THINK LABORI WILL RECOVER

THE COUNSEL OF DREYFUS GETS BETTER—
BULLET YET IN HIM.

CLUE TO THE WHEREABOUTS OF THE ASSASSIN

Anarchists Hold Mercier And Others Personally
Responsible—Labori Shot As Result
Of a Deep Laid Plot.

Paris, August 15.—Maitre Labori still lives and he will probably recover. The latest bulletin of his temperature is 37.05 and he has no fever. His condition is stationary, but slightly improved in the past few hours.

Assailant Still Free.

Rennes, August 15.—Labori is somewhat better this morning. The doctors, however, are still unable to sound his wound. His assailant has not yet been arrested.

More Forgeries In Dossier.

Paris, August 15.—The Matin today makes the announcement that Labori, after being shot, declared as the outcome of the injury appeared to be doubtful, that he wished to make known the fact that M. Chamoin, who has charge of the secret documents in the Dreyfus case, has discovered a new forgery in the dossier.

The Anarchists Make Threats.

Clue To The Assassin.

The gendarmes were ordered to concentrate at Fouillard, north of Rennes and search the Mi Forest. A man by the name of Gallais has been arrested at Laval on the suspicion of his being the assassin.

Tried To Get The Wallet.

Rennes, August 15.—The condition of Labori is so improved that the physicians consider him out of danger. He lies back unable to move but life is returning to his leg believed to be paralyzed, and he has no fever.

He continues to discuss the trial. Corroboration of the statement that his pocket was rifled was obtained today, for an attempt was also made to steal the wallet containing important papers referring to the court martial, including his notes on the cross-examination of Mercier.

When he had fallen Labori saw one of the two men run to his side; one said "His coat must come off. He'll be too hot." The speaker then took off his coat and another seized the wallet. Labori refused to allow the wallet to be taken out of his hands, by putting it under his head. No effort was made to take his watch or money which is regarded as clear evidence of a plot in which several are implicated.

SAYS HE'S THE SON OF GOD.

Henry Debnam's Mind Gone and He Says
Strange Things.

Harry Debnam, a negro hack driver who went crazy here several days ago, was yesterday brought back from Auburn, whither he had wandered, and put in jail awaiting his admission into the asylum at Goldsboro. He imagines himself the son of God and thinks he is compelled to go about preaching the gospel. When arrested at Auburn he had been out in the storm all night and had lost everything except his Bible, a copy of the News & Observer and a short stick. He was very scantily clothed.

When he arrived here and was being taken to the jail he conceived the idea that he was about to be hung and he set up a mighty cry for mercy. When fresh clothes were taken to him he got solemnly down on his knees and prayed the Lord to hold the earth still for a few moments until he could put on his clothes.

He says the News & Observer is inspired and all men should read and follow it; that it is the next thing to the New Testament. All men, he says, ought to vote for the constitutional amendment.—News & Observer.
