FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE IN WINDSOR.

Attracted Here by the Horse Races, Base Ball and Old Soldiers Day. Excursions on the W. & P. and the Steamer Mayflower. Williamston Well Represented.

THE DAY A SUCCESS IN EVERY PARTICULAR.

Attracted by the Horse Races, Base ball and Old Soldiers Day at least 5000 people were in Windsor on Thursday. Train loads came from Ahoskie. The Mayflower came loaded from Plymouth. The Plymouth Naval Reserves, Capt. Phelps in command added much to the interest of the day. Our own Company was on dress parade. The Windsor Band discoursed patriotic airs.

The exercises of raising the Confederate flag were very interesting and were under the charge of Mrs. L. F. Pierce, President of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Frank W. Bird Chapter. Rev. J. B. Gibbie, officiated as Chaplain. The little girls representing the Confederate states were beautifully decorated. Mr. R. W. Askew delivered the flag raising address. As usual he spoke wide and interestingly. The singing of Confederate songs was much enjoyed. Capt. T. D. Boone the orator of the occasion was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gatling. The meeting of the Confederate Veterans Association was held in the court house, Hon. D. W. Britton, President, and R. W. Askew, Secty. Rev. Jesse Matthews, Chaplain, lead in prayer. The music by the Daughters with a selected choir was very good.

Capt. Boone himself a born soldier delivered an excellent address that was liberally applauded. He is a pleasant speaker and his address was full of delightful reminiscences, constantly holding up vivid pictures of the war in which many of his auditors were figures. The election of officers was had and after other routine business and music the audience was dismissed. Dinner was served to the veterans in the court yard. There was an abundance of everything. The Daughters and the Confederacy deserve much praise for the complete arrangements. They omitted to provide our reporter with a place to take notes. He went up to the court room but found it too crowded to push in. This accounts for the brevity of the account of what was one of the most successful meetings on Old Soldiers Day. It was a pleasure to have many of them call at our office. Age bends their forms and dims their eyes, but at the sound of Dixie they step quicker and talk stronger. The Ledger will be glad to publish an official account of all that was done to the end that it may be preserved for the future. We can correctly write the history of these celebrations for the future.

Old Soldiers day is sacred in Bertie County.

Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryle, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it. For sale by Windsor Pharmacy.

FAMILIAR SIMILES.

Rhymed and Arranged in Most Orderly Fashion.

The following interesting lines, of which the composer is unknown, but which have long drifted about in the newspapers, contain all the stock comparisons most frequently used in conversation, arranged in such a manner as to rhyme. The poem, if it can be so called, has been rescued from oblivion by Miss Carolyn Wells in 'A Whimsy Anthology.'

- As wet as a fish—as dry as a bone,
- As live as a bird—as dead as a stone
- As plump as a partridge—as poor as a rat,
- As strong as a horse—as weak as a cat,
- As hard as a flint—as soft as a mole,
- As white as a lily, as black as a coal,
- As plain as a pikestaff, as rough as a bear,
- As light as a drum, as free as the air,
- As heavy as lead, as light as a feather,
- As steady as time, uncertain as weather,
- As hot as an oven, as cold as a frog,
- As gay as a lark, as sick as a dog,
- As slow as the tortoise, as swift as the wind,
- As true, as the gospel, as false as man kind,
- As thin as a herring, as fat as a pig,
- As proud as a peacock, as blithe as a pig,
- As savage as tigers, as mild as dove,
- As stiff as a poker, as lump as a glove
- As blind as a bat, as deaf as a post,
- As cool as a cucumber, as hot as a toast,
- As flat as flounder, as round as a ball,
- As blunt as a hammer, as sharp as an awl,
- As red as a ferret, as safe as the stocks,
- As bold as a thief, as sly as a fox,
- As straight as an arrow, as crooked as a dow,
- As yellow as saffron, as black as a sloe,
- As brittle as glass, as tough as gristle
- As neat as my nail, as clean as a whistle,
- As good as a feast, as bad as a witch,
- As light as day, as dark as is pitch,
- As brisk as a bee, as dull as an ass,
- As full as a tick, as solid as brass.

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by Windsor Pharmacy.

MR. A. C. DICKERSON DEAD.

Taken Ill While Bathing and Dies in a Few Minutes.

In the death of Mr. A. C. Dickerson, of Colerain the County loses a most honorable and useful citizen. He moved to Bertie County from Va. and spent several years in the employment of the late S. J. Perry. He was energetic and faithful to every trust and Mr. Perry had implicit confidence in him. He has been a merchant at Colerain quite a long time. Here he enjoyed the confidence of every body. He was a fair dealer.

Mrs. Viola Tankard and Miss Hallie Dickerson, two daughters, survive him.

Mr. Dickerson was a member of the Colerain Methodist Church. He was buried in the church yard there Rev. Mr. Jones his pastor officiating. A very large concourse of people was present. We have known Mr. Dickerson for years and we testify to his good qualities as a husband, father and citizen. Colerain and Bertie Co. have lost a splendid Christian gentleman.

9-8 AND 9-2

Result of the two Games with Aulander last week.

In Tuesday's game at Aulander, the Windsor boys lost by a score of 9 to 8. In justice, however, to Windsor, we will say our boys went to Aulander shy of two or three of its best players, especially the pitcher. In fact, its regular battery did not go, which accounts for the difference in the score of the two games.

In the second game, here on Old Soldiers Day the score was 9 to 2 in our favor.

Minton, Aulander's crack little twirler, having pitched in two games, Tuesday and Wednesday, was, of necessity in bad shape, and had to retire from the box after the first inning.

Only six innings were played and the line up was as follows:

Old Soldiers Day. Last Year There Were Fifteen.

Last Old Soldiers Day the Mayor made fifteen arrests. This time only one was made. We quote this fact in simple justice to the Dispensary. Men "with sufficient amount already aboard" were refused more and all minors totally barred. Yet the receipts amounted to five hundred dollars, and the doors were closed at sun down.

Some weeks ago Messrs. H. P. Sewell, J. W. Freeman, W. W. Mebane, F. M. Dunstan, Raymond Spruill and Gov. Francis D. Winston organized the Windsor Trotting Club. They rented land, laid off a track and made all arrangements for racing. Last Thursday witnessed the first trial of speed. The races brought 5000 people to town. Williamston and Windsor furnished the horses.

The horses were in the following classes:

FIRST RACE.

(2:40 Trot or Pace.)

- 1st, Mary S. (wins.)
- 2nd, Laura Lee.
- 3rd, Ellenoria Aster.

Time: 2:27 2:29 2:30 1-4.

SECOND RACE.

(2:30 Trot or Pace)

- 1st, Little Straight (wins.)
- 2nd, Polo.

Time: 2:21 2:24.

THIRD RACE.

(2:20 Trot or Pace)

- 1st, Loyal Bee. (wins.)
- 2nd, Midgett.
- 3rd, Lillian Miller.

Time: 2:18 2:19 2:22 1-4.

Everything passed off well. The judges were: Messrs. Jones and Rountree.

Mr. Raymond Spruill was starter. We are glad the club will continue to have racing from time to time.

More than a hundred people were present from Williamston. No betting or gambling was indulged in and the racing was clean in all respects.

This event was of great interest and our people are looking forward to the "next races".

It is a pleasure to state that the day was a financial success. Good for the Windsor Trotting Club.
