The Edilson Ledger. * PRENTISS TUCKE. DOIN C. GORMAN. TUCKE & GORMAN, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.	TI	IE W	ILSO	N L	EDGER.	Terms of Advertising: One sparre of answer in er inst inst inst inst inst inst inst inst
Terms of Subscription :	"LET A THOUSAND CONSTITUTIONS PERISH BUT THE LIBERTIES OF A PEOPLE BE NOT INSULTED."					Do b Work Executed at the enterest notice, on the most renam-
The wish reast are summary all orders for clubs, The maximum summary and orders for clubs, the maximum summary are summary and the sum are sum are sum are sum and the sum are sum	VOL. III.	WILSON, NO	RTH CAROLINA	, TUESDAY, FEB	RUARY 19, 1861. NO. 42.	able terrors, and 'n active near site the third remains any estimatishmical in the state, where folls, Band- tills, Carrollars, Catalognes, Pamphilets, thereis in this, Blanks of every description, Ball and Party Teckets which of fatery-th Bround, Bell Blank or alls (hat-printed in the best style. Gate has a treat
PROFESSIONAL CARDS.	School Advartisements.	Wilson Advertisements.	Poetry.	Selected Story.	"Frederic, you cannot. He has had tance of your father's estate f" a dreadful night. The doctor will not "Would that I could, Fred !would allow it."	first word. The children, who had waited so long for justice, were as if
G Barnan, G Barn		CLOTHING. Fall and Winter	POEM BY MILTON. [The following sublime and affecting pro- duction was but lately discovered among the	[From the New York Mercury.] INGRATITUDE. A ROMANCE OF THE NEW YORK COURTS.	"Say that my brothers-in-law will not allow it," returned the young man, in a tone of bitterness. "The same wicked nature," repfied "And way can't you, my good fel low?" "I have no money."	of triumph. Certain questions were to be an-
a by reduced of de- algebra in the males. Recommended of de- wares in the males. Recommended and the males is consistent and the males is a second of the second the males is a second of the sec	WILSON CLASSICAL AND Scientific Gymnasium. Mr & Mrs. Richardson, Principals.	STOCK CHEA 1 BARGAINS - For Cash, or Good Notes, at CHAS IRRETSOUS	remains of our great epic poet, and is pub- lished in the recent Oxford edition of Milton's Works:] I am old and blind !	BY J. ALEXANDER PATTEN. The earliest rays of the morning	the female, "prompting you to that speech young man, has helped to bring your father where he is. After expensive and lengthy suit, with such is lacerating his heart for years and years slight chance of success, without	swered by the jury. These were sub- mitted in writing, and the answers were to be given in a like manner.— t The paper was handed to the indee.
Dr. Alexander D. Moore, Formerly of Clept Huit, MANNA permanenties trated in Wilson. Market and the surrounding country. With	BOARD OF DERECTORS. GEN. JOSHUA BARNES. Pres. of the Board EDMUND MOORE, HSQ., LARA D. FARMEB. ESQ.,	CLOTHING & FURNISHING HOUSE, (Opposite McBride's Jewelay Stor WILSON, N. C.	Men point at me as smitten by God's frown: Afflicted and deserted of my kind; YetI am not cast down. I am weak, yet strong; I murmur not! that I no longer see ;	a room in the mansion of Jonathan Mansfield, attorney and counselor at law. The gas was burning, and before	-after disregarding his commands and deserting his door, you come to make more thorny his dying pillow. Away, away !" The lady laid her hand upon him, A flood of curotion swept through	He deliberately adjusted his spectacles, and looked at it. The answer to the first question amounted to a decision upon the will. "To question number one," said the
an experience of thirteen years in the prac- tion of medicine, those who may desire his services may confidently rely on his utmost suit and attention.	WILLIAM BARNES, JR., Esq., RICHARD BLOUNT, Esq. BOARD OF VISITORS. JUDGE ASA BIGGS.	IN returning thanks for the patronage ex- nded to me since opening my store, I beg to inform the public that I have pur- chased the whole stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods of R. H. Blount & Co.,	Poor, old, and helpless, I the more belong, Father Supreme! to Thee, O, merciful One!	loose papers and packets of the same, sat the learned lawyer himself. He was an elderly man. At length, he put down his pen and a very lengthy legal	and pushed him yet farther back from the door. "Lydia, my weeping heart will not allow me to dispute with you now.— friend, saving :	t Judge, with almost a cruel deliberation; 1 "the jury answer in the affirmative." The will was broken. The judge would have proceeded strings tone door above M. Routtree & Co.s. store, where he may be found, during the doc, when not professionally engaged. At algebra at his room, at the residence of Dr.	H. W. MILLER, Esc., THOS. J. WHEAT D. D.	and which I am now selling Below Manufacturer's Prices !! I am also receiving supplies of my Fall stock, and on examination you will find my goods	near; When friends pass by me, and my weakness shun, Thy chariot I hear. Thy glorious face	closely, and throwing himself back in his chair, gave a hearty yawn.	would not have you, and my sister Ag- nes, and your husbands standing senti- your thanks when it is through with	" longed, universal shout burst from the e au lience. The officers of the court had
