SOUTHERN

J. F. KEENAN, EDITOR.

PRO PATRIA CMPER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

the period of five years, has been award-port Kentucky. The sum for which they contract to perform this wok is that the only mode he had of giving

by Sir John M'Neill ;

NO. 37.

VOL. 1.

18

Batter.

WILSON, NORTH CARDLINA, NOV. 15, 1856:

SOUTHERNSENTINEL. TERMS:

The SOUTHERN SENTINEL is published every Saturday morning, and sent to subser bers at the following rates:-

Clubs, who shall take live, sen, or more copies, To Job Printing will be done with neat-money must be addressed to the Ed.tor. RATES OF ADVERTISING.

do. 2 do. 1 50 1 do. 6 do. 7 00 do. 3 do. 2 00 1 do. 12 do. 12 00 Twelve lines or less make a square. Business and Professional Cards not exceed ing 5 lines will be inserted 1 year for $5 00. Court Orders and Judicial Advert sements will be obarged 25 per cent, higher than the above rates.

Advertisements must be marked with the number of insertions desired, or they will be merted until ordered out and charged accord-Ingly Aliberal discould will be made on longe

Advertisements by the year.

OCTOBER. BY H. P. L. AFTER Summer gained and spent, But Winter not vet won-Comes October, brave October, Hark! a bark and a gun. It's begun? Yes, begun.

Hurrah for bounds and horses; Blow the horn at break of day: To horse, and o'er the meadows, Ere the dew-drops fade away.

rugged as to defy our efforts to cross erals of the American Revolution, world declined listening to him, and when necessary, then hold the lip in the "Eh. Mr. Allen, did you Expound Degressing or mus Minansairre River, them, the truth seemed to burst upon Within a radius of one mile and a half, then, tired of life, the ryales spirit of left hand and perform with the file in Big Brindle, sirf" every one .- We had lost the feeling of hved, long and weary years, Charles Charles Lee fled to other balms. His the right. After the operation is perhunger, and were almost satisfied with Lee, the sinister hero of Monmouth; last words were-"Stand to me, brave formed and the teeth well cleansed, ing around at the company, saish our pasty broth and the large draughts Horatio Gates, the loser of the battle of grenadiers!" and so he did. of tea, which a companied it. I was Camden and the Southern campaign; A word now of the third day of my and in a short time your old poor horse cended the impanel of the impound, and anxious to send our small boat, the Eric, and Adam Stephen, the early friend of triad of warrious. Horatio Gates came will begin to thrive like a colt. across to the lumme hill at Appah, Washington. In this little village-on to the old house yonder after Camden. I have now practiced in this operation mimity of the forest." where I knew from the Esquimanx we whose golden forests I am gazing-under It was the Gates who had taken Bur- over twelve years, and have never heard. The company burst into an immoder The should find plenty of birds; but the bie terms, for Cash. Orders, in this line, are strength of the party was insufficient to solicited. The bie terms and remittances of drag her. The breath of leave and emittances of leave the should find plenty of birds; but the bie terms and despatch at this office, and on favora-bie terms, for Cash. Orders, in this line, are strength of the party was insufficient to the shadows of the great woods here— solicited. The breath of one five, the other six years after the "What do you mean by that, sir,"

"We ware sorely disheartened, and could only wait for the fog to rise, in the hope of some smoother platform than that which was about us, or some if I mist ke not, two of them died, and than that which was about us, or some if I mist ke not, two of them died, and than that which was about us, or some if I mist ke not, two of them died, and than that which was about us, or some if I mist ke not, two of them died, and the not mathed the office of the office office of the office of the office of the office office of the office of the office of the office office of the office off lead that might save us the painful labor soon even these lingering memorials of command of the army of the South, spirits, strength and constitution, and with an idea of the cholery, ripped and of tracking. I had climbed the iceberg ; them will crumble and disappear, as to make way for Greene-over his head many, contrary to the expectation of tared, snorted and passed dirt, jumped and there was nothing in view except their figures are fading from the general lowered a heavy cloud of public exe- their owners, have lived many years, the fence, tuck to the woods, and would cration almost ; and Congress, it was and been good, serviceable, easy k pt not be impounded no how." the Dairymple rock, with its red brassy mind ! face towering in the unknown distance. Lee's house is a hundred paces from said, had prepared its thunderboit to horses.

