

Table with 2 columns: Duration (1 Year, 6 Months, 3 Months, 1 Month, 3 Weeks, 2 Weeks, 1 Week) and Price.

Post Office Money Orders may be obtained in all the cities, and in many of the largest towns. We consider them perfectly safe, and the best means of remitting fifty dollars or less.

Reduction of Price!

The subscription price of the WEEKLY STAR has been reduced as follows: Single Copy 1 year, $1.50; 6 months, 1.00; 3 months, .50.

Clubs of 5 to 10 subscribers, one year, $1.25 per copy, strictly in advance.

Clubs of 10 or more subscribers, one year, $1.00 per copy, strictly in advance.

No Club Rates for a period less than a year.

Both old and new subscribers may be included in making up Clubs.

At the above prices the WEEKLY STAR is, we think, the cheapest paper in the State, and its circulation will be doubled in twelve months, if those who have worked for its success in the past will increase their efforts in the future.

CUBAN BELLIGERENCY. It is stated in well informed Washington circles that a proclamation recognizing Cuban belligerency, prepared and signed by the President during the Virginia complications, but withheld in consequence of the peaceable solution of that affair, is again a subject of consideration.

Who has given Mr. Fish a backbone at this late day? The thing is wonderful. It passes our comprehension. What the Administration should have done long ago it will proceed to do now.

A CONSERVATIVE PAPER IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.

We see by an extra issued from the office of the Enfield Times that that paper has been sold by its editors and proprietors to Messrs. P. H. Winston, Jr., and Moses Gillam, of Windsor, Bertie county.

The general opinion of Conservatives on the new Republican ticket is that it is composed of better material than that of the Court House Convention, on the whole, but that it might have been made much better than it is.

THE INDEPENDENT NON-PARTISAN (C) CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE.

The Republican party of this District avow that they have no candidate for Judge. They held, however, a Solicitors Convention and decided that they would support a non-partisan for the position.

The ball is well in motion. It must be kept going.

But suppose we should grant what his friends claim, viz: that he is a non-partisan candidate for Judge, in other words a no-party candidate, can he consistently ask his party friends to support him? How do they know he is what he professes to be?

As was said before, the Court does not judicially know him as a candidate for Judge. Then he is not before the Court of his party suffrages, and they can not hear his cause.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE COUNTIES.

As far as we have seen and heard of knowledge of the facts, the Conservatives have brought out excellent tickets for the Legislature in both houses. In some of the counties most admirable selections have been made.

From the published proceedings and other sources we gather the information that nearly every one of the conventions was distinguished by a hearty unanimity and an enthusiastic and earnest feeling that augur well for the success of the Conservative party.

We are informed by a friend that the final examinations at this institution opened on the 17th inst. and were concluded on the evening of the 18th.

FLORIDA COLLEGE.

We are informed by a friend that the final examinations at this institution opened on the 17th inst. and were concluded on the evening of the 18th.

Mr. C. C. Lyon, of the firm of Lyon & Lyon, Attorneys at Law, Elizabethtown, writing us under date of the 18th inst., says the young man Thos. McGee, who was accidentally shot at that place on Saturday last, is improving and is considered by his physicians, Drs. Bizzell and Robinson, out of danger.

MR. GALVIN'S REMAINS.

The remains of Mr. John W. Galvin arrived here yesterday afternoon and were taken to the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. John Craig, corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, from whence his funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock.

It is said that about fifty of the excursionists, whose names have not been mentioned, received slight wounds of a more or less painful character, some twelve or fifteen of whom arrived in this city yesterday.

LOSS TO THE COMPANY.

A gentleman who was on the grounds after the accident estimates the loss to the Railroad Company in materials at $30,000.

THE LATE RAILROAD DISASTER.

A graphic description of the disaster by an Eye Witness—Scenes, Incidents, &c.

As the late terrible disaster on the Carolina Central Railway, on Wednesday morning last, still monopolizes a large share of interest and attention, we have concluded that a graphic description of the scenes and incidents of the accident by an intelligent eye-witness of the affair would prove uninteresting.

The scene of today's disaster beggars description, and will be remembered as one of the saddest events in the history of Anson. About four miles east of Lilesville, on the C. C. Railway, the excursion train, with its precious freight of three hundred living souls, plunged into a yawning abyss about twenty-two feet wide and fifteen feet deep, utterly demolishing the engine, tender, and four coaches, killing three men, (Mingo, fireman, Arnold and McClendon, brakemen, all colored), and wounding fifteen to eighteen whites.

As the late terrible disaster on the Carolina Central Railway, on Wednesday morning last, still monopolizes a large share of interest and attention, we have concluded that a graphic description of the scenes and incidents of the accident by an intelligent eye-witness of the affair would prove uninteresting.

