By C. B. MARSHALL.

Every person has heard that old saying, "Where there's a will there's a way." The lady who means to win one of those prizes offered by The Times not only realizes the truth thereof, but are putting it into practice, and any lady who will take the full meaning of this precept and will act on it cannot help but win.

After this contest is over there will be the usual number of "I told you so!" It is always easy to tell the result of any election after it is all over—to explain why so-and-so was defeated. See to it that you will have nothing of this kind to reproach yourself with at the finish. Put forth every endeavor and tell your friends how much their help will add to your chances of success and what a bitter disappointment it will be to you not to win one of these prizes—and don't overlook the special 500,000 ballot that we are offering for the coming week.

Important.

Votes issued on all subscriptions coming to the contest department during the remainder of the contest will be dropped in the ballot box and printed to the credit of the candidate for whom they are requested for, unless we have instructions to make them out and send them to the contestant.

Don't Overlook Anybody.

A number of subscriptions are being overlooked each day because the candidates show timidity in approaching a person for their subscription who are high in their profession and on this account you are a little nervous. Your request will be met with courtesy at least, and in the majority of the cases the person that you approach will gladly help you and they may become so interested in your race that they will suggest places where other subscriptions may be secured. Do not be discouraged because some one in your district appears to have a great number of votes. Be determined and do not let a lot of false rumors have any influence over you, and your turn to lead will soon come.

Perhaps your friends have not as quickly caught the spirit of the affair as have the friends of the other contestants, but they will if you persist, and when they do your score will shoot skyward, too. Perhaps you have not asked your friends to help you. If not do so at once. Do not be afraid to ask for votes and subscriptions.

Show your friends that you are thoroughly aroused and intend to win, and they will help you get busy and pull your score up amongst the leaders. Be a leader in your division if you possibly can. The prestige such a position gives you arouses the interest of those who are watching your progress. Once you get your friends interested in your welfare there is no ending of surprising developments. Your friends will win the auto for you if you impress on them just what the delightful pleasure this means to you.

Don't hesitate to call on the contest manager for any information that you may desire, as he is only too willing to give it to you.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

High Point, April 27.—A preliminary session of the North Carolina State Sunday School Association Convention was held here yesterday afternoon, a large audience being present. After song and devotional service, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butler, F. N. Tate, mayor of the city, delivered the address of welcome, saying that he spoke for every citizen of the town.

E. S. W. Damerson, of Burlington, delivered the response. He represented the Sunday school as an important ally to the church in the State and in the home, one object being to place the bible in the hand of every man, woman and child in the State. Rev. R. M. Andrews, of Henderson, followed with the annual address as president. His subject was "The Value of a Vision," showing the importance of vision in attainment to a better and higher life. He showed that transferring the power of vision, which expels evil, developed good manhood and womanhood. Vision necessarily lifts up humanity above the things that discourage.

Rev. C. W. Byrd, of Asheville, was the speaker of the evening session.

WANTS SEN- ATE ABOLISHED

BERGER, SOCIALIST MEMBER OF CONGRESS, OFFERS RESOLUTION TO THAT EFFECT

USELESS, OBSTRUCTIVE

Washington, April 27.—Declaring that the United States Senate has run its course, Representative Victor Berger, the Socialist member of the House, introduced a resolution today calling for the abolition of the upper branch of Congress. The resolution says that the Senate has become a useless and obstructive body, a menace to the liberties of the people and an obstacle to social growth. Many of its members, he says, are representatives, not of the State or the people, but of certain predatory combinations.

PULLMAN BURNED ONE DEAD AT ROCKY MOUNT

Rocky Mount, N. C., April 27.—One passenger was suffocated to death and two trainmen were badly hurt when fire destroyed a Pullman car on the Palmetto Limited, north-bound train of the Atlantic Coast Line here today.

The dead man is J. Drobstein, a travelling salesman of New York City.

The injured were: Flagman B. C. Russ and Mail Clerk W. E. Ireland.

The fire started when the flagman approached a leaking gas tank with a lighted lantern. The resultant explosion injured Ross and ignited the car.

Ireland was burned in helping ten other passengers from the car.

Several firemen sent to the scene were overcome but not seriously injured.

BIG FIRE AT BUFFALO TODAY

Buffalo, N. Y., April 27.—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars damage resulted from a fire which practically destroyed the plant of the Buffalo Gas Company at 96 and 98 Seneca street, early today. The loss was first estimated at one million, but was later found that most of the stock could be salvaged.

MAY TAKE FIGHT TO THE SENATE FLOOR

Washington, April 27.—Dissatisfied with the action of the committee on committees yesterday in the manner of appointments to Senate committees and the action of the caucus which followed, and which endorsed the assignments made by Senator Gallinger, the insurgent Senators today held a secret conference to decide whether or not to take their protests to the floor of the Senate.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—Senator La Follette and Senator Cummins may carry the dispute over the Republican committee assignments to the floor of the Senate.