Drs. C. A. & J. G. Thomas Practicing Physicians, Sep. 4. WILSON, N. C.	BOARD OF INSTRUCTION. GYMNASIUM. D. S. RICHARDSON, A. M., Professor of Belles-Lettres and Ancient Lan- guages.	The Cheapest, THE MOST EXTENSIVE, AND THE BEST ASSORTED,	Is leaning toward me; and its holy light Shines in upon my lonely dwelling place— And there is no more night. On my bended knee	this." He seemed lost in deep thought, and drummed the table with his fin- gers. "It's none of my business," he con-	"Wretch !" "Sister." "Begone !" "Let me—oh ! let me behold my papers to be drawn to this effect.	 a) each man by the hand. There were none except the executors and their lawyers, who did not rejoice in the verdict. It was a proud, happy hour for Travis Haight-yes, the proudest, hap-
Dr. John Howard, OFFERS his professional services to the entrens of Wilson and vicinity.	e Professor of Higher Mathematics and Surveying. J. B. WILLIAMS,	My stock consists of Coats, Pants and Vests, of all sizes and qualities, together withian excellent assortment of Shirts, Drawers, Collars, Stocks, Ties,	I recognize Thy purpose clearly shown; My vision Thou has dimmed, that 1 may see Thyself - Thyself alone. I have naught to fear : This darkness is the shadow of Thy wing ;	tinued, after a while, "but 'I must say that my clients have caused me to draw up a most unnatural, villainous will.— In these still hours of the night, I have	"He hates you—he has cursed you, contest the validity of the will. The What right have you to stand at his ground taken was that the testator, a dying bed i Do you wish his last the time of its execution, was not breath to repeat his malediction?"	at Several years fled by. Frederick Westcott had become the administra-
 get's Clothing Store, (formerly occupied by (ir, Cotten, dec'd) where he may always by found when not professionally engaged. August 11, 1860. 	V	Cravats, Gloves, Trunks, Valises, Umbrelllas, Walking Canes, Suspenders, Soap, Per- fumery, Linen and Silk Handker-	Beneath it I am almost sacred; here Can come no evil thing. C ! I seem to stand Trembling, where foot of mortal ne'er hath	pointment to the hearts, and almost poverty itself to the door of a rich man's own children. He is going to his	The young man bent his head into his hands, and wept violently. Noth- ing, however, save a dark, unchanging frown, pervaded the face of the sister. "When is father likely to di?" when is father likely to di?"	y his large inheritance a wealthy man. A So much had one of the old executors ir been disturbed by the result, that he
Drs. B. & L. A. Stith, PRACTICING PHYSICIANS, Wilson, N C., Offer their services to the citizer of Wilson, and vicinity.	MISS MARION POWERS, Mathematics and Higher English.	chiefs, and every arcicle for gentlemen's wear. I have also on nand a stock of the very best quality of Ladiez and Gents'	Wrapped in the radiance of Thy sinless land Which eye hath never seen. Visions come and go; Shapes of re-plendent beauty round me throng	lars-yes, nearer two millions-but the	"He is ill-very ill-that is all I can them.	m after the trial. Of course, the obligation to Travis at Haughtee and never be fully discharged.
 Connec, opposite Ars, Advest Anne ery establishment. They may be found a night, when not professionally engaged, a their rooms in the Wilson House. 20 E. H.⁴ HOOPER, T. E. THOMPSON, Of Philadel, Denial College Of Balto, Denial College 	at (Berlin, Prussia.) Department of Music and German. Mademoische SOPHIE MARINDIN.	DEFT COMPETITION.	From angel-lips I seem to here the flow Of soft and holy song. Is it nothing now, When heaven is opening on my sightless eyes	It is eyes closed, and he nodded fairly overcome with weariness and sleep. It is head slipped from his hand which was supporting it, and roused	, of tears, the young man retraced his mous. It always met the lawyers of steps through the hall and down stairs, the calendars somewhere. It was He paused near the street door, to re- interminable as that of Jarndyce y gain more composure, and then left the Jarndyce.	 Frederick Westcott songht to effect it. Other years passed. Frederick West- cott had lost his wife; his wealth intro- duced him into new circles; he because
· Hooper & Thompson,	DR. T. S. LAMBERT, Lecturer before both Schools, on Physiology and Amatomy	My Stock of	When airs from paradise refresh my brow The earth in darkness lies.	"I'm sorry, very sorry, for his so	house. He was hardly out of sight. By this time the executors and the when a carriage drew up at the door. The brothers and their lawyer stood of the law would be used and able.	ce were not friendly to Travis Ha ght :