After the engine, tender and four cars went down, the other cars went dashing over the culvert and were hurled in different directions, three or four of them going down the embankment.

Mr. George Huntley was on the platform of one of the cars and when the accident occurred he became wedged in between that and the car next behind, from which perilous position it took nearly a half hour to extricate him.

Mr. Thomas Alderman, Express Agent, we are glad to learn, is not hurt near as badly as at first supposed and is not considered dangerous.

THE DISINFECTED.

The Convention of the Insurgents—Great Outpouring of Disgruntled Delegates—A Harmonious Session—Full Ticket Nominated.

This Convention met in the City Hall yesterday morning. We elbowed our way through the immense throng of patriotic citizens of color and their white allies, which crowded the portico, and pressing up the steps encountered a platoon of policemen, which the Disinfected had placed there to forbid all objectionable persons, i. e., supporters of the Manning and Heaton wing, from entering; and after whispering the magic word "Press" several times, we found ourselves seated at the reporter's table.

The majority of the Convention seemed to be from the country, too many now, said the repentant bread and meat supporters of Manning and Heaton.

After some few remarks by brother Jim, a motion was made by J. J. Cassidy to appoint a committee of five on permanent organization. This motion was, however, withheld until G. W. Price, Jr., had made a few pious remarks, closing with a motion that this solemn assembly be opened with prayer.

The committee was appointed and retired, and during its absence J. C. Mann was called for and addressed the assemblage at some length, giving an account of his giant labors in the country.

The funeral of Mr. Galvin, the unfortunate engineer who was killed by the accident to the excursion train on the Carolina Central Railway on Wednesday last, which took place from the residence of Mr. John Craig, yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, was largely attended by his numerous friends and acquaintances in this place.

The Disinfected Republican Convention was opened with prayer yesterday, and Brother Pennybacker and Brother Gerken were deeply affected. Their sobs and ejaculations produced a profound sensation—so much so that it was thought the original object of the Convention would have to be abandoned for a genuine, old-fashioned camp meeting.

As for Brother Rice and Brother Sandy Campbell, the former shed three horse-bucks of tears, by actual measurement, and the latter could only find rest for his perturbed spirit in a deep sleep from which the Rosebud Band could no more wake him than it could play "Yankee" without the "Doodle."

Will Brother Canaday please pass round the hat?

MR. GALVIN'S REMAINS.

The remains of Mr. John W. Galvin arrived here yesterday afternoon and were taken to the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. John Craig, corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, from whence his funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock.

It is said that about fifty of the excursionists, whose names have not been mentioned, received slight wounds of a more or less painful character, some twelve or fifteen of whom arrived in this city yesterday.

LOSS TO THE COMPANY.

A gentleman who was on the grounds after the accident estimates the loss to the Railroad Company in materials at $30,000.

THE LATE RAILROAD DISASTER.

A graphic description of the disaster by an Eye Witness—Scenes, Incidents, &c.

As the late terrible disaster on the Carolina Central Railway, on Wednesday morning last, still monopolizes a large share of interest and attention, we have concluded that a graphic description of the scenes and incidents of the accident by an intelligent eye-witness of the affair would prove uninteresting.

The scene of today's disaster beggars description, and will be remembered as one of the saddest events in the history of Anson. About four miles east of Lilesville, on the C. C. Railway, the excursion train, with its precious freight of three hundred living souls, plunged into a yawning abyss about twenty-two feet wide and fifteen feet deep, utterly demolishing the engine, tender, and four coaches, killing three men, (Mingo, fireman, Arnold and McClendon, brakemen, all colored), and wounding fifteen to eighteen whites.

After the engine, tender and four cars went down, the other cars went dashing over the culvert and were hurled in different directions, three or four of them going down the embankment.

Mr. George Huntley was on the platform of one of the cars and when the accident occurred he became wedged in between that and the car next behind, from which perilous position it took nearly a half hour to extricate him.

Mr. Thomas Alderman, Express Agent, we are glad to learn, is not hurt near as badly as at first supposed and is not considered dangerous.

Will Brother Canaday please pass round the hat?

THE DISINFECTED.

The Convention of the Insurgents—Great Outpouring of Disgruntled Delegates—A Harmonious Session—Full Ticket Nominated.

This Convention met in the City Hall yesterday morning. We elbowed our way through the immense throng of patriotic citizens of color and their white allies, which crowded the portico, and pressing up the steps encountered a platoon of policemen, which the Disinfected had placed there to forbid all objectionable persons, i. e., supporters of the Manning and Heaton wing, from entering; and after whispering the magic word "Press" several times, we found ourselves seated at the reporter's table.

The majority of the Convention seemed to be from the country, too many now, said the repentant bread and meat supporters of Manning and Heaton.