But I hardly got my boat before a gale the little assemblage of houses called by strike him. But the bolt never fell. Horse Shoes on a New Principle - roared again, in which the Colonel was struck us from the northwest, and a his name, and is an oblong brilding of The sad soldier's sorrow was respected. A Philadelphia mechanic has construct- forced to join, and in the mid-t of the floe, taking upon a tongue of ice about stone, with chimneys at each end and They left him to die in perce here- ed a horse shoe in such a manuer that laughter, Allen left the table, saying to a mile to the north of us, began to swing midway-low with a rude porch, de enough punishment that the magnifi- it requires no nails and can be put on by himself as he went, "I neckon the Col upon it like a pivot, and close slowly in pending, as it were, above the rough cent drama of the Revolution was any one without the aid of a blacksmith, olnel won't ask me to impound any

d-r in ordering his forces to retreat-and that this retreat very nearly turned

all the plans of Washington, and lost us door, and with few out houses. Gates played out, independent of one who had Attached to the shoe is a flange extend- more oxen." upon our narrow resting-place. "At first our own floe was also driven lived somewhat further from the town, enacted so splendid a part in the earlier ing around the hoof, and at the back of before the wind; but in a little while it in a plain, undecorated building; and acts.

encountered the stationary ice' at the Stephen occupied a mansion probably These three old wooden houses are horse's foot, is a joint, held in its place foot of the very rock itself. On the ic- built by the earliest pioneers of the visible remains of three vigorous lives by a screw, which allows the shoe to stant the widest imaginable ruin rose valley, in which everything is small and -in them to the musing eyekhe spirits open and close, so as to accommodate around us. The men sprang mechanical- confined but the fire-place. But that is of Gates, and Lee, and Stighen hover itself to the size of the hoof. Between ly each one to his station, bearing the bak neither small or confined. It is grand ground them still, speaking in every the hoof and the plate is placed a layer boats and stores : but I gave up for the -enormous! Around it how many whisper of the pine trees and the oaks- of gutta percha, for the purpose of premoment all hope of our escape. It was good companions must have gathered those ancient oaks of the addie, English- venting injury to the boof or leg of the not a nip, such as are familiar to Arctic in the olden day, and what sounds of looking "chase," which murgur yonder horse by concussion, while running over navigators; but the whole platform revelry shook the rafters overhead! beneath the window-through whose hard roads or streets. The mechanism where we stood, and for hudreds of yards You may read of Adam Stephen in lengthened vista appears the lone man- is very simple, and the cost much below on every side of us, crumbled and Sparks' edition of the Writings of Wash- sion of General Adam Sterhen. Here that of ordinary shoes, crushed and piled and tossed itself mad, jugton; and there you will find that within a gun-shot almost deach other, Training a Balky Horse,-In India ly under the pressure. I do not believe among the hardy gentlemen who stood these men of history repord--though when a horse becomes stubborn and that our little body of men, all of them shoulder to shoulder with the young not happily, we must conclude-after refuses to move, instead of whipping disciplined in trials, able to measure chief at Winchester, when the Indians their struggles. The current of the him, as is our custom, or setting fire to danger while combatting it-I do not ravaged the valley a hundred years ago, Opequon, resonant in old days with straw under his belly, as is practiced believe there is one who this day can was Licutenant Stephen. A large lan- savage shouts and dyed with blood, mur- in England, a rope is attached to his I do not believe that any of the befter next season. The production of sugar explain how or why-hardly when, in ded proprietor here-abouts, he doubtless mured by them; and perhaps spoke to foreleg, and one or two persons, go fact-we found ourselves afloat.- resented the trespass of the Indians their minds of other days-typifying ahead and pull at the rope. It is said We only know that in the midst of a upon his grounds, stretching towards human things which ever bid and flow; this will start the most refractory horse. clamor utterly indescribable, through the foot of the great North Mountain- and change like the skies of Autumn The Michigan Farmer says a horse which the braying of a thousand trumpets at least, we know that he did good ser- yonder-the gorgeous leases, whose became balky in Detroit a short time could no more have been heard than the vice. He was afterwards an effective colors vary with each day, since, and neither whipping nor coaxvoice of a man, were shaken and raised officer of the Revolutionary struggle, DRESSING THE TEETH OF OLD ing could make him stir. A rope was instened around the nork and he was and whirled and let down again in a but left the army about the period of the It has loug been observed that the ning or other-and so came baile, and swelling waste of broken hand and in the team, but this did not effect a cure. A . Late Dont-1 under jaw of old horses becomes thin in the stiffness that followed, the boats The rope was then taken from his neck, family." lived and died. and inclines to be more crooked or Of Gates and Lon more is known edded away in a tumuitous skreed of ice passed between his legs, fastened firmly curved, which causes the nippers or the story of me woful quarrel of the to his tail. In this manner he was and snow and water. latter with Washington at Monmouth, front teeth to came in contact before the "We were borne along in this mandrawn a short distance, and when the molars or grinders, and the nippers or on may read in full the third volume ner as long as the unbroken remnant of rope was taken off, the hitherto unruly incisors incline to protrude more and of Irving's great work. It is probable the in shore floe countinues revolving animal was perfectly obedient to th more out of the jaw, as he grows old. that history will finally show that Lee utterly powerless, are datehing a glimpwill of his master'. We have seen this This is the case with old horses just in was not so much in the wrong as the every now set then of the braz Thead method tried, with similar results. proportion as they are unable to mastiworld supposes. That he made a blun Farmer & Mechanic.