The demands of Senator La Follette to be made a member of the Committee on Interstate Commerce, and of Senator Cummins to go on Finance, constitute the rock upon which the Senate Committee on Committee has split. Their demands have been flatly refused.

WILL HAVE QUICK TRIAL

ALLEGED DYNAMITERS OF LOS ANGELES TIMEF LANDED IN JAIL

MCNAMARA RECOGNIZED

Los Angeles, April 27.—All arrangements for the speedy arraignment and trial of J. J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the Structural Iron Workers, his brother James, and Ortie McManigal are completed by Prosecuting Attorney John D. Fredericks.

Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll, of San Francisco, who will testify during the trial that James McNamara stopped at her rooming house under the name of James Bryce, called upon the prosecuting attorney yesterday and held a long conference with that official. Prosecuting Attorney Fredericks promises a fair and impartial trial to the accused men.

"We have no quarrel with organized labor, and we only want to see justice done," said the prosecutor. "Let all suspend judgment until the men have had a fair trial under the laws of the United States. We only seek to punish those who have committed crime, and none others need fear."

Los Angeles, Cal., April 27.—John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers Association; his brother, James L. McNamara and Ortie E. McManigal, accused of activity in or knowledge of the blowing up of The Times newspaper plant last October, when 21 men were killed, are in the Los Angeles jail. They are in separate cells, surrounded by extra guards.

All three are charged with murder.

Los Angeles, April 27.—The arrival here in irons of McNamara and his associates from Indianapolis and Chicago, signalizes the beginning of a desperate legal struggle. Thus far, however, no definite arrangements have been made for their defense. District Attorney John D. Fredericks, who said that the State was ready to go to trial at once, announced that the formality of arraignment would now await the convenience of the defense.

The alleged conspirators arrived at the jail from Pasadena in automobiles after running through two crowds, which, in their eagerness to get a glimpse of the prisoners, bore down more than a score of detectives and deputy sheriffs.

As James McNamara entered an automobile to be taken to jail he was seen by Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll, a San Francisco boarding house keeper with whom J. B. Bryce stayed before the explosion.

James McNamara, according to the detectives, is held as Bryce, the man alleged to have laid the infernal machines that blew up the newspaper plant. Mrs. Ingersoll peered into the face of McNamara as he entered the machine. The man was shackled to an officer, but he kept his hand before his face. In spite of this, Mrs. Ingersoll declared afterward that he was Bryce.

Wreck On B. & O. To-Day.

Parkersburg, W. Va., April 27.—A passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad crowded with people coming into Parkersburg to witness a circus production today, was wrecked near Petroleum, 20 miles away.

The engineer is reported killed and a number of passengers injured.

A special train carrying physicians and nurses was despatched to the scene.

CONTEST CLOSES MAY 5TH AT LYCEUM THEATRE

JUDGES' NAMES WILL BE ANNOUNCED MONDAY—RULES OF THE CLOSE OF THE CONTEST ANNOUNCED.

The last night of the contest has been changed from Saturday, May 6th, to Friday evening, the 5th, and all the subscriptions that are sent into the office by mail will not be counted unless they arrive at this office before 5 o'clock on May 5th. Checks will not be taken unless they are certified the last day of the contest. So be sure that you have the cashier O. K. all the checks that you have to turn in.

It has been arranged to hold the close of the contest in the Lyceum Theatre, where an entertainment will be in vogue for the contestants and their friends who have come to see the close. Tickets will be mailed to all the contestants in a few days, which they can give to their friends, as no person will be admitted that does not have a ticket.

To all those who through curiosity wish to see the close an admission of 25c. will be charged, the proceeds of the sales from these tickets will be turned over to the Board of Charities.

The voting for the contest will close at The Times office at 6:15 on Friday night, when the contest department will move to the theatre, where he will receive all votes in back of the stage. The office there will be open from 7:15 until the close of the contest.

Immediately after the close of the contest, the judges will commence their work of counting the votes. This will be done on the stage in full view of everybody present and will be conducted under the supervision of the contest manager, thus assuring the contestants that everything will be done in an open way so that every person will see for themselves that no unfair means will be employed.

It is earnestly requested that all the contestants and her friends will be present the last night to receive the prizes at the close of the contest.

The Judges.

It is very important that every contestant that is active in the contest send in the names of the judges that they wish to have the last as soon as possible, as the management of the paper will make their selection from this number on next Monday.

Rules of The Contest.

The management can throw out any name entered as a candidate for cause.

Any question which may come up before the contest manager will be decided by him, and that decision will be final.

No votes will be issued on payments for less than three months to the daily and one year to the weekly. No agents' commissions will be allowed.

Votes cannot be transferred. When once issued to one contestant they can not be voted for another.

Cash must accompany list of subscriptions. If you have any checks that are not certified will not be counted and will cause the name to be cancelled on the list.

All reserve votes will have to be turned into the ballot box before 9 o'clock the last night.

Each subscription must contain the amount, name and correct address and how many votes each will entitle the contestant to.
