo Sile (4). Italian cavalry has been thrown across the stream to A-A-A. At Mulle (B) the enemy still has a foothold on the southwest bank.

Automobiles and Trucks For Hire

TRUCKS---All sizes for heavy hauling and quick delivery.

AUTOMOBILES---Five and seven passenger at your disposal at all times.

WE SPECIALIZE ON HAY RIDES AND PICNICS

RATES REASONABLE

CALL US DAY OR NIGHT

CITY TAXICAB COMPANY

PHONES 15 AND 345