"Yes, I did ; but old Bringle trans-

you Born

SANT

the shoe, which lies over the frog of the KEEP UP WITH THE FASHION. vent to his feelings, was by kissing her serenaders to night ?"

she passed through the ward on her ting you go to such performances."

"Why, everybudy goes to hear them, THE SUGAR CANE .--- A letter from they sing such comic songs, and tell all Stillwater, in the Territory of Minnesota sorts of funny stories, you, can't help which we find published in the New laughing all the time. I do) wish you Orleans Delra, says that a gentleman of would let me go. the former city raised, during the past

The contract with the Government of Allen straightened himself, and look- the United States, through the Engine Bareau of the war Department, for open ing the Southwest I'ma and Pass a Pasts in the Mississing : ther, to a depth of twee gratterlophisticated all over the county fort and a width of three hundred feet, and to keep these channels clerr for

ed to Mesers, Craig and Righter, of News

three hundred and thirty thousand do Tax SHADOW ON THE PILLOW .- The following incident was Communicated

"A Highland soldier had his arm so se erely wounded that it was about to This was too much; the company be amputated when Miss Nightingsle equested the operation delayed, as abe thought that under careful nursing the arm might be preservel. By her unremitting care this was accomplished, and the poor soldier on being asked what he feit towards his preserver, said

"Ma, can I go "and hear the negro shadow when it fell on his pillow, as

"No, my dear, I cannot think of let nightly visit."

That's the way? Yes, the way.

Or, on flot among the sthibble, Watch your setter;--"Steady, stead Till a "whirt." makes you stir, And the quails find you're ready. Quite ready? Yes, ready.

Red and golden gleam the leaves, Hanging o'er the mountain brook Where the tront swim about, Till they swim on your hook. With a hook! Yes, a hook, is shining Through a Glorious nights, gorgeous nights, Wind up thes golden days, "In a blaze,-Yes, a blaze -It's Nature's crown of praise-For October. Exc.

