The Windsor Police Department and Windsor Fire Department, along with local businesses, sponsored a program to provide books to first and fourth graders at Windsor Elementary School. The books deal with character building issues such as bullying and having good manners. Windsor Police Officer A.J. Lanier (pictured) and Windsor Fireman Josh Kilpatrick delivered the books and read to students. Participating businesses included Roanoke Electric Cooperative, Bertie County Farm Bureau, Nucor, Republic Services, White Oak Medical Transport and Vidant Bertie Hospital.
