MOB IS GUARDING SEAY NOW TRIED FOR WIFE MURDER

MAY POSTPONE TRIAL
The Crowd States it Does Not Want to Harm the Prisoner But Merely to Forestall Any Attempt That May Be Made to Remove Seay From the Prison During Night.

Florence, Ala., June 11.—Juror Goode, whose illness yesterday halted the trial of F. Whit Seay charged with the murder of his girl wife was in the jury box today and the trial was resumed. The same tremendous crowd which attended previous sessions packed the court room today. The crowd which kept vigil about the jail during the night moved toward the courthouse when the prisoner was taken from the jail.

Florence, Ala., June 11.—When daylight broke today 200 men remained of the crowd which at times during the night numbered 3,000 about the Lauder county jail where F. Whit Seay, who is on trial on a charge of slaying his bride is confined. A heavy guard of deputies spent a sleepless night in expectation of an attack on the prisoner by the restless crowd which showed its disapproval of the recess in the trial taken because of the illness of one of the jurors.

The crowd became so threatening during the night that the wife of a deputy sheriff locked herself inside the prison with the keys. The dissatisfaction found expression toward 3 o'clock yesterday when the prisoner was taken back to jail. The crowd sent word to the sheriff that they were not bent on doing violence to Seay but to see he was not removed to another place for safekeeping.

LENIN IS GIVING IN, KRASSIN DECLARES

Paris, June 12.—A confessional account of the reasons for Lenin's changes of policy is published today in an interview which Krassin gave in London to the correspondent of The Petit Parisien. Almost cynically, Krassin admits that the Bolshevik regime has failed and that Lenin has been compelled to change it by the failure of the Bolshevik to provoke a Communist revolt.

"We have led the army of the Russian proletariat as if the armies of the other proletariats were winning the same victories. Resolutely we went forward. It was a risk that might have succeeded. But now Lenin sees that he holds alone the outpost of progress. He has advanced too far. He cannot maintain his position and though his faith has not weakened in the slightest he feels compelled to make a strategic retreat—an unfortunate but inevitable move of which he has had the courage to proclaim necessary."

That a revolution will break out late in Europe Krassin declared he was completely convinced, but Lenin was now of the opinion that it would come slowly.

"He has, therefore," says Krassin, "changed his tactics and on account of the international situation and economic foundering of the country has decided that instead of trying to crush them he must come to an arrangement with the interior opposition of peasants and the exterior opposition of the capitalists."

In Krassin's opinion Lenin can easily overcome the opposition of theoretical Bolsheviks like Bukharin and set himself to winning the support of the peasants by modified regime.

"Not even the poorest peasants are Communists, Krassin admits. They never have been and they never will become Communists for the love of our beautiful eyes. If only we had something to give them—machines, cloth manufactured stuff—in return for their produce we could quickly make them understand the advantages of Communism. That it is Lenin's idea, is the first and most essential task to be undertaken and he is going to set about it."

666 has more imitations than any other Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST "ECONOMIC ILLITERACY"

San Francisco, June 14.—Plans for an educational campaign against "economic illiteracy" to be conducted this summer by the National Association of Credit Men were announced today by J. H. Tregoe, secretary treasurer, in his report to the annual convention of the organization.

The entire machinery of 130 affiliated associations of credit experts will be utilized, Mr. Tregoe said. An effort will be made to cultivate a proper understanding of fundamental economic laws in business.

"The qualities of a real religion in business are the qualities for which we will strive," the report said. "American business men must typify always the highest commercial qualities and stand for something that can always be relied upon for the faithful and generous performance of contracts. This is the goal upon which we must fix our eyes."

PITTSBURG AWAITS STEEL PRICE CUTS

Pittsburgh, June 13.—Unfilled obligations of the United States Steel Corporation, as reported at meetings, indicating a decrease of 362,737 tons during May, against decreases of 439,541 tons in April and 649,102 tons in March. The lessening decreases have indicated only a slight increase in bookings, for the reason that shipments have been decreasing. Shipments in May can be estimated at about 38 per cent. of capacity, against shipments at 42 per cent in April and 90 per cent in January. The May decrease in unfilled obligations, 362,737 tons, represented about 27 per cent of capacity for the month, and with shipments at 38 per cent the net bookings in the month are 11 per cent. Net bookings, similarly estimated, were 10 per cent for April, 5 for March and 24 for February.

Operating at 38 per cent the Steel Corporation would require about eleven months to produce a tonnage equal to the unfilled May tonnage. Last January the corporation operated at 90 per cent and at the close of the month had 7,573,164 tons of unfilled business. At a 90 per cent operation the Steel Corporation would require six months to make this quantity.

Production of steel ingots in May was at the rate of about 34 per cent of capacity, against approximately 32 in April. There was a slight decrease in the Steel Corporation's production from April to May, but a very considerable increase on the part of the independents, due to the orders they booked in April. They operated at about 25 per cent. in April and at about 32 per cent in May, but some estimates are that they are now operating at only about 15 per cent. Not a few are producing no steel at all, and the average rate for the whole industry is only about 25 per cent. From the present sluggishness in business the forecast is made that in the next few weeks steel production will drop to 20 per cent or less.

STATE BONDS CAN BE PURCHASED BY STATE'S CITIZENS

ENDORSE MRS. JOHNSON

Tax Collecting in the State is Anything but Satisfactory Since Only Thirty-six Counties Have So Far Settled for Taxes Due on Third Monday in January.

