Fair-Vanderbilt.

New York, April 4.—Youth and beauty, with millions of money, were joined together in holy matrimony at noon today, when Virginia Fair became the bride of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. About one hundred and fifty guests were present at the ceremony, which took place at the Fifty seventh street residence of Herman Oelrichs, whose wife is the sister of the bride.
The house was surrounded by a curious and mixed crowd.

Shortly before noon the guests commenced to arrive at the Oelrichs house. The Rev. Thomas F. Murphy, acting pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, at Dobbs' Ferry, was on hand early, accompanied by two acolytes. The conservatory and ball room had been transformed into the semblance of an old English garden.

Almost promptly at noon, the maid of honor, Miss Mary Baldwin Telfree, entered the ball room and under an aisle arched with roses walked toward the waiting priest. She preceded the bride, Miss Fair. Following her was her brother-in-law Mr. Oelrichs. The organ, especially built for the purpose, pealed out. The groom was attended by J. P. Kellogg. In the gallery an orchestra of fifty pieces, under Emil Paur, played the nuptial music from Lohengrin.

The wedding party was then ushered into the library, and at long tables sat down to a wedding breakfast.

When the breakfast was over the bride changed into her traveling dress, and the young Vanderbilts drove off in a brand new brougham, a present to the groom, to the river.
They crossed to the Long Island Railroad depot, and there entered a special car, which bore them to Mr.
Vanderbilt's country place, Idlehour, Oakdale, L. I.

Discontent of Porto Ricans.

San Juan de Porto Rico, April 5.— Although there is not at present any danger of serious disturbance, there is considerable dissatisfaction among the lower class natives throughout the island, and there has been a good deal of violent talk by the ignorant against the new regime. The chief cause of this anti-American feeling is the increase in the cost of living since the American occupation began, and the ill-treatment that many of the natives in the country districts have received at the hands of rough soldiers.

Dissatisfaction is also expressed at the delay in making the island a part or a territory of the United States, with privileges and advantages that would accrue to the island from such a relation, especially in the matter of trade. This the Porto Ricans were undoubtedly led to believe would be the result of the acquisition of Porto Rico by the United States. But, as things have turned out, the prices of all kinds of commodities have advanced considerably, and the cost of living is very much higher now than it was in the days of Spanish dominion. The merchant, moreover, is uncertain as to what customs duties he will have to pay, and he does not care to order more than is actually necessary. Nor is the agriculturalist in a mood to extend his cultivation until he can be assured of a safe market for his products.

Everybody is getting along with the least possible expenditure, and there is undoubtedly much misery and discomfort. Many who are without employment are lying hungry about the towns and they constitute the material which mischief-makers use in working up irritation against the Americans.

The conduct of the United States troops in Ponce, Caguas and other places has aroused many of the natives to defend themselves, and in some encounters the soldiers have come off second best. These collisions are probably the basis of statements made in the United States which represent the Porto Ricans as strongly inclined to start a revolution. The fact is that a little more courtesy in dealing with them would not only have a wonderfully quieting influence, but would greatly facilitate the settlement of other questions pressing for solution.

The Snow.

Charlotte, N. C., April 4.—The April snow squall struck Charlotte at 8:30 o'clock this morning and prevailed off and on until 2:30 in the afternoon.
The weather to-night is cold, but damp, to a degree that there is no danger of frost. That being the case, fruit and truck are comparatively safe. The cold snap, however, had added to the troubles of the farmers, who are already weeks behind in their work.

Columbia, S. C., April 4.—A special to the State from Chester, about fifty miles north of this city, says:

"It snowed here this morning for about an hour, and is very cold and and disagreeable here to-night."

The temperature in Columbia today shows a mean of 41, accompanied by stiff winds. The cold wave seems to be general in the State and about ends the chances of early fruit and vegetables.

Norfolk, Va., April 4.—It began snowing heavily here at 11 o'clock a. m., today and continued until 4 p. m., when it was succeeded by rain.
The Dennis Construction Company was to have broken ground today for the new electric street railway from this city to Sewell's Point, where piers and a fine hotel will be erected, but the weather prevented. It is very cold here to-night.

