TROOPS TO PRE-VENT LYNCHING

Atlanta, Ga., June 27 .- Acting on orders from Governor Brown two companies of the state militia started ear ly today for the western part of Ocilla county, where W. H. Botswick, barricaded in his home with six children yesterday shot and killed two officers and wounded three others. He was wanted for a misdemeanor and shot the men when they went to arrest him. The officers then appeal to the state authorities. It is feared that if Bo wick falls into the hands of the mob that surrounds his house he will be lynched.

Later.-Bostwick was shot and killed by the militia this morning, but not until after he had killed another officer, making three that he killed. When sent his children from the house and then defied the troops, saying he would not be taken. They drew his fire and then fired on him killing him instantly.

Cotton Report Next Friday.

New Orleans, La., June 27 .- The chief event in the cotton market this week will be the report of the crop condition by the department of agriculture . This report will take the crop John Wemyss, who on Wednesday down to June 25, and will be issued shot herself-is to the effect that she on Friday July 1.

Following it will be triple holidays in all of the future markets and therefore, indications are that this week will be none too lively, and that operations Friday will be more of an evening-up sort than anything in the way of new undertakings. Up to Friday trade will be probable hesitate about increasing their lines.

The three-day recess is due to the Fourth of July, which Liverpool is also observing, because that market does not want to be the target for openings here after a long holiday.

The weather of this week will have no effect at all on the coming condition report, as the report will be based on replies from the cotton country under date of June 25. Because of this the weather while it will be of importance, may not have its uual effect on values.

Cathedral Abbey for North Carolina

North Carolina-Tennessee Boundary

Dispute.

Asheville, June 25 .- The hearing in the suit in the United States supreme court involving the boundary line between North Carolina and Tennessee which began at Murphy last Monday has been concluded and the next taking of testimony will take place at Asheville July 6. Following this there will be hearings in Knoxville and perhaps one or two other Tennessee places. The section involved in the suit is in the extreme western part of the state, being the lines of Cherokee and Graham counties in this state.

Of such importance was this litigation that the United States supreme court granted an order allowing North three hits. ' Carolina to bring an original bill of complaint in the supreme court and will be submitted to the court and argument had. North Carolina alleges that Tennessee has several thousand pires, Henderson and Davis. acres of land which should under certain surveys belong to North Caro-

In a Serious Condition. Rocky Mount Record.

A report of the condition of Mrs. is in a most serious condition and physicians entertain little hope for her recovery. Yesterday afternoon operation was performed and her condition is considered a little more hopeful. It was erroneously stated on Wednesday that Mrs. Wemyss was taken to the Wilson Sanatorium. She is at present in the Atlantic Coast Line relief hospital at Rocky Mount where she was taken Wednesday morning.

Cotton Letter.

New York, June 27.-Reports of showers in Texas and indications of more, failed to stimulate activity in tthe common market. Prices showed a tendency to recede, but the market was narrow and dull, the trade being inclined to await further advices from Texas and Oklahoma, before making new commitments. A UNIQUE SETTLEMENT

Huntley, millionaire banker and bonanza wheat rancher of Spokane, who laid the foundation of his fortune with a team of Missouri mules, and his wife, formerly Emma V. Langford then an acknowledged belle of Audrain county, Missiouri, have just entered into an unique settlement and agreement for handling their community property, following Mrs. Huntley's application in the Spokane county superior court for a divorce, charging that Huntley was "close" in money matters with his wife and family.

Huntley will be manager under contract for 20 years at a salary, including office expenses, not to exceed $3, 000 a year, of the Huntley Investment company, capitalized for $1,200,000 and incorporated in the state of Washington and Spokane county. The life of the corporation is 50 years. One hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock will be issued to Huntley, the same amount to Mrs. Huntley and to each of their ten children. Provisions are made against the division distribution or dissolution of the es-Huntley, Jesse B. Huntley, the eldest son, and Edwin T. Coman, president of the Exchange National Ba

The revenue from the property, which includes stocks in banks, farms, irrigation plants and mercantile establishments, is to be divided into 12 equal parts, with the special provision that Mrs. Huntley's income shall not be less than $300 a month for herself and $1,00 a year for each of the seven minor children, of which she will have custody. The three adult children will receive one-twelfth of the earnings. It is also provided that the company shall purchase a residence in Spokane for Mrs. Huntley at a cost not to exceed $10,000 to be used by her during her lifetime.

The corporation agrees to pay all the debts and assume all the liabilities of the community now outstanding. In the case of death of either of the principals or any of the children during the period of the 20-year pooling agreement, the trust agreement shall remain undisturbed, the husband or wife to have the individual agreement shall remain undisturbed, the husband or wife to have the individual privilege of disposing of their respective interests subject to that agreement, the interests of any child leaving a direct descendant or descendants pasing to such issue. In the event of a child dying and leav ing no issue the stock set aside will become the property of the corporation to be shared by the remaining

CHOLERA PLAGUE IS IN RUSSIA

Spokane, Wash., June 27.-William | 000 and 6,000 persons already stricken and 40 per cent. of the cases proving fatal and the scourage sweeping over the land like wild fire Southern Russia is confronted by a cholera plague that reveals in horror frightful visitations that periodically declimated Europe centuries ago. General demoralization makes accurate statistics as to the spread of the disease impossible. Last week 1,800 fresh cases were reported and the authorities declare that this can be but a fraction of the total. The government is doing all in its power to check the disease, but so far all efforts have proven futile.

VERNON BYNUM ELECTROCUTED

Raleigh, N. C., June 27 .- This morning about 8:30 o'clock Mr. Vernon Bynum, a native of Wilson, but who lately has been residing in Raleigh, where he held a position with the electric company there, was electrocuted at the top of an electric light pole. Mr. Bynum died at about 11 o'clock from the shock and burns re-

Physicians were summoned, but it was evident that there was no hope for the young man, and he lived only a few hours.

Mr. Bynum was unmarried. He leaves surviving his father, Mr. W. T. Bynum, three sisters, Mrs. Joe Best, Mrs. Charles Best, and Miss Mildred, three brothers, Messrs. Floyd, Allen and James Bynum.

The remains will be brought here tonight from Raleigh and the funeral conducted tomorrow.

Raleigh, N. C., June 27.-Vernon Bynum, a lineman, working on the city fire alarm system, received 2,300 electric volts for five minutes this morning. He still shows signs of life and doctors are working over him faithfully, but have little hope of success. He is from Wilson and has been here about a week. He was at the top of a high pole when those ground heard him cry out. He was found to be in contact with a high voltage wire belonging to the local power company. It was five minutes before the current could be cut off. It is not known how the wire came to be exposed.
