

stand French ?

some lilies Fred, please.

Carmer's Hair Life Carmer's Essence Jamaica Ginger. Carmer's Vermifuge. Baird's Worm Confections Baird's Horse and Cattle Powders. Granger Bitters, Prs., and Qts. Granger Schuapps, "

And keep at all times a full line PURE CHEMPALS for AGRICULTURAL purposes at the lowest cash prices.

All of the above goods may be found at the Drug Store of A. W. ROWLAND, and are for sale by dealers generally.

SAM HODGES J. W. GILMER GILMER & HODGES WHOLFSALE DEALERS

HATS, CAPS, STRAW AND LA-DIES TRIMMED GOODS.

No. 45 ROANOKE AVENUE, NORFOLK VA. P. O. Box 214, Just in receipt of Spring & Summer Stock. Lowest Northern prices guaranteed. Sep.28-6 m.

SCHMIDLAPS LIVE OAK DIS-TILLERY. Photograph Gallery. CINCINNATI, OIIIO Proprietors of the LIVE OAK, VENUS CERES and AMAZON WHISKEYS. The undersigned respectfully announces to the people of Wilson and surrounding

SOLE AGENTS FOR APPLEWOOD DISTILLERY APPLE GROVE, KY.

W. J. HARRISS, Agent for WILSON, N. C.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, furnish landscale views or designs of any (Late Professor of Diseases of the Eye and kind. Special attention given to childrens. Ear in the Sav much Medical College.) pictures, will also furnish frames, picture Practic Limited to the ands &c.

and EAR PYD KALLGIS, N. C. Refers to the State Medical Society and Hideal Somerv.

A l'ast Class House. Established in 1830 NOWARD MITCHELL & SONS,

14 WHOLESALE.

Grocers & Liquor Dealers,

90 WEST PRATT STREET. Baltimore, Md. PAY PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE 1811

SALE: OF COTTON. Represented by

H Read Geo. Sont 95 Tam.

New Spring Goods

At Battleboro, N. C.

I have just received a complete stock of General Merchandise consisting of FANCY NOTIONS,

Practice in the Courts of Wilson, Edge combe. Nash and Franklin, and in the Federal and Supreme Courts at Raleigh .-Collections made in any part of the State It is outrageous, positively outrage

R. R. W. JOYNER, ous, and I will never bear it, exclaimed

NEW

All work warranted to give satisfaction.

In addition to portrainne, he will also

Old pictures copied and enlarged. Persons

J. M. DODSON, Artist.

.12.0

aug 3

wishing good pictures are respectfully in-vited to call and give me a trial.

WILSON COLLEGIATE SEMINARY

Wilson. N. C.

J. B. BREWER, A. M., Principal.

Spring Term begins Feb. 4th.

Titition, per month, ....

FOR YOUNG LADIES.)

For particulars or circular, address the Established in

Importer and Manufacturer of Musical Instruments and

STRINGS OF ALL KINDS.

WHOLESALE

W. SELDNER,

78 Baltimore St.,

BALTIMORE, ML

R. EISENBRANDT,

Post Office.

ery reasonable terms

feb. 22, -tf

Board.

Washing

principals.

H.

Sept 28-12m,

C

D.

she had been intently perusing with an angry look, dying either cheek and illuminating a pair of very lovely brown > eyes. What is the matter now? question-

WHAT POND LILLIES DID.

ed her sister Mary, re-adjusting the bunch of pansies with which she was trimming a pretty garden hat. he can be found at all times. If you are desirous of work in his live call and sev > terms, if you believe me Joe Parkfor the boats. son has taken me to task for as he styles it my most odious flirtation with Fred Ellers last evening at the church off.

sociable. Well, I do think his attentions were rather marked and that you were having a good time generally to the exclusion of poor Joe, to whom you are as good as engaged, as all of the world of country that he has opened an Art Gallery Brooky lie knows, returned May holdin the rooms formerly occupied by Whit-tington & Setszer and is prepared to furning up he: hat to not, the effect of the ish good pictures of any size or style and on drooping pansies.

But thank fortune, we are not en flowers. gaged, as Joe well knows, and never will be. Of that he and every one else may rest assured, and the angry beauty tore into shreds poor Joe's note, and seizing writing material dashed off very hasty reply.

Oh! dear, sighed May, there is always something to interfere with one's happiness. Just as we have everything arranged for the 'Pond Lily' party, you and Joe Parkson must quar-

I do not intend the matter shall interfere with my happiness in the least. I have simply declined accompanying him upon the pic nic to-morrow and requested him in the future to attend to them. 1811 his own affairs as I am fully competent to the adjustment of my own. Sue you will not send that note ?

I certainly shall and the gentleman will of course understand that all intercourse between us is at an end. But how will you go to the pic-nic without au escort? I shall accept Fred's very pressing invitation.

O, Sue! exclaimed May with tearful eyes. O, May ! returned her sister, with stars in her own. According to the programme, the parted the carmine lips and disclosed The entire party began to gather teeth white and regular as pearls. baskets and shawls, for all thought of Yes, he responded with a smile pleasuring was over with them for that and his own lips curled with bitterness day, and soon the take was sleeping Yes la beaute du diable in its wonted quiet, and the ungather-

Ah ! what did you say ? questioned ed lilies floating upon its bosom to Fanny. You know I do not under- bloom and fade unthought of by the young folks whose day of happiness

I do. He said something about the had been so brief and with a tragedy beauty of his santanic highness. 1 for a closing, hope he was not speaking of me. inter-Poor Sue lay long upon a bed posed Belle Blanchard with her silliest torture. For many hours death brooded with its dark wings by her pillow. Then

I certainly did not mean you, re- fever wrung and racked her delicate turned the gentleman, and bowing, he frame, and dehrium proped the throad walked away, only in time to lunch and of reason and revealed amid wild fanafter which there was a general rush cies. She was ever gathering lilies but they were for May or Joe. Aren't you going, Sue? called out Poor Joe, she shudderingly whisper May, as the last skiff was being pushed ed : Poor Joe! he is dead. He fell into the water and was drowned. Here No. I don't fancy fishing, and the are the beautiful lilies I gathered to motion makes me dizzy. Bring me put upon his coffin, and her little, white hands would pluck at the bed clothes Fred Ellers, who had been spreadfor blossoms that she fancied were sur-ing shawls upon the scats of one of the ounding her. boats preparatory to handing in the One night being worn out, the famierratic young lady, sprang lightly again ly left her with watchers, and, as is of-

to the shore saying : ten the case, they slumbered at their I will deputize May to bring the with one of the many hallucinations. Please go, urged Sue. I will take She stole from her bed, and crept out ilies from no other hand. of the window into the street, and one Thank you, but I can fish them who had not slept for many nights, and with my cane. See that point of rocks and the white and yellow glories at its

She turned her eyes to the spot indicated; then, with an exclamation. she sprang lightly away, sped with the feet of the gazelle along the rugged path, and soon stood upon a cliff projecting out in the lake and overshadowing some of the most perfect blossoms she had ever seen.

O how shall we get them, she exclaimed. A'ter all, you cannot reach

1 see no way but to summon one - of the boats, and he acted upon his own suggestion. dear Joe because you are dead. At his shouting, Joe Parkson, who was rowing turned his boat immediatetoo deep for utterance and bore her ly, ly toward the couple on the rocks. back to the house, from which she had Sue has repented, said May, and wishes to be taken with us. been missed; and when he again placed Hardly from that attitude, suggested Joe bending to the oars. Sue was pointing at the lilies below, and either growing dizzy or from the slipping of a stone beneath her feet lake.

she fell over the rocks with a startled creed of a party thoroughly in earnest shall find scarcely one who has not his We can point you to no example tavorite word, his perpetual formula, more powerfully illustrating the great his automatic action, his unmeaning gesture-all tricks caught when young value of party organization and disciand, by being corrected then, next to pline, than the brilliant canvass to which we have alluded. Never since impossible to abolish. Who does not the "War" until then had the Demo know the familiar 'I say' as the preface cratic Conservative strength of the to every remark? and the still more State been fully marshalied, for not familiar 'You know,' as the middle before then had its sources and eleterm of every sentence? Who too in is given.

ments been so carefully canvassed and these latter times has not suffered actively brought into service. from the infliction of awful and jolly?-We take occasion at this early day. milestones in the path of speech, in terspersed with even uglier and more fellow citizens, to cantion you against obtrusive signs of foliy and corrupt the evil influence of Independent diction-milestones that are forever Gandidatare for office; and we returning up, showing the successive dis- spectfully and earnestly advise the distances to which good taste and true couragement of any effort, made by such means, to distract our counsels refinement liave receded in this hideous race after slang to which our youth or divide our strength.

In such a contest as the one in which we are soon to engage he is the Then there are people who perpeworst fee to the great principles of our trate ejaculations, who say 'Goodness !' ac a mark of surprise and 'Good graci- party, who can lend himself to so selous!' when surprise is a little mixed fish a method of weakening itse nergies with reprobation; lower in in the so- n its hour of trial and need. Let us cial scale it is 'Did you Ever !' and determine, at the outset, that the "Inindifferently to all stations. 'You idependent Candidate," who puts himdon't say so !' or in a voice of demeca- self in opposition to a regular nomition 'No !, and 'Surely not !' To judge nee of our party, shall, wherever he post. At the dead hour Sue was seized by voice and word, these ejaculatory may appear, 'in field or in covert.' bo people are always in a state of sur- treated as not of us, but against us, prise. They go through the world in and shall receive no comfort courage-unending astonishment, and the ap- ment or countenance from any true reals to their goodness and that indeprofessor or follower of our political who kept his restless vigil by pacing in terminate quantity called good graci- faith.

