THE BRIEF OF THE COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATIONS OF EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

We have before as the brief of the Commercial organizations Eastern North Carolina submitted to the Inter State Commerce Commission, which were filed by Attorney J. H. Fishback and Secretary M. R. Beaman.

It is a very able and complete presentation of the position of the Shippers of Eastern North Carolina. and satisfactority answers all arguments of the railroads and the Vir ginia cities as in the cionis of East ern North Carolina to have equal freight rates with other sections of the country

The brief enters into an analysis of the rates between the Ohlo River crossings and North Carolina as compared with the rates between the Ohio river crossings and the Virginia cities and shows the apparent discrimination as between the two sections. The rates into North Carelina would be greatly increased with reference to North Carolina, while those to the Virginia rities would remain the same. IDEAL WOMANHOOD IS EXTOLLED BY EVANGELIST HAM

SERMON TO THE WOMEN

Forceful Message in Which Mr. Ham Urged the Women to Stand by the High Stand ards of Womanhood as is Described in the 31st Chapter of Proverbs, the Thrifty, Capable, Faithful Wife.

Rev. M. F. Ham delivered an un usually forceful and meaningful sermon yesterday afternoon at the tabernacle to the women. No men were in the audience, but there was a tremendous growd present, made up solely of women

Mr. Ham using passages from the Bible drew two vivid pictures of women, the worldly woman, who i from time immemorial has caused trouble, and the ideal woman as pictured in the 31st chapter of Proverbs. This latter woman is indus trions, thrifty and a perfect help mate. The first woman is a liability and a danger.

ful face to make a woman. A mat wants his wife to be a companion, at intelligent, sensible being with whon he can discuss the affairs of life. Ib wants a helpmate not a doll.

In discussing courtship, love, mar riage and the home the preacher said that the success of all these be gins with salvation. If you start of right with salvation you will have no trouble. There'll be no divorce if you marry right. And in bringing up your children you should them to be able to choose right Times have changed and the girl of today cannot pick up a book with out getting hold or something that used to be consored. The moving pic tures of today are full of immora should be guarded from these evil in fluences and assisted in being abl to start life right.

The first essential in choosing a mate is in distinguishing between hope to the farmer and will do all in love and last. Love is on a firm its powr to place the agricultural in- foundation that will successfully weather the storms of life, but lusis tickle and leads only to misery.

The Bible nowhere contains warning to women against men, bu again and again it warns men to be ware of wicked women. This is be cause the woman is the stronger morally of the two and temptation do not assail them like ther do men Unscrupulous women are a dangerous evil and men fall victims to their willes.

God wanted the best in the moth ers of the world as He knew theirs was a most reasonable position, thus it is that there are the rigid stand ards for women and men demand a higher standard for their women folks. And the wife has big respon sibilities as a homemaker. A man wants to find at home a haven of rest from the cares and anxieties of the business world. It does not take money to make a happy home, but character. Domestic troubles hurt a man and keep him unfit for his battle in business.

A man wants a woman for his wife with whom he can exchange an he act have proven unsatisfactory intelligent idea, a sympathetic, helpful, loving partner. Mr. Ham spoke of the duties of motherhood. He said that it was most wicked for any person to speak sneeringly of motherhood or expect ant motherhood. After children are in the home the mother should stay at home and care for them. The children have rights and should not be miposed on. They have the right to the love and care of a mother, to proper training. And the mothers should give this to them rather than neglect her children for social duties.

The evangelist declared woman turnished the emotional element man the intellectual. This emotional nature being uppermost in woman causes her to be tender and affectionate in her ideal state, but if she does become a bad woman it makes her the very worst, as the emotions are carried to extreme in this. Mr. Ham made a most eloquent appeal to the women of the country to stand firm for the very highest ideals of womanhood.