Danville, Va., April 4.—Snow fell from daylight till nearly noon today in this city and vicinity. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the downpour was as heavy as any experienced here this winter and reached a depth of about 3 inches. The moist ground and humidity of the soft fleecy flakes resulted in the rapid disappearance of the post easter refuse.

Filipinos Still Active

Manila, April 4.—General Mac-Arthur reconnoitered in force this morning with the Montana regiment, the Fourth cavalry, and two guns of the light artillery, as far as the river north of Malolos. The reconnoissance developed the fact that there are fully one thousand rebels, armed with Mauser rifles, preparing for defence.
Shots were exchanged and two members of the Montana regiment were wounded, but there was no engagement.

Later in the day General Mac-Arthur moved northward, as the water supply of Malolos was inadequate.

The belief is spreading among the residents here that the effect of the capture of Malolos, the former rebel capital, followed by the proclamation of the Philippine Commission, will be to convince the natives that Aguinaldo's bubble has burst.

Manila, April 5, 9:35 A. M.—The insurgents are massing strong forces north of Calumpit, about five and a half miles northwest of Malolos, and according to the observations of the reconnoitering parties they have fine entrenchments there. It is expected that hard fighting is necessary to dislodge them at that point and at San Fernando, where Aguinaldo is supposed to be. Large rivers strengthen both positions.

The Montana regiment had one man killed and three wounded yesterday. Twenty-five men were prostrated by the heat and brought to the hospital.

The new Krupp guns, one 6 inch and the other 8 inch, which were buried at Malolos, though secured late, will be mounted.

The Americans have also found 27, 000 silver dollars.

Women Elected.

Battle, Kas. April 5.—In the city election here two tickets were in the field, one composed of women and the other of men. Mrs. Charles Totten was elected mayor, and Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Schlicht, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Kir-lin and Mrs. Watkins for council, while Miss O'Neill, for clerk, won easily.

The women drove their own carriages all through a blinding snow storm, carrying voters to the polls.

The police, judge and marshal are men.

Murder and Suicide

Falls Church, Va., April 4.—The dead bodies of Weston B. Turner and his wife, a well-to-do couple, each about sixty years old, who made their home at this place, were discovered here today. Turner evidently had shot his wife while she was asleep and then put another bullet through his own head. A paper of March 23rd giving an account of a suicide in Washington that day and other evidence, indicated that the tragedy occurred the night of the 23rd. The couple frequently visited Washington and it was not until their absence became prolonged that the house was broken into and the dead bodies found. Turner had been in ill health and quite melancholy was an inspiration of the moment. Turner left an estate worth about $50,000.

Stuck to the Ship.

Norfolk, Va., April 5.—The steamer Seaboard, of Philadelphia, which sailed from New York for Mobile Monday last, but in here in distress shortly after noon today. A great hole was stove in her above the water line. She was towing astern a swamped lifeboat, and everything aboard gave evidence of the storm and stress which she passed through. The storm was so threatening at one time that the crew determined to abandon her, but the lifeboat which was launched soon filled and sank. The crew feared to attempt to escape in the other boats, and then decided to stick to the steamer, and managed finally to bring her into port.

With Military Honors.

Washington, April 3.—The unexpected bodies of the American soldiers and sailors who died in Cuba and Porto Rico, which were brought to this country in the transport Cook, will be buried Thursday at the National Cemetery at Arlington with fitting military honors. The President today issued an executive order which directs:

"That upon the arrival of the cortege at the National Cemetery at Arlington, all proper military and naval honors be paid to the dead heroes; that suitable ceremonies shall attend their interment; that the customary salute of mourning be fired at the cemetery, and that on the same day at 2 o'clock p. m.
Thursday the sixth day of April, the national ensign be displayed at half staff on all public buildings, forts, camps and public vessels of the United States; and that at 12 o'clock noon on said day, all the departments of the Government at Washington shall be closed."

