LIEUT. DUNN WRITES

The following letter from Lieutenant William H. Dunn to his mother, Mrs. Wiley J. Dunn, tells of his expected return to America. Lt. Dunn who was commanding Co. K. when wounded has been in a hospital since Sept. 30th. He was wounded in the battle that broke the Hindenburg line.

London, Eng., Dec. 5, 1918.
My Dear Mother:—Just a few words. I received a letter from you today along with several more from home. They were the first I have had for some time. I have not written to you in about a week, for we have been expecting to go home every day but we are still here. The last report is we are going Thursday week (Dec. 12th). I will come back to the States as a stretcher patient, for not only can't I walk but I have to keep my foot up all the time. I will be glad to come back to the States any old way. I am tired of this country. I will have to have another operation when I get back to America, so the sooner I get back the sooner I am right again. I will be in the States any way, if nothing happens from now on. Tell everybody not to write to me any more unless you hear from me again. I will wire you just as soon as I get in hospital in U. S. A. With lots of love, WILL.

IN MEMORY OF MRS.

W. M. MEACHAM
Woman, as well as man, that is born of woman, must die. In the creation of the world the Lord established a time for all things—a time to weep and a time to rejoice, a time to be born, a time to live and a time to repent and a time to die.

Sunday, November 15th, again we are shocked and our hearts made heavy when the sad news reached us that another good woman had taken the wings of ascension to the palace of God, prepared for such as her from the foundations of the world.

Near noon on that great day set apart for rest and worship, while the church bells were ringing, calling the living to prepare to meet their God, the soul of this good woman, companion, friend and neighbor, the true and faithful wife of our friend and faithful officer, left her body to the dust and her spirit answered the chimes in a temple in the Glorious Kingdom of Peace and eternal rest. She was loved and beloved by all who knew her. In life she was a model woman, always at all times ready to respond to all distress. Sympathetic, kind and gentle. She rejoiced with those who rejoiced and wept with those who wept.

To you who are near and dear to her, rejoice in the thought and the hope that some sweet day you will meet her at the portals of the New Jerusalem, where the lilies of the valley never fade and the fragrant Rose of Sharon forever blooms.
D. D. N.

A CARD OF THANKS

I take this method to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation of the many kindnesses rendered me in my sickness and in the death of my wife. To you all, I shall always be thankful and grateful.
W. M. Meacham.

A MESSAGE
From the Secretary of the Treasury
To the Insurance Men of America

Almost thirty-seven billion dollars of Life Insurance has been placed by the Government upon the lives of our soldiers and sailors, and the premiums have been paid through allotments from the salaries of these men. Several million men are soon to be returned to civil life, and liberal provision is being made for the continuance of their Government life insurance policies. They will need advice, and the insurance men of America can now render a great service bot to the Government and to the men if at every opportunity they will urge upon discharged soldiers and sailors the benefits to be secured by keeping their policies in force. Methods of conversion and plans for premium payments will soon be made public. No argument from me is needed, I am sure, to prove that the continuation of this insurance is of immeasurable benefit to the Government, to the soldiers and sailors who have offered their lives, and to the institution of life insurance. The Treasury will deeply appreciate your patriotic co-operation.