SCENE IN THE ARCTIC OCEAN land dat looked down on us through the From Dr. Kaue's new work upon hi nowy sky. At last the floe brought an Arctic Expedition, we make the fallow agiast the rocks, the looser fragments ing extracts. It will be remembered that hang round it began to seperate that he stated a second time in search of and we were able by oars and boat books Sir Franklin, in November, 1852, and to force our battered little flotfilla clear for about three years it was not certain of them. To our joyfal supprise we that he was not lost himse'f. He has soon found ourselves in a stretch of the published an outline of his excursion, and we take the following interesting and-water wide enough to give us row jug room, and with the assured promisketches : of land close ahead.

The first is a scene with the moon and "As we neared it, we saw the sam sun both shining. The second is a deorbidden wall of belt ice as at Suther scription of one of the many exigencies hand and Hakiuvt. We pulled along of that most perilous adventureer :

its margin, seeking in vain either at "The moon is nearly fall, and the opening or access, or a rook of shelter. dawning sunlight mingling with hers, The gale rose, and the ice begin ; but invests everything with an atmosphere of, here was nothing to be done but get a ashy gray. It clothes the gnarled hills graphel out to the belt and hold ou for that make the horizon of our bay, shad. the rising tide. The Hope stove her ows out the terraces in dull definition bottom, and lost part of her weathergrows darker and colder as it sinks in boarding, and the boats were badly chaf the floods, and broods sad and dreary ed. It was an awful storm ; and it was upon the fidges and measureless plains not without constant exertion t at we of ice that make up the rest of our view. kept affoat, baling one the scud that Rising up above all this, and shading br ke over us, and warding off the ice down into it in strange combinations, is the intense moonlight, glittering on eve: with boat-hooks. ry crag and spire, branching the outline "At 3 o'clock the tide was hig!

causing the molars to perform the oper- Allen bowed and walked off, sorely necessarily attracting much attention and invented a patent point for cross ation of a cutting instead of grinding, puzzled to know what the Colonel among man of science and others, as eved peedles, of the background with contrasted lightenough for us to scale the ice chff. One morning and see him -- that he hoped ness, and printing its fantastic, on the by one we pulled up the boats upon narwhich causes the incisors to be worn off mean". to the causes of such extra relinary morall past contention and bitterness had snow-field. It is a landscape such as row shelf, the whole sixteen of us uniting been forgotten-he was coming to see on the two opposite corners, So after Col. W. left for town, he tal ty. at each juil. We were too much worn down to unload; but a deep and narrow film as an old comrade in arms-as a control of the state of t Some men live as if they were Milton or Daute might imagine-inorall their lives, to be be wealthy when ganic, desolate, and mysterious ! I have down to unload ; but a deep and narrow friend. come down from the deck with the feel gorge opened in the cliffs almost at the On the day fixed for the visit, Lee is necessary to perform the operation the ox. said to be living upon Bate's Island, Cat- A person of the name of Fish, having ings of a man who has looked upon a spot where we clambered up; and, as we sent away all his servants-placed upon successfully, as there is great danger of "Why," said she, the Col. meant to co Bay, on the coast of Maine, a woman made a short trip in a balloon, on comworld unfinished by the hand of its pushed the boats into it on an even keel, the locked front door a paper with "No loos-ning and damaging the teeth ever tell you to put him in a pen." of the most wonderful powers of hard- ing again on terra firma, was seized the rocks seemed to close above our meat cooked here to day," written there- after. If too short it injures their cutting Allen left to perform the fact, for it ibood. The Island contains about five with a swoon. A gentleman asking Creator." Here is a thrilling narrative in a dif-navine placed a protecting cliff between leaving Washington to knock in vain, the surface, it prevents cutting near the areat vein : ferent vein : "We fastened at last to the great floe us and the gale. We were completely He never returned, and with the passing ground. The operation should be per- after a great deal of trouble and veration some crop of potatoes and other vegeta- but a flat fish, who has been out of his near the shore, making our harbor in a encaved." year the eccentric soldier grew more formed by one skilled in the practice, he succeeded, bles yearly. The land never was plow- clement." morose and repelling. The ground by putting the horse loosely in the "Well," said he, wiping the perspira- ed, but has been thorongialy hoed over crack which opened with the change REVOLUTIONARY MEN AND RE- floor of his house was divided by chalk stocks, and placing a leather covered tion from his brow, and soliloquising, by her. The remaining portion she de- A TETTH.-The homeliest female in of the tide. lines merely, forming thus four com- roller in his mouth, wich straps attached "this is impounding, is it I Now I'm votes to raising hay of a very superior the world may render herself more at-"The imperfect diet of the party was MINISCENCES. A correspondent of the Petersburgh partments. In the first he kept his to each end, and buckled over his head, dead sure the old Col, will ask me if I quality, every crop of which she has tractive, by the exhibition of delicacy showing itself more and more in the decline of their muscular power. They Express, writing from "near Lectown, books-in the second was his bed-his This gag should be removed once in have impounded Big Brindle, and I mowed and cured with her own hand, and refinement, than the prettient vulseemed scarcely aware of it themselves, Jefferson county, Virginia," sends that saddles and hunting gear in the third; five minutes, to prevent cramping of the last I'll pozzle him as bad as he did The early part of the day she devotes to garian that ever smiled. and referred the difficulty they found paper an interesting letter, about Revo- the fourth was used for kitchen. He jaws. The file should be double fine, me." fishing, going through the breakers in a t in dragging and pushing to something, lutionary men and reminiscences, from could thus sit in one spot, he said with cut short and broad, with a thimble of The n-xt day the Colonel gave a fragile skiff, rowing single handed where A crocked gentleman, on his arrival uncommon about the ice or sludge, rath- which we make the following extract ;- grim humor, and overlook his entire leather over the end, to prevent wound+ dinner party, and as he was not aristo- many a strong man would quail and at bath, was asked by another, what er than to their own weakness -- In the immediate vicinity of the spot house hold. Tired of his dogs and his ing the gums. [There is a fine copper cratic, Allen, the overseer, sat down h sitate. The results of her day's fishe place be had travelled from? "I come But, as we endcavored to renew our from which I address you these lines, silent misanthropy at last he corn nenced rasp made expressly for this purpose.- with the company. After the second or ing she exchanges for money and gro- straight from London," replied 16. labors through the moveing fog, belted are the dilapidated and antique residen- his "Queries, Political and Military"- ED] The operator should have a ves- third class was discussed, the Colone! ceries, with dealers who visit the Island "Did you so !" said the other, "then you on all sides by ice fields so distorted and ces of three distinguish & Maior Gen- an attack on Washington. But the sel of water at hand to clean the file in turned to the overseer, and said, trom Portland. have been terribly worped by the way."

cate their food. Some are worse at fifteen than others at twenty: The coar ser the food paskes their bawels, the greater the evidence of this trouble.

In Nashville, many years ago there the battle-this is certain. But it was A proper digestive process depends resided a gentleman of great hospitality, night. We must keep up the fashion." $11,729,000, in Boston $3,000,000, and bob ddy an error of indoment-not a much upon proper mastication, and the large fortune, and though uneducated, want of courage. In Louiz's great amount of autrition depends upon an possessed of hard knot sense. Col. W. picture, he sits his horse sullenly before easy, thorough digestive process. And had been elected to the Legislature and the Chief, whose hot anger flames out the condition of the howds, blood, had also been judge of the county among the finny tribe in some of the -out-all that he did and said aftermuscle and external appearance, de- court. wards was sullen too, unfortunately.