By Max Abernethy.
Raleigh, June 14.—North Carolina bonds in denominations of $500 may now be purchased by patriotic citizens who desire to further the building and road program the State has undertaken, the Council of State having provided for the bonds to be sold at its meeting yesterday.

There are to be $8,372,500 of five percent State bonds offered for sale by Treasurer B. R. Lacy on July 15. They will be offered in the following denominations: one hundred, five hundred and one thousand dollars.

Five millions of the total amount will be for roads and $3,312,500 for improvements at the State's charitable and educational institutions which were authorized by the 1921 session of the General Assembly.

In deciding to offer the $100 bonds the Council of State is seeking to find purchasers within the confines of North Carolina, it having been represented that the reason the State's bonds could not be sold at home was because the denomination was too high. Patriotic folks who want to loan their State money may now do so by communicating with the State Treasurer.

The Council of State also authorized the Treasurer to negotiate loans amounting to $659,000 for the following purposes: University of North Carolina, $500,000; Greensboro College for Women, $85,000; A. and T. at Greensboro, $50,000 and $24,075 to pay for tractors bought by the old State Highway Commission, a judgment against the State having recently been rendered.

North Carolina may yet have a State Commissioner of Public Welfare, Governor Morrison upon his return to the capital from a week's stay in Asheville has announced that he has endorsed Mrs. Clarence A. Johnson, of Raleigh, for the position.

Letters were written about ten days ago, prior to the action of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, by the governor to each member of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare. The State Federation endorsed Mrs. Johnson for the place following the action by Governor Morrison.

"I consider Mrs. Johnson eminently fitted for the place," the governor says, "in fact she is far more qualified for work of this sort than any man the board could secure. This is my firm conviction and in my letters to the Board members I told them so. It was fitting that the Federation of Women Clubs should take the action it did and, although I had already recommended Mrs. Johnson's appointment, this would, I expect, have caused me to do so if I had not already done so. She is a woman of fine fitness and I am going to do everything I can to secure her election," the Governor says.

Tax collecting by the State under the Morrison administration is anything but satisfactory since only 36 counties have so far settled with Treasurer B. R. Lacy for taxes that should have been paid into the State treasury on the third Monday in January.

Durham county alone has made progress enough in tax collecting to pay up and get the pace for the larger counties of the State. A glance at the list of counties whose sheriffs have made settlement with the Treasurer shows all of the bigger ones including Mecklenburg, Buncombe, Guilford, Wake, Forsyth and others missing.

"If you penalize me a thousand dollars and put me in jail for a year I couldn't make settlement any faster." Thus writes the sheriff of an Eastern county to Treasurer Lacy.

And while there seems to be "a wave of gloom" over the east this condition is not limited to any section, that is if the failure of the sheriffs to settle with the Treasurer for 1920 taxes can be taken as an index. Many of the Eastern counties, however, have been harder hit than the ones in the Piedmont and Western sections.

The following counties have settled for last year's taxes: Ashe, Alleghany, Beaufort, Caldwell, Camden, Caswell, Chatham, Chowan, Columbus, Clay, Currituck, Dare, Davie, Duplin, Edgecombe, Graham, Greene, Henderson, Hoke, Iredell, Jackson, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Onslow, Pamlico, Perquimans, Person, Stanley, Warren, Washington, Wilkes, Yadkin, Tyrrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Peele will spend their honeymoon in Washington and New York. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Culpepper, who moved to Wilson from Wilmington several years ago. SYMPATHIZERS OF IRELAND CHAMPION CAUSE AT DETROIT

PRESENT RESOLUTIONS

Would Have Federation of Labor to Call for Boycott on All British Goods and All Products Made on English Capital. Another Faction Presents Resolutions.

Denver, June 14.—Efforts to prevent a widening of the breach between the two factions of Irish sympathizers among delegates was being made today at the opening session of 41st annual conference of the Federation of Labor.

Advocates of Irish freedom it was learned at a mass meeting last night appointed a committee to attempt to draft resolutions that would be satisfactory to both extreme and conservative factions.

When this committee started to work T. J. Vind of Chicago, secretary of the labor bureau of the American commission of Irish Independence served notice that two resolutions must be incorporated in their resolutions or he would act independently.

The "official resolution" called for a boycott not only on British goods but on all products made on English capital and the boycott of British insurance companies. An appointment of a committee of three to cooperate with the British labor unions to bring pressure to bear to recognize Ireland and withdraw troops was made.

A large faction of delegates have announced opposition to the "official resolution." They have offered a resolution demanding recognition of the Irish by the United States withdrawal of British troops from Ireland and payment by England of the nine billion loaned to her by United States. Four other resolutions of similar character have also been offered.

HOUSE VOTES TO TERMINATE WAR

Porter Resolution Adopted as Substitute for the Knox Resolution.

Washington, June 13.—By a vote of exactly 5 to 1 the house tonight passed the Porter resolution to terminate the state of war between the United States and the central powers. As a substitute for the Knox resolution, already passed by the senate, repealing the declaration of war it was put through, 305 to 61, as a Republican measure with the loss of only one Republican vote—Kelley, of Michigan. Forty-nine Democrats joined in the landslide.

First throwing out on a point of order a motion by Representative Flood, Democrat, Virginia, to send the resolution back to committee with instructions to report a substitute requesting the President to negotiate with the enemy countries for a treaty of peace, the house voted down, 254 to 112, another recommending proposal relating to disarmament.