In the same connection Acting Secretary of War Meiklejohn issued this order:

"The remains of officers and soldiers who lost their lives in the war with Spain during the operations in Cuba and Porto Rico will be interred with due and fitting ceremony, in the national cemetery at Arlington, Virginia, on Thursday, April 6th, at 2 o'clock p. m. By the direction of the President, all of the United States troops serving in the vicinity of Washington, together with the national guard of the District of Columbia, will be assembled at Arlington on the date in question to participate in the funeral ceremonies."

Chillicothe, Mo., April 6.—Twenty-five inmates of the States Industrial Home for Incurable Girls, in this city, made a break for liberty today, armed with butcher knives and other weapons. They drove back the guards, but were finally run down and captured by the police after a long chase.

Pensacola, Fla., April 5.—A Mr.
Smith and his wife, recent arrivals from the north were burned to death in their house last night near Harper's station, ten miles from this city. Their bodies were found today. Sheriff Mitchell, County Judge Holley and the coroner's jury from Moultrie, in Santa Rosa county, left immediately for the scene.

STATE NEWS.

The President has appointed Colonel Adbelert I. Buffington to be brigadier general and chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, to succeed the late General Flagler.

The casualties in the Philippines from February 4th to April, inclusive, are reported to the adjutant general as follows. Killed 184; wounded 976.
Total 1,160.

Wilkes has the champion destroyer of "moonshine" distilleries in the world. He is "Uncle" Abe Bryan. He tells us that he has assisted in cutting up over 2,000 coppers of the "moonshine" brand, and he is still in the business.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

Mr. Greek O. Andrews, a prominent newspaper man of the state, recently connected with The Raleigh Morning Post, has accepted the clerkship of The Havana (Cuba) Herald, and left Saturday night for Havana to assume his duties.—Greensboro Telegram.

Newberne has quarantined against Kinston, Goldsboro and all places where there is small pox, and persons can't go to or pass through Newberne without health certificates. Ticket agents have been instructed not to sell tickets to Newberne unless a health certificate is shown.—News & Observer.

Snow Hill had a serious fire Sunday morning. The Potter building in the centre of the business part of the town was burned, and the whole business section was in danger. The loss is about $7,000. The fire began as the result of a cigar stump thrown in some trash.

Miss Louise Shipman, of Salem, Va., who has been in Charlotte for some time under treatment for her eyes, received information yesterday of the death in Washington, D. C., of an uncle. The letter also contained the information that the division of his will left her $20,000 in cash and $15,000 in real estate.

The Randolph Chair Works, with a capital stock of $6,000 or more, is a new enterprise for Asheboro. The concern will be in operation soon.— Lindwood postoffice was burned Saturday morning about 4 o'clock. The building in which the office was located was occupied by Mr. Irvin Lopp, the postmaster, who carried a small stock of groceries, etc. All the mail, postoffice fixtures, etc., was burned. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin.—Lexington Dispatch.

A man named L. H. Williams, living at Jacksonville, N. C., committed suicide on Sunday, by drowning himself in the mill pond. He has often served at Onslow courts as crier. The reason of his suicide is not known.— Late Saturday evening, while Wiley Rogers, a young white man about 20 years old was out rabbit hunting near Dover, his gun discharged, the shot entering his right lung. Dr. J. D.
Duguid went to young Rogers home which is about four miles from Dover, on Sunday and gave him such medical aid as he could, but Rogers died Monday.—Newbern Journal.

Mr. John B. Kenney who has just returned from a business trip, reports that Salisbury is much excited over the rich finds of copper, twelve miles from that place. A large number of hands are already employed, getting out the ore, and several companies are said to have been formed to work the mines.—The wind storms of last week are said to be responsible for the appearance in our midst of a number of strange birds that usually do not inhabit this section. Several woodcock have been caught within the city limits in the past few days. Other birds just as rare have been seen about the city for the past few days.—Charlotte News.

New York, April 4.—Warren F. Leland, proprietor of the Windsor Hotel, which was destroyed by fire on March 17th, died at 5:54 o'clock this afternoon at the Hotel Grenoble.
Mr. Leland's death followed an operation for appendicitis, performed on Friday last.
