In Memoriam

Six months ago today our Savior sent an angel from his throne, and took our dear grandma, aunt Levena Catherine Perry to a beautiful Heavenly home. Oh so sad to part with one we love so well; she leaves us with a sorrowing heart and her friends weeping near, but God knew best to take her to rest, she knew while on her bed that she would soon be at home called Heaven, to rest among the best. None but her friends know how hard it was to part from her but the memory of her loved ones still in fresh within our hearts, your sister and your brother, their hearts aches with sorrow. No tongue can see you drifting from them, for they love, oh so well but they know you have gone to rest. There are love ones gone before and waits with smiles to greet them in.
Lizzie V. Baker.

Merry Hill.