Ving associated themselves in the prac tice of their profession, tender their services to the cifizens of Wilson and surrounding Co's Store.

J. S. Barnes, 1 A TTORNEY AND COL NSELOR AT LAW, Wilson, N. C. Will attend the Courts of Tilson, Edgecombe, Pitt, Greene, Wayne and Nash. 20" Prompt attention given to the collection of all claims placed in his hands for collection.

J. W. Lancaster, COUNSELLOR AND ATTOUNEY AT LAW, WILSON, Nº C. Will hereafter regularly attend the County and Superior Courts of Nash, Wilson, Wayne and Johnston Counties, Office on Tarboro' Street. w3m. August 21st, 1860.

WM. BOGART, Architect and 'Superintendent, GOLDSHORO, N. C.,

WILL furnish Designs and Specifications for pub-W in and private earlings with full practical wave drawing with a shall combine construc-tion drawing with a shall combine construcit's some on a and furnish the a till provider of the ap-

James S. Woodard, A . FORMEN AND COUNSELOR AT LAW, Wilson N. C. Will attend the super or courts of literates. Some combe and H'ilson Coun-

William H. Bunn, A TTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT A LAW, Wilson, N. C. CIECUT := Wilson, Nach, Wayne, Pitt, and J chuston counties.

A. Barnes, TTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT 1. LAW, Wilson, N. C. CIRCUIT :-- Wayne, Nash, Edgecombe, Wilson,

George W. Blount, TTORNEY AT J.A.W. WILSON, N.C. Chacurr :-- Nash, Wilson, Edgecomber, Franklin

E. Prentiss Tucke, Civil Engineer and Surveyor. Instruction given in the use of the Compass, Transit, Theodolite, and Level. Wilson, N. C.

To the Traveling Public. THE subscriber beg - leave t inform his friends and the pub e generally that he has open d in the town of Wilson a OTEL, for the accommodation and entertainment of travelers, and of regular boarders. No efforts will be left untried to give to the house such a character, on trial, that it will need no further r commen-

The terms of board, both transient and tunnent, will be found as low as our maret will justicy, and the table will be at all times well supplied with the luxuries of the scasop. Give the house a trial, and you will be satisfied with your treatment and your fare. A good har is attached to the Hotel, where the best liquors can be obtained.

CHIS LIVERY STABLES, will be kept supplied with horses and vehicles for hire on "" Call at the "Wilson House," formerly kept 'y J see H. Adams. B. D. STITH.

THE MISSES BOWERS. Assistant Pupils

MISS EMMA ALFORD, Domestic Department. J. B. WILLIAMS, Financial Agent.

IT IS DESIGNED BY THE FOUNDERS 1 of The vilson Schools, to furnish to the young of both sexes in the State and out of it. THE BEST FACILITIES for a comprehensive, thorough and practical education. For the accomplishment of this worthy end, the Charter of the Schools authorizes the investment of $20,000; more than one third of this amount has already been de voted to the erection of elegant vollege Buildings, supplying them with appropriate furniture, bath rooms, warm and cold water, and everything necessary to secure comfort ind order. These schools are Non-Sectarian, in theory ind practice. Schools on such a basis are believed to be the imperative want of the imes. To exhibit their position clearly and correct the report which has obtained to a considerable extent, that they are Sec tacian, and belong to the Primitive Baptist

Order, we subjein the following from Section c. de ath of the card or with "These School shall net or he beneritary and or Sectarian --- that a ... this period at the thich distin al house denomination of christians from tradient shall be ver be taught in them, nor hall flight lights faith of any student ever

The "dest and great" regulation of The With a school one which "hangs all the hay, and on the strict observance of which, they inventigated a most enviable reputation at home and abroad, "requires every student'to do his duty," Nothing else give claim to muldership. Habits of idleness extravagance and insubordination, cannot be fostered here. Boys who are not brave enough to do their duty, are not wanted -Girls, whose highest ambition it is to be edu cated to a fashionable "ornamental idleness," are not desired. The sessions correspond with those of the University, and commence about the middle of January and July in each year, continuing twenty weeks. This arrangement, while it suits this the central portion of the State, admirably adapts itself to the wants of the people of the Eastern counties, who wish to patronize schools nearer home, and escape he dangers of acclimation west, and in other tates. Wilson has been selected as the site of these Schools, on account of its unparalleled healthfulness, accessibility, and central posi

It is situated at the terminus of the Green ville Plank Boad, immediately on the Wilnington and Weldon Railroad, 108 miles from Wilmington, 54 from Weldon, and 24 miles from Goldshoro', the point of intersee tion of the Central Road, and is the highest point of ground on the road. Board from $8 to $10 per month. Tuition from 10 to $30 per session, accord ing to degree of advancement." Circulars, containing full information, sent on applica 27-tf.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE!

THE Subscriber offers for sale low, his 1 "valuable farm, [containing about 1000 acres of good land,] lying in New Hanover County, about 30 miles north-west from Wil-mington, 11 miles from Washington Depot, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and only four miles from Long Creek Town. The improvements on premises consisting of Two-Story Dwelling House.

all necessary, out-houses of a farm and a splendid well of water. About one hundred and mais & Caps In a purer clime My being fills with rapture-waves of thought are to hand, and are the Roll in upon my spirit-strains sublime BEST AND CHEAPEST MANUFACTURED Break over me unsought, TIE - UBLIC Are respectfully invited to call and examine Give me now my lyre ! feel the stirrings of a gift divine : my stock as I feel sure I can please, in Within my bosom glows unearthly fire Lit by no skill of mine. PRICE AND QUALITY.

Store.

W. E. GOODWIN.

NORFOLK, VA.

S. W. VICK,

GOLDSBORO, N. C.

Wilson, Oct. 21

Sept. 12th. 1860.

WM. T. WALKE.

wharf, Norfolk, Va.

Oct. 23

Remember, it is opposite the Jewelry Extract from a letter explanatory of th above Poem. CHARLES IBBETSON.

Let me correct the error into which you with others, have been led. The "Poem" in question was not written by Milton ; but by young Philadelphia Quakeress, Elizabeth

Norfolk Advertisements. Lloyd, now Elizabeth Howell. As a personal friend and acquaintance of the authoress and knowing something of the history of this Hyman, Dancy & Co, poem, I desire to make this correction and lace justice where it is due. And you, no

Co.a a ssion Merchants, doubt, will be happy to aid in doing it, and thus secure to American female genius the credit which has been attributed to the "great NORFOLK, Va. The New York House will be conducted by epic poet" of England. And it is a credit to the real author, that she is able to produce a no, S. Dancy, aided by h. W. Hyman. The Norfoik House will be conducted by f such characteristic power and beauty as to no. H. Hyman and F. M. Hyman. 20 Particular attention given to the deceive the sagacious Oxford publishers. When the poem was first published in this ale of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Naval Stores, country, anonymously, it wandered to Engiand and was readily "discovered" by the sharp eyes there. This was all the discovera 26---tf nere was about it. So completely had the F. A. WALKE, M. D.

American poetess personified the voice of the old man eloquent," that her poem was aught up and incorporated into a new edition WALKE & CO., of Milton's works. So her voice now goes IMPORTERS & JOBBERS OF ringing through the world with that of the majestic and immortal old Bard. Let them DRUGS, PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, sing on together ?" And Druggists' Fancy Goods, Rarey had a tough time with a little iron-gray horse in New York on Saturday. Instead of his usual twenty minutes vehi vidi vici, he was compelled to ODOM & CLEMENTS fight more than an hour for victory .--Some twenty or thirty times did Rarey Atotton Factors and General Commission U Merchants, Nos. 11 and 12 McIntosh's attempt to strap up his left fore-leg, but the exceedingly potent objections 13 " special attention given to the sale of made by the iron-gray to his completing the operation were vigorously e ective. 27-tf After an hour and a quarter's continuance of the struggle, Rarcy finally con-LUCAS & G. J. MOORE, quered, having given the audience the finest exhibition of his power and reso-

Wholesale and Retail lution.

DEALERS IN Drugs, Medicines. Chemicals, Perfamery,

Fine Toilet Soaps, Fancy Articles Durning Fluid, Trusses and shoulder Braces D Glass, Putty, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Dye stuffs, Manufactured Tobacco, Snuff and ligars, Surgical and Dental Instruments, trass and Garden seed, and Patent Medi-

Physicians' presciptions carefully comounded, and all orders correctly answered. All medicines warranted genuine, and of the says the Bunker Hill Aurora. oest quality. March 22, 1860.

Ex-President Tyler, is described as bearing his great age with remarkable grace. He is the same slim, tall-look-BRANCH T. HURT, ing, high-bred Virginia gentleman, his Grocer and General Commission striking features still showing a high degree of mental activity. He has the Merchant. characteristic which Napoleon I con-

K EEPS constantly on hand a large and sidered the man of intellectual superi ority-a prominent nose. His eye is ularly adapted to the wants of the farming keen and gentle, and reflects the anicommunity. Also the best Peruvian Guano, all of which are bought with cash, and will mal vigor which is undiminished by be sold upon the most favorable terms, both age. as to time and price.

Consignments of produce are solicited, under the belief and promise that the experi- the noise of the company the day are you ready to go i ence of 85 years, will enable nim to make before had made his head ache. " No, thing."

His head fell forward. "Old adage. Cut off-shil-shilling." field was sound asleep.

were the triumph of malice over affec- was admitted into the dim room, an | viewed it as a grand opportunity to dis- aily determined to follow the advica tion. It was to be the death-bed act the brothers and their wives whispered tinguish himself in his profession. As given him, of a father basely influenced against encouragingly to him. Then the law- the case progressed, these feelings be- In the same office, where years betwo of his offspring.

Late in the atternoon of the day before, Jonathan Mansfield was about to for water, and his eyes would close, as and public importance. leave his office, when two gentlemen | if in death.

entered, in haste. They were brothers, Andrew and William Betts, wealthy daughters. citizens of the city, and his best clients. They informed him that Mr. Robert Andrew Betts. Westcott, their father-in-law, was exceedingly ill, and that they had brought legal phraseology, all the intricate propoem worthy to be classed with Milton's, and the draft of a will which it was neces- visions of the bequests, all the lengthy sary should be drawn for him to exe- and tedious details in a will disposin cute. A very slight examination of of a vast estate-real and personalthe draft was sufficient to show the were repeated to this dving man.

> elaborate and intricate. He stated that as he moaned and gasped. A Bible was it would require considerable time to placed before him, and some personsprepare the paper.

Mr. Andrew Betts. "Why, it ought to take days." "We can give you till eight this no time to lose.' "I could not get it done." "Say 12 o'clock." "Impossible ; too soon-too soon." "Davlight."

"The very earliest, gentlemen." "Well, be it so." "We will call for you to go with us brother, joining in the conversation. night-I can be ready at that time."

According to the statement of the will, and began its perusal, and the which seemed removed from these surely at hand. Treasurer of the Massachusetts Anti- other shook the sleeping lawyer by the children was bestowed upon the other When the day of trial came, much felt well enough to attend the public Slavery Society, their receipts for the shoulder.

year amounted to over eleven thousand "Shil-shilling," said Mansfield, half dollars, expenditures nearly ten thou- asleep and confused. "Ah ! gentlemen. sand, mostly paid for lectures. It will Ready-ready !"

be difficult to tell what good has been He sprang to his feet, shook himaccomplished by such a use of this self, rubbed his eyes, and looked about been informed of the race with death" Several days were consumed in taking corpse. money, other than maintain the lec- on the table for the paper.

"Here-I have the will," said Mr. "Ah !"

"Read it. Quick !" The lawyer commenced, and hastily read the document to the end, interrupted, at times, by the brothers, to ask for explanations, or note some errors.

"There are some slight, but not important errors," said Andrew, as the reading was concluded. "It must stand as it is, said Wil-"We have not a moment to liam.

"You are right, brother. Delay Boswell complaied to Johnson that might ruin everything. Mr. Mansfield, "Quite."

his eyes still closed. "But I'm a law- within the sick chamber. Two fe- against them. The suit, which they Westcott against him; they induced ver, and business is quite another males, the wives of these brothers, were expected would terminate so speedily, him to believe that Haight had take a suffering father. The old man, a hide- The young lawyer who conducted it, their settlement regarding the suit. ous spectacle of disease and approach- at first the object of their ridicale, was They advised a suit to be institute I to In another instant, Jonathan Mans- ing dissolution, was propped up with now pressing them to the wall. pillows, and gasping for every breath. Travis Haight had, indeed, cm- had been deeded to the lawyer. Not Yes, that will lying on the table was He was now raised and supported with barked in this suit with great spirit, - at first, but eventually all this prein lice a villainous document. Its bequests additional pillows, a little more light Aside from his personal feelings, he took effect upon Westautt. He actu> yer was beckoned to come near ; the came more and more involved, and his fore Paight had so nobly tendered has sick man stared vacantly; he motioned zeal increased as it loomed up in legal professional services, one day, West-

"Be quick !" whispered one of the amounting to a large sum. These were the forty lots,

"Hurry, Mr. Mansfield !" said Mr. procured from his father.

The lawyer read rapidly. All the CONTRACTOR OF CONTRACTOR lawyer that the will was to be very Again they raised and propped him, for witnesses-called in. Then they "How many kours ?" demanded gave him some wine. He revive l. .

"Onick !" said one of the brothers. "Now !" whispered the other. In a brief space the will was signed evening. Between ourselves, there is The shriveled fingers received the part last time, forever, the name of Robert Westcott. Before that day closed, his spirit had sue fulled him, he was ready with ano- A suit was commenced for the refled.

Of the four children of Robert West- deepest legal learning and tact-and a serious impression upon Haight, cott, two had married to suit his funcy, through years and years pressed for- He foll into a state melancholly, and and two had displeased him in this ward, hopeful of final success. At his health became much impaired, to Mr. Westcott's residence at daylight respect. One of these latter was a last, after thirteen years of toil, anxiety During the spring, he devoted himself to morrow morning," said the other daughter, residing, at the time of his and deferred hope, this was game 1.- to the preparation of a full history of death, in South Carolina. The other The Court of Appeals made a decision the will-case, which he designed to "Very well. By hard work-all was a son, living in New York. He which sent the case back to the Su- publish and circulate. He deemed had been rather wild, hal a passion for preme Court of the New York City some vindication necessary, as some re-Jonathan Mansfield slumbered but music, and finally married an actress.- District, to determine the validity of ports to his injury were in circulation. briefly. With the dawn came the All of these were great offences in the the will as a question of fact by a pary. The pamphlet was daily issued, brothers. They were shown to the sight of his father, and he had been trial.

