ONCE MEXICAN TROUBLES AGAIN MATTERS UP YESTERDAY TAFT ACTS AT

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4 .- The ex planation of the action of the Amer: can naval forces in landing at Puert Cortez in Honduras and in undertak ing to intervene between the govern ment forces and the insurrectionists with a view to bringing about a settlement of the difficulty in that country without further bloodshed, was had yesterday when the State Department made public the text of a telegram exchanged between President Taft and President Davilla, of Honduras, within the past six days.

From this telegraphic correspond ence it appears that in seeking to restore peace between the warring fac tions in Honduras, President Taft is simply conforming to the earnest wish of President Davilla, who telegraphed him last Sunday as follows:

Davilla's Telegram to Taft. "The government of Honduras is resolved to approve the loan convention. For this, suspension of hostilities is necessary in order to pre vent the useless shedding of blood If your excellency can lend your val orous intervention to the end that the war may cease, the people and

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4 .- The acute revolutionary situation along the Northern border of Mexico today moved the American government to rush twelve additional troops of caval ry to the frontier to preserve the neutrality of the United States. The American military forces will prevent nct only the movement of revolution ary bands from this country into Mexico, but also will prohibit the de feated rebels with arms from seek ing refuge on the territory of the United States.

This action was based upon strong representations from the Mexican government to the effect that armed bands of revolutionaries have been entering Mexico at isolated places along the Southern boundary of the United States. Furthermore, it was declared, the revolutionists have day. crossed the Rio Grande from Mexico, entering the United States for the purpose of making their way undisturbed through American territory and then re-entering Mexican for the purpose of fighting against the Federals. In reply to the protests of Mexico, the United States Govern ment has assured that country that
