

WELCOME! TO WILSON COUNTY FAIR

THE WILSON TIMES

Price $1.50 Per Year

Wilson, N. C., Friday, October 25, 1929

Vol. 33; No. 70.

POSSIBILITY THAT OVER HUNDRED PERISHED DUE TO STORMS OVER LAKES

PROPERTY DRAMAGE BIG

Property Loss Will Run into Millions With City of Chicago a Heavy Sufferer; Fifty-Two Persons on Ferry Milwaukee Still Unreported While Eighty Eight Were Aboard Craft Imperiled by Pounding Waves in Upper Lakes.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—(AP) The possibility of the worst lakes storm since 1871 is being discussed today by experts in the city. The date of the storm, which occurred on the night of Oct. 21-22, is being discussed by the city. The date of the storm, which occurred on the night of Oct. 21-22, is being discussed by the city.

The date of the storm, which occurred on the night of Oct. 21-22, is being discussed by the city. The date of the storm, which occurred on the night of Oct. 21-22, is being discussed by the city.

The date of the storm, which occurred on the night of Oct. 21-22, is being discussed by the city. The date of the storm, which occurred on the night of Oct. 21-22, is being discussed by the city.

RESUME HEARING IN PAPER TRIAL

International Paper and Power Company and International Paper Company Attempting Dismiss Suit for $2,500,000 Brought Against it by William Lavarre, Newspaper Publisher.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 24.—(AP) Hearing will be resumed tomorrow on the motion of the International Paper and Power Company and International Paper Company to dismiss the suit for $2,500,000 brought against it by William Lavarre, newspaper publisher.

Numerous documentary evidence was introduced at the hearing. The hearing will be resumed tomorrow on the motion of the International Paper and Power Company and International Paper Company to dismiss the suit for $2,500,000 brought against it by William Lavarre, newspaper publisher.

The hearing will be resumed tomorrow on the motion of the International Paper and Power Company and International Paper Company to dismiss the suit for $2,500,000 brought against it by William Lavarre, newspaper publisher.

NO WORD OF DITEMAN SINCE TAKE OFF: WIFE OPTIMISTIC

Possible Chance That Aviator May Have Landed in Greenland as Gasoline Had Been Ordered Sent There by Flier Over Month Ago; Wife Believes Diteman Has Landed Somewhere on Irish Coast; Aged Parents Worried.

New York, Oct. 24.—(AP) A possible landing in Greenland was the only hope advanced today for the safety of E. J. Diteman, Jr., Montana aviator, long overdue on a solo flight from Newfoundland to London.

Nothing has been seen or heard of the flier since he disappeared out over the ocean ten minutes after taking off from Harbor Grace, N. F.

CASEIN SCHEDULE SUBJECT DEBATE IN SENATE TODAY

TARIFF CONTROVERSY

House Finally Continued Present Duty of Two and One Half Cents Per Pound But Senate Committee Proposed That it be Increased to Three and One Half Cents; Farm Organizations Contend Letter Figure Too Low.

Washington, Oct. 24.—(AP) Two great divisions of American economic industry and agriculture stood face to face in the Senate today in their first conflict arising from the case schedule of the pending tariff bill.

The case in the schedule was the duty to be imposed on casein, a product of the farm which finds its principal use in the chemical and pharmaceutical industries.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

The Senate committee proposed that the duty be increased to three and one-half cents per pound, but the House committee proposed that it be increased to two and one-half cents.

TEMPLE SENTENCED FOR VIOLATION OF NAT. PRODUCE ACT

GIVEN HEAVY FINES

Sentenced to One Year and a Day in County Jail and Fined $100 on Each of Two Counts But Due to Misunderstanding on Part of Attorney Given Option of New Trial or Fine of $100 and Sentence of Thirty Days in Jail; Temple Accepted Latter Sentence.

The United States Circuit Court in Wilson today tried the first case in North Carolina under the National Producers Agency Act which was passed by Congress in 1927.

The defendant, J. P. Temple, was charged with violation of the act by receiving from R. W. Burch and Co., Inc. of Plant City, Fla., two car loads of oranges, making false reports to the department of the produce and failing to account for the proceeds of the sale.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

The case developed out of an investigation by the Department of Commerce, W. L. Evans directing the investigation. It was found that Temple had received from the Burch company a large quantity of oranges.

Montana Cattleman, Mystery Airman, In Lone Flight Across Atlantic, Missing

The Barling low-winged monoplane known as 'The Golden Hind,' which W. F. Diteman, Montana cattleman and aviation enthusiast, is flying on an attempted hop across the Atlantic is shown above. Diteman (shown at the left) lettered the plane as a cattleman than as an aviator in Billings, Montana, his home town, came to St. Johns, N. E., three weeks ago. Tuesday, with no advance information, he stepped into his plane which was loaded with 165 gallons of gasoline, and with London as his objective, hopped off across the Atlantic. (Photos by Aero Digest from International Newsreel.)

KIDNAPED CHILD IS RETURNED UNHURT TO WAITING PARENTS

MISSING FOUR WEEKS

Two Men and Two Women Held in Connection With Kidnaping Jackie Thompson Aged Five Who Disappeared From Front of His Home September 30th; Father Paid $25,000 For His Son's Release.

Jackie Thompson, a five-year-old boy, was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

The boy was kidnaped from his home on September 30, 1929, by two men and two women. The boy was missing for four weeks.

Fire and Explosion In Factory Fatal to One

PANTAGES JURY WEAKENING, GIRL DENIES CHARGES

MADE BY PANTAGES

Attorneys Indicate That Only Few Hours More Needed to Complete Rebuttal Testimony; Miss Pringle Contradicts Pantages' Testimony; One Juror Pronounced Unfit Continue in Box; Replaced by Alternate.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

The jury in the case of the fire and explosion in the Pantages factory in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The jury is expected to return its verdict in a few hours.

Disturbance of Motion Picture Films Will Likely Run Into Millions of Dollars; Fifty Persons Working in Building Escaped by the Narrowest of Margins; A Victim Found in Wreckage Died on Way to Hospital.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session. The date of the disturbance of motion picture films in Wilson, N. C., on September 14, 1929, is still in session.

Resume of Hoover's Talk At Louisville

Louisville, Oct. 24.—(AP) J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, today resumed his talk at the University of Louisville. Hoover spoke for an hour and a half, discussing the work of the FBI and the importance of law enforcement.

GRAND JURY FREES THOSE CONNECTED WITH WOMAN MURDER

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

Resolutions From Section of Criminal Law Urging Services of Experts on Mental Disorders be Made Available to Criminal and Juvenile Courts Before Bar Association.

AMBER MUST EXPLAIN SECRET BANK ACCOUNT

Los Angeles, Oct. 24.—(AP) Amber Schupp, pastor of Angels Temple, was under summons to appear before the grand jury today with the books of the $50,000 Park Evangelistic Association bank account, which she maintained.