After some few remarks by brother Jim, a motion was made by J. J. Cassidy to appoint a committee of five on permanent organization. This motion was, however, withheld until G. W. Price, Jr., had made a few pious remarks, closing with a motion that this solemn assembly be opened with prayer.

The committee was appointed and retired, and during its absence J. C. Mann was called for and addressed the assemblage at some length, giving an account of his giant labors in the country.

The funeral of Mr. Galvin, the unfortunate engineer who was killed by the accident to the excursion train on the Carolina Central Railway on Wednesday last, which took place from the residence of Mr. John Craig, yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, was largely attended by his numerous friends and acquaintances in this place.

The Disinfected Republican Convention was opened with prayer yesterday, and Brother Pennybacker and Brother Gerken were deeply affected. Their sobs and ejaculations produced a profound sensation—so much so that it was thought the original object of the Convention would have to be abandoned for a genuine, old-fashioned camp meeting.

As for Brother Rice and Brother Sandy Campbell, the former shed three horse-bucks of tears, by actual measurement, and the latter could only find rest for his perturbed spirit in a deep sleep from which the Rosebud Band could no more wake him than it could play "Yankee" without the "Doodle."

Will Brother Canaday please pass round the hat?

THE DISINFECTED.

The Convention of the Insurgents—Great Outpouring of Disgruntled Delegates—A Harmonious Session—Full Ticket Nominated.

This Convention met in the City Hall yesterday morning. We elbowed our way through the immense throng of patriotic citizens of color and their white allies, which crowded the portico, and pressing up the steps encountered a platoon of policemen, which the Disinfected had placed there to forbid all objectionable persons, i. e., supporters of the Manning and Heaton wing, from entering; and after whispering the magic word "Press" several times, we found ourselves seated at the reporter's table.

The majority of the Convention seemed to be from the country, too many now, said the repentant bread and meat supporters of Manning and Heaton.

After some few remarks by brother Jim, a motion was made by J. J. Cassidy to appoint a committee of five on permanent organization. This motion was, however, withheld until G. W. Price, Jr., had made a few pious remarks, closing with a motion that this solemn assembly be opened with prayer.

The committee was appointed and retired, and during its absence J. C. Mann was called for and addressed the assemblage at some length, giving an account of his giant labors in the country.

The funeral of Mr. Galvin, the unfortunate engineer who was killed by the accident to the excursion train on the Carolina Central Railway on Wednesday last, which took place from the residence of Mr. John Craig, yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, was largely attended by his numerous friends and acquaintances in this place.

The Disinfected Republican Convention was opened with prayer yesterday, and Brother Pennybacker and Brother Gerken were deeply affected. Their sobs and ejaculations produced a profound sensation—so much so that it was thought the original object of the Convention would have to be abandoned for a genuine, old-fashioned camp meeting.

As for Brother Rice and Brother Sandy Campbell, the former shed three horse-bucks of tears, by actual measurement, and the latter could only find rest for his perturbed spirit in a deep sleep from which the Rosebud Band could no more wake him than it could play "Yankee" without the "Doodle."

Will Brother Canaday please pass round the hat?

Spirits Turpentine.

The Crescent learns that Judge Tourgee wants the emine again and will declare himself a candidate in the 7th Judicial District.

Hickory Press: The little boys and girls of Morganton between the ages of 6 and 12 have formed themselves into an anti-tobacco society, and they have pledged themselves to abstain forever from the use of the weed.

Raleigh News: We learn that the executive committee of the Patrons of Husbandry, in session today in this city, approved of the action of the Worthy Master in removing E. C. Davidson, of Mecklenburg, from all offices that he has held.

At the Peace Institute the following ladies graduated last Wednesday: Miss Mary Dewey, of Charlotte; Miss Sallie J. Polk, of Anson county; Miss Florida C. Rich, of Wintboro; S. G. Miss Pattie Lawrence, of Raleigh; Miss Lillie J. Herling, of Newbern; Miss Sallie B. Towles, of Raleigh; Miss Jennie Faison, of Clinton.

In the Supreme Court Wednesday appeals from the 2d district were called and argued as follows: Lewis Outley and wife et al. vs. John Farmer et al., from Wayne, Smith & Strong for plaintiff, Faircloth & Granger for defendant; Jesse W. Broadway vs. M. Rhem, from Lenoir, Smith & Strong for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant; C. S. Wooten, adm'r, vs. W. B. Fort, adm'r, from Wayne, Faircloth & Granger for plaintiff, Smith & Strong for defendant; John B. Smith et al. vs. Wiley B. Fort, from Wayne, Smith & Strong for plaintiff, S. W. Iler for defendant; Alexander Mitchell vs. Jesse Sawyer, adm'r, et al., from Craven, M. D. W. Stevenson for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant.