WINDSOR NEWS

President Corwin of the W. & P. was in Windsor last week.

Dr. Mizell was in Aulander last Monday.

Herring are now selling at their popular price of ten cents a dozen.

Moving pictures every night at Bazemore's opera house.

The operatta under the supervision of Mrs. C. J. Sawyer, will be presented Friday night.

Mrs. E. R. Holly, who has been visiting relatives in Virginia has returned home.

A teachers institute will be held in Windsor this summer, under the direction of Prof. Highsmith.

Mr. Jos. T. Dempsey, R. F. D. carrier of route No. 1, attended a meeting of the Brracas in Charlotte this week.

The stave plant is working every day and is shipping several car loads a week.

Mrs. Ellen Brett, widow of our late countyman, Captain Jas. H. Brett, of Lewiston, is visiting her son, Mr. G. T. Brett.

Herring are selling for 10 cents a dozen in Windsor, shad 35 and 50. Shad are bringing the same price in New York, we are told.

Convenience, as well as economy, is causing our people to rapidly install lights in their homes and places of business.

News reached here last week that Mr. W. R. Capehart, at Avoca, caught one hundred thousand herring at one haul, and during the week had caught eight thousand shad.

Judge Winston went to Robeson county last week on legal business. He also attended a meeting of the former grand masters of the Masonic lodge at New Bern.

At a recent session of the Odd Fellows, L. F. Pierce was elected representative to the Grand Lodge, L. D. Perry alternate. W. L. Powell was recommended for Lodge Deputy.

Mr. J. H. Etheridge, of Eden House was in town last Friday. He exhibited a rare coin which was plowed up in old Manor plantation. It is a copper coin bearing date of 1773.

The commencement of the Windsor Graded School will consist of only the exercises of the graduating class and the annual address--the exercises to be had the night of the 2nd, and the address the morning of the 3rd, by Prof. Highsmith.

Mr. Stephen A. Drew, of Boston, and sister, Miss Elizabeth Drew are visiting their cousin, Mrs. Francis D. Winston. They were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. E. O. Drew, who is a sister to our late townsman, Dr. S. B. Kenney. Mr. Drew returned to his home Monday.

Very attractive looking invitations to the commencement exercises of the Windsor Graded School have been sent out. On Thursday night, May 1, the commencement address will be delivered by Prof. Highsmith of Wake Forest College. And on Friday morning, 10 o'clock, the graduating exercises will be had. There will be no other class exercises.

The Daughters of the Revolution were most pleasantly entertained last Tuesday night by Mrs. C. J. Sawyer, at her home on Main street. Among the features was a very prettily hand-painted booklet containing historical questions pertaining to North Carolina during the revolutionary period, in which a prize was offered for the most correct answers. It was won by Mrs. E. S. Askew. Another very entertaining feature of the evening was the reading of a selection from Miles Standish Courtship by Mrs. W. O. Allen. Refreshments were served.

LOST--A mole or deer colored cow, with a swallow fork in each ear. And a black and white calf with no mark. The finder will please notify The Ledger.

Healthy Old Age Is What Dr. Hartman Advocates

B. B. HARTMAN, M. D.

See here, young man, I heard you complaining the other day of being nervous, sleepless, brain fagged, and the like. A young man, hardly in the zenith of your life, complaining of such things! And this is very common, too. You are not the only one. Probably three out of four men of to-day have just such symptoms as you describe. What does it mean? Look at me. I am eighty-two years old. Sound as a nut. Tough as hickory. Do not know what it is to be tired. While I cannot do as much physical work as I used to when a young man, I can do a great deal. Probably twice as much as the average young man of to-day. What has kept me so strong and well? I will tell you. I do not use tobacco. I do not use alcoholic stimulants. I do not use tea or coffee habitually. I go to bed early. I get up early. I am always doing something; something that occupies my body and mind. I love to work. I take a cold water towel bath every morning, winter and summer. It is these things that have kept me well and strong. You could be just as well and strong as I am if you would do as I do. You may ask, do I never get sick, have I never had occasion to take medicine at all? Yes, I have got sick. Sometimes I feel a little touch of climatic trouble, like cold, malaria, slight catarrhal symptoms, but my only medicine is Peruna. I always keep a bottle of Peruna in the house. I keep a bottle of Peruna on my desk in my office. Once in a while I take some. I do not take it habitually. Take it only when I feel a little out of sorts. One swallow will perhaps be all that will be necessary, but it is always handy by. It is a sorry sight to see the young men of to-day begin to peter out physically when they ought to be in the glory of their manhood and the height of their vigor. Eat plain food. Live frugally. Give up all weakening habits. Live as God intended you to live. Take Peruna when you do not feel as well as usual. If you want me to I will send you a book which will tell you a great many more things about yourself and about matters that may be of great value to you. Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the book will be sent in a plain wrapper and you will not be troubled with any follow-up letters or advertisements. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES. SPECIAL NOTICE--Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

THE PENNANT--AN OPERETTA, FRIDAY NIGHT

Under the auspices of the Daughters, and the direction of Mrs. C. J. Sawyer, the operetta--The Pennant--with the following cast, will be presented at the opera house Friday night of this week:

- Jack Lawson--a senior who has been working his way through college. He is captain of the foot-ball team, tenor. E. S. Askew
Lord Woolby Rich--an heirless hunting Englishman. He is about thirty years old; is dressed in what the papers caricature as the latest London style--top-hat, frock coat, monocle, etc.--tenor or high baritone--M. B. Gillam
Levi Lender--a Jewish Peddler, dressed in good clothes. Frock-coat, top-hat and character whiskers. A. C. Mitchell
Verdant Green--a freshman from up county. In the first act, and in part of the second he is dressed like a country youth in his store clothes. In the last act, just before the final curtain, he comes in dressed like a Broadway sport, with fake diamonds, loud tie and possibly a bull pup on a chain--baritone. L. F. Pierce
Jeremiah Bond a stock broker, father of Doris. He is a meek little self-made man, well under the dominion of his wife. bass. E. W. Grey Jeremiah Owen--the coach, Wm. Gurley.
Mason--a friend of Jack.
Harding--a chum of Jack.
Doris Bond--adopted daughter of Jeremiah Bond--soprano. Mrs. C. J. Sawyer
Mrs. Jeremiah Bond--a society climber, mother of Doris--alto. Mrs. E. L. Gatling.
Mrs. Reno Grass--a widow--soprano. Miss Virginia Spruill
Miss Sweet--friend of Doris--alto. Miss Josie Spivey
Miss Young friend of Doris--alto. Miss Clsra Urie Mardre
Pianist. Miss Margaret Askew
Violinist. R. E. Walker

SENIOR CLASS GIVES A RECEPTION THE PSALM OF THE FAITHFUL SOWER

The graduating class of the Windsor Graded School gave a most creditable and delightful reception Friday night of last week at the home of one of its members--Miss Alice Nicholls. They were assisted by their teacher. There are nine in the class, all young ladies, the largest class the school has yet graduated. It is composed of Misses Mary Watson Bond, Annie Britton Cooke, Anna May Freeman, Margaret Elizabeth Manning, Alice Winston Nicholls, Amy Riddick, Mary Mills Saunders, Mary Gladys Smith, and Annie Mae Sutton. In one room the class, with the principal, received the congratulations of the guests. And on retiring from this room, entering the large hall they were served orangeade; and proceeding into another room the guests were served chicken salad, coffee bread and olives. And continuing further in still another room the guests partook of cream, fruit-cake, home-made candies, and after tea mints. In each room members of the other classes of the school assisted in the serving of the various courses and presided at the punch bowl. And each room decorations with the class colors, old gold and black, were tastefully arranged. After re-assembling in the parlor, the guests were highly entertained with a recitation by Miss Helen Gillam and a solo by Miss Virginia Spruill, while Miss Mary Smith delightfully entertained at the piano. Miss May Nicholls, with much grace and ease, rendered most valuable aid to the class in this most enjoyable reception--the first to be given by a graduating class in Windsor.

The front page of the Raleigh Christian Advocate for last week features the following very beautiful poem written last summer by our townsman, Hon. W. R. Johnson. It contains the very deepest philosophy of life, expressed in true rhythm and beautiful words. It is a very high compliment, this discriminating and able paper pays our friend.

Tell me not, oh weary sinner, That you love the path of wrong, When in youth, a mere beginner, Ugly words were not your song. Christ is real! Christ is earnest! Of His love, we all are told, Dust to dust, thou sure returnest, And the flower will pierce your mold We must then be up and going We have idled here too long, As we go, stop bad words sowing, "Christ is Risen" be your song. There will be a mighty reaping, Then the harvest will be o'er, And we know there'll be no weeping, By the good and faithful sower. Then it is that Christ will garner, In His sheaves of golden grain, And those sheaves will stand for honor And the glory of His name. Trust to no one but your Maker, Follow no allurements fair; It is only your Creator, Who can help you in despair. Lives of good men make impression, On the hearts of other men, And when passing, find expression, In the carol of a hymn. What a triumph we will witness, In the Harvest Day or Life, If our souls are made by fitness, Free from strains of earthly strife. Then we'll praise the Everlasting-- Praise the Father, Son above; And we'll sing the song unceasing Of His good and bounteous love. W. R. Johnson.

Singing Class April 24th

The Singing Class from the Oxford Orphan Asylum will give their annual entertainment in Windsor on the night of April 24th. Of course it goes without the saying that a large house awaits them and our people will give these little unfortunate children the same cordial reception they always receive. April 24th is the date, Don't forget it.

A Card to the Public

I wish to announce that my line of millinery this season surpasses in beauty, style and quality to any previous season. Now that the Easter rush is over I am replenishing my stock with beautiful and artistically trimmed hats for the summer trade. I feel indebted to Miss Winfred Taylor, who is my trimmer, for being able to give my customers such pretty hats. She is the designer and trimmer. I ask you to give me a chance to try and please you, and if I fail no harm done. I don't mind trying to suit my customers; you will receive polite and courteous service whether you buy or not. We make the prices to suit the people. Thanking you for past patronage. Yours to serve, J. L. SPIVEY.

Public Sale

I will sell at public auction at my home, the D. W. Britton old home place, on Monday and Tuesday, April 21 and 22. 150 barrell of corn. 6000 bundles of fodder. Farming implements of all kinds. Household and Kitchen furniture. My entire stock of merchandise. Sale begins at 10 a. m. J. E. JORDAN, At the D. W. Britton old home place.
