

The pageantry of Christmas - Colerain

Left: Colerain Baptist Church youth arrive via tractor during the town's annual Christmas Parade Saturday; (right) antique tractors were a popular attraction during the event.

Santa Claus waves to those in attendance.

Above: Members of the Bertie High School JROTC march down N.C. 45 at the start of the event.

Left: A parade participant throws some candy to spectators during the Colerain Christmas Parade.

LESLIE BEACHBOARD / Bertie Ledger-Advance

One of younger parade participants waves to the crowd from a John Deere mini-tractor; (right) Cafe 45 Restaurant was one of several local businesses with a float in the parade.