apartment. One of them seized the virtually discarded. The affection The great battle in the case was proceeded in the month of August for daughters and their husbands. Mr. public intérest was excited. The array dinner. He was with a company of Westcott had threatened to disinherit his two offending children ; but, late in] his last illness, it was discovered that sprence, the court room was crowded, act of helping a lady to something he had made no will. The reader has to sufficient undertaken by the sons-in-law, and of the testimology. The interest had inthe execution of a will of their own creased. All the avenues to the courtroom were thronged with people anxiframing.

Sure enough, when the will came be- ious to hear the summing up, fore the surrogate, it was found that The executors were filled with auxialmost the entire estate went to the ety. The wronged son and daughter two daughters and their husbands.- were present, borne up by that hope on account of slavery, sud-"Thank to receive only a paltry annuity. The additors were swayed by the over-The hope of these latter for justice powering efforts of argument and clo-and their rights, was now in the law .- quence which they heard. In that law, so slow, so uncertain, so Strange to say, calmest of all was expensive. Who would undertake to Travis Haight.

conduct a suit for them ? Who, against The last appeal of counsel had been the powerful influences of wealth and made. Annuist breathless silence, the the legal ability which was certain to Judge rose to charge the jury. This be enlisted ? tiaished, the jury reifred.

One young lawyer there was in New | There had been tears shed that day, York, willing to engage in the hercule- as the thrilling tones of an O'Conor and ever was the African slave trade. And an task. His prompting came from the pathos of a Hoffman had rung administering to the wants of their was battled more vigorously every day, advantage of his generaus feel, garan recover some forty valuable lots, which > colt took occasion to undervalue them, The expenses of the sait were and at length demanded a return of paid by Haight-or, rather, by loans "Have you gone erazy I" asked Haight, half-bewildered by what he Meanwaile, Frederick Westcott had had heard, secome quite embarrassed in his affairs, "No, sir," returned Westcott, very in these difficulties, Hagit was a son- coolly, "I have just come to my senses," staat and unfailing friend. The bond "Then," sir, your ingristion le is the d friendship between them grew even deepest, blackest, meanest of which man ever was guilty."

But there were times when matters "All this is quite natural, Mr. Haight cented desperate for the contestants of -quite natural. I see you will not he will. Decisions were again and give up these gains very willingly. I gain rendered against them. The Shill, accordingly, look to the law, much money had been spent, nowever, You will hear from my attorney. Good for the sait to be abandoned now .- day to you, sr."

But more than all, young Haight had With these bitter words Westcott too invincible a spirit to view until left the office. Haight was too muchevery issue, every technical point, was astourcled, hurt, and mortified to make exhausted. The point for which he a reply. He wept. Not because of and were half guided to scrawl, for the struggled was, to have the simple fact any loss that might happen to him, but of the testator's condition of miad tried because the last link in an old friendby a jury. Hence, as soon as one is- ship was thus severel forever, ther-many of them showing the covery of the lots. The matter made

Sad, and almost weary of life, Haight Newport. The day after his arrival he of counsel on both sides had, perhaps, friends, and chatted with unusual cheer-indicer before been equaled. In consefrom a dish, he fell back, in his chair a > Ingratitude, assisted by disease, had done its feil work.

.... At a dinner speech at the Lord Mayor's of London, one of Her Majes, ty's Ministers, Sir C. Wood, alluding God from this country (n land,) we have long removed the stans and crime of slavery and the slave trade." Now his was attered with apparent seriousness, by a British Minister, within ninety days after Great Britain had sacked fekin and burnt the Emperor's palace and compelied him to open the white coolie slave trade, which is now legalzed in British vessels, and is a milion