2590

sight of where the lamp of the watchers ous are incessant. The people of the colored race, who burned, found her. She came to him In the generation that died with the have so large a preponderance in numin her long white nightdress and her Fourth George the favorite ejaculations bers in this Congressional District have tender white feet bare to the hard and were 'By Jove !' and 'By George !' with had ample opportanies since theladrough pavement. For a moment he excursions into the regions of 'Gad !' vent of the Democratic party into believed her dead and this her spirit and 'By Jinggo!' Before then we power, to test the integrity of our mocoming to breathe farewell. had the bluff and lusty squires who re- tives, and the sincerity of our profes-Sue? O! my God, what can this joiced in 'Odsbodikins !' and Swounds ! sions. The most ignorant among this mean? Why are you here? he ex with other and uncouth oaths, that were race cannot but see and acknowledge claimed, with his blood almost freezing not meant to offend the hearers, but the zeal and unselfishness, with which were simply tricks of speech caught by our party has made such greatly inwithin his veins, as he looked into her eyes, her wild, haggard face and realspeakers. So, indeed, is the habit of creased provisions for its moral, mental ized the truth. swearing and using bad words gener- and material prosperity and progress.

Hush, Joel Come with me. I am ally. It is emphatically a habit, a Without soliciting their political algoing for lilies. They are for you trick of speech, meaning for the most liance, we leave it to their judgment, part no more than the 'Goodness!' to compare the records of the opposing He caught her in his arms in agony and 'Good gracious !' of the milder fol- parties in our State, to ascertain under whose rule they have found the most pratical, effective and judicious protec-

How many take a wrong view of life tion of their real interests: her upon the bed, around which, gath- and waste their energies and destroy This Congressional District has long ered the frightened attendants, she their nervous system in endeavoring to been the stronghold of our opponents. clung to him to save her as she was accumlate weath, without thinking of Can they not be destroyed? We besinking beneath the waters of the the present happiness they are throw- lieve that this is not only possible but ing away. It is not wealth or high probable, if we but put forth the proper With tender voice and calm hands station that makes a man happy .- exertions.

LIQUOR DEALER. cry of terror, which was echoed by he soothed her into forgetfulness, as Many of the most wretched brings on Discretion, zeal and, system might young people of Brookville started earmany voices as her white face and one would an infant, until slumber earth have both; but it is a radiant, accomplish even a more difficult under. DRY GOODS. No. 21 Roanoke Square, ly in the bright midsummer morning uplifted hands sank out of sight amid came and blotted out her wayward sunny spirit, which knows how to bear taking. GROCERIES, NORFOLK, Va RDWARE. HATS, SHOES, TINWARE, Orders promptly attended to and satisfac-tion guaranteed. Sep.14-12. Orders promptly attended to and satisfac-to pic-nic upon the banks of a lovely little island lake, to fish and gather dark water. HARDWARE. little trials, enjoy comforts, and thus I have the pleasure to report that fancies. Morning found her sane, but so weak extract happiness from every incident have just attended the meeting of our TINWARE, CROCKERY, AND pond lilies, and spend a pleasant day Joe will save her! shouted Fanny and spent that life hung trembling in in life. State Executive Committee and I trust in a wild and romantic place. that all our meetings during the com-L. W. VICK, for it was he who had instantly leaped the balance, and it seemed as though READY MADE CLOTHING Joe Parkson seemed to have accep- to her rescue. A friend asked of a pretty child of 6 ing campaign may be as harmonions. the breath of a zephyr would put out Thomas M. Argall, ted his dismissal very philosopically _ O! May has fainted | cried Belle. which I am determined to sell as cheap as the same quality of goods can be bought at any retail store in the State. the flickering light forever. Her wist years of age: "Which do you love The ball is in motion; keep it rolling But in that moment of surprise and ful glance passed from face to face in best your cat or your doll?" The little until rolls us up a solid and substantial and was in attendance upon the stylish MEN'S, YOUTHS' & BOYS' Belle Blanchard, while the elated Fred horror, all eyes were watching for the quest of the one that was dearest to girl thought some time before answer- majority, in August and November The attention of CASH BUYERS is especially invited, and if they will give me a triat CLOTHIN G Ellers was all devotion to Sue, who ap- appearance of Joe, who had dived in her while her lips framed the name ing, and then whispered in the ear of next. 1 guarantee to give them entire satisfaction in both price and quality. peared in the best spirits possible, and search of the lest one. And well was though no mortal ear could have beard. the questioner: 'I love my cat the Very respectively. -AT WHOLESALEbubbled over with fun and repartee; it for the drowning girl that, animated But when he knelt beside her couch best, but please don't tell my doll." A. J. GALLOWAT Call and examine my stock if you want good bargains. No. 33C Broadway, with such sparkles of wit, such keen re- by a love which burst anew within his with his face close to hers the smile that Chairman Democratic Executive Com-One door from Worth Street, theil another Battleboro, N. C. A man always feels put out when he NEW YORK plies to the bantering beaux, and such heart he had resolved to save, or perish illuminated it was born in Heaven, mittee, Second Congrebsional District a brilliantly beautiful face as she turn- with her; that, forgiving and forget- and she softly breathed the single has been taken in. of North Carolina. mch 1. -tf. mch 22.

