WINDSOR - Twenty-four years and going strong.

The annual Tee & Sea is planned for Thursday and Friday of this week, and the event is headed back to its roots.

"We'll be headed back outdoors this year," said Tee & Sea committee member Josh Kilpatrick. "We think people are excited about it, and I know we are."

Kilpatrick said the entire event will return to Cashie Golf and Country Club in Windsor, including Friday night's seafood buffet.

The event kicks off at 1 p.m. Thursday afternoon with a Duffers Golf Tournament.

Thursday evening will also see Ken Younger Night at 6 p.m. held at the Cashie club.

The night will feature a reverse raffle and auction.

Golf starts bright and early Friday morning with two rounds planned for the day. There are morning tee times still available as of press time Tuesday.

WINDSOR - It is never too early to take up the fight.

Those wishing to teach their children valuable lessons about being part of the greater good, and helping those in need have a perfect local opportunity.

The Relay For Life of Bertie County 2016 Kids Walk is planned for 8 p.m. Friday, May 13 at the Roy L. Bond Jr. Stadium on the campus of the Bertie County Schools Administrative offices.

It will be a major part of the annual Bertie County Relay For Life, as the county takes up the fight against cancer for an unprecedented 22nd year.

North Carolina's oldest Relay For Life can benefit from having younger members of the community join the longtime battle against the dreaded disease.

Those wishing to have

MERRY HILL - A tradition continues.

Lawrence Academy's kindergarten class, led by teachers Pam White and Amy Smith, put on the classic Disney play "Beauty and the Beast" Thursday night and Friday morning in the school gymnasium.

"It was a lot of work, but it was also a whole lot of fun," said White, the director. "The children did a wonderful job."

This is the 10th year White has directed the play, which originated in the 1980s.

The kindergarten class, made up of 16 boys and girls, started practice in January and worked on the production almost every day since March, White said.

The cast of characters included Chesson Paspas as The Beast, Christopher Reynolds as Maurice the Father, Cooper Powell as Lumiere the Candelabra, Alex Northcott as Chip the Teacup, Eloise Haigler as Belle, Bear Haigler as Gaston, Taylor Davidson as Cogsworth the Clock, Lilly Brower as Enchantress, Caleb Capps as Philippe the Horse, Katelyn Copeland and Sydney Phelps as Belle's Sister, Kate Dwyer and Becca

WINDSOR - Receiving a report of Bertie County's health and wellness.

The Bertie County Commissioners along with the K. B. Reynolds Charitable Trust hosted a public forum last week.

The forum was convened to get the Bertie County Citizens involved in the discussion of health and wellness over the next ten years.

John Trent, Bertie County Commission Chairman, welcomed those in attendance. Trent introduced the committee members who were selected to help with the campaign.

The committee included: Chairman John Trent, Co-Chair Ronald Wesson, Vice-Chair Janet Capehart, Treasurer Dr. Karen Ray, Secretary Temechia Cherry, Communications Heidi Bonislawski, Parliamentarian Vivian Saunders, Dr. John Hill, Lewis Hoggard and Casey Owens.