BIG FRINDLE.

the Colonel's annovance.

pends upon a proper amount of nurris. His elevation, however, had made that during the past week, the shores of High words and haughty-Lee raging; tion, without taxing the power of the him somewhat pompons, and he became Grand River have been strewed with then a could martial-suspension for stomach to digest, with indigestible very foud of using big words. On his dead and dving flish of usus-ual size a year-and Lee, in utter disgust, matter, which carries off a portion of farm he had a large, mischievous ox. The same "epidemic prevails in the threw up his commission, and came the sustaining principle, for which the called "Big Brindle," which frequently Shinnase. This is the second time 'duhither "to hoe tobacco-that being the b st school for a General," he said, with system suffers. Old horses suffer in broke down his neighbor's fonces, and ring the present season the waters of this way much more than is generally committed other depredations, much to these streams have been thus scourged.

sneer at Washington. And here in this poor and obscure dwelling, as 1 apprehended. Many old, although good, sound horshave said, rusted out the sharp spirit of Lee, and fell into dust and oblivion.

With few neighbors-no friends ; surdeath, without knowing that most that now on their way to town, he called his offensive appearance, were piled in hesps rounded by hounds and horses, and ails them is their inability to musticate overseet, and said to him : making the chase his only occupation. their food sufficient to sustain them. "Mr. Allen, I desire you to impound current. Eats, suckes, and almost every inge," nearly; thus lived the General and The old horse is forced into a halt of Big Brindle, in order that I may hear species of seely and slimy monster, died. One day, long afterwards, says, eating on one side of the jaw, which is no more animadversions on his eternal shared a like fate. Now, however, the a tradition of the neighborhood, Wash done by the incisors passing each other, depredations," ington sent his old adversary a note, saying that he would call on a certain

"You must not urge me, Charley, for season, several angar cane from seed cannot throw away money on fellows planted in May, and that by the 15th of who go about disguised as negroes sing- September they were ten feet high, and ing silly songs that have no good ten- quite ripe. Another person near dency, and telling silly stories that are Winona, Minnesota succeeded as well not calculated to improve the mind, but with a full acro of ingar cane, and inrather to do hurt. And more than that, tends to experiment on a large scale class of society visit the concerts." in Minnesota would show it ro be a crop "Indeed, ma, then you are grandly capable of successfaf cultivation in any mis aken, for I heard Judge Brown's part of the Union. The fact might be boy's say they were there with their treated as a hoax, but that it is chronichfather and sisters, and I saw Mr. Jones, od in aMinneseta newspaper; as well as my Sabbath school teacher, go in last in the Delta corre-pondence. evening ; and I way in the store to-day steere aney sell nickey the Brook street Church came in and Norwood of Grandville, N. C. murderpurchased three or four to take to his ed their maffer last week by pouring a "Are you sure about what you tell me, throat. Charley ?"

"Yes, Ma; and Mr, Smith remarked when he sold the tickets that the con- Georgia and South Carolina, and the certs were attended by very fashionable territory of Nebraska, have their thankaaudiences,"

"Well, that alters the case some ; you tech other States. may go, and tell your sister Angelica to dress for the concert ; and I will accome pany you ; I believe there is nothing ury, subject to draft, is upwards of $24,but a prayer meeting at our church to

EPIDEMIC AMONG FISH .-- A carious phenomenon has just exhibited itself rivers of Michigan. It is announced

A few months ago every form of creep-One morning, after breakfast, in pres- ing thing known to that country was es, become poor, dull, rough and weak, ence of some large gentlemen who had cast dead upon the bonks, in great numand are thrown away or worked to staid with him over the night, and were hers, Lizards of chormous size and disease, or whatever it may be called, is to sew the rent of house, has gone West,

The manuter of Two slaves belonging to Lewis B large pot of boiling water down his THANKSCIVING DAY .--- The States of giving day on the 20th inst., with four-

The nett amount in the U.S. Treas-000,000, of which there is in New York in Charlotte, North Carolinn, over $1, 750,900.

clerk asking a sea sick presidinger, if he is anxious for a return ticket !- Punch,

TENDER FOREIMOTIC.-Devoted wife Oh, what a beautiful monument! Wouldnt' you like to have such a one as that, dear f

RATHER GRAPHIC .- A Boston topper speaking of one of its commercial representatives of the city, says: "He las taken in a ton or two of self-consequence at every port at which he has happelled to touch, and started overheard modesty where they were thrown by the eddying and scruples to make way for its stow-

The chap who took the thread of life