Anniversary celebration

Harold and Georgia (Buneva) Everett celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, February 21, 2018.

The lovebirds were married in 1968, shortly before Harold's U.S. Army duties took him to Vietnam to serve in the Vietnam War.

The Everetts have a daughter and son-in-law who reside in Dover, Florida.

Chase

The motorcycle reportedly ran off the road to the right and wrecked, but the operator – later identified as Barnes – was able to jump from the vehicle and flee the scene with Cpl. Thomas giving chase on foot.

Cpl. Thomas was able to locate Barnes and take him into custody without further incident.

Barnes with felony speeding to elude arrest, failure to heed blue lights and siren, reckless driving and driving while license revoked. He was placed under a $10,000 secured bond and confined to Bertie-Martin Regional Jail. The motorcycle was also seized.

Lane said it was Barnes' second offense for failure to heed blue lights and siren as he was also charged in March 2015 with the same offense.

"These are the type of incidents which put every motorist on the highway at risk," Chief Lane said. "High speed chases are dangerous and, in most cases, do not end in a positive manner."

"Cpl. Thomas did an excellent job remaining calm and driving in a safe manner," he added. "He is to be commended for his actions."

Celebrating Black History

Black history is an important part of our nation's story. From notable historical figures like Harriet Tubman, Carter G. Woodson, Martin Luther King, Jr. and Rosa Parks to our former President of the United States, Barack Obama, black Americans have been instrumental in effecting progress and changing the course of history, often in the face of adversity.

During Black History Month, we recognize the myriad contributions and achievements of African Americans past and present whose hard work, vision and talent have made our country and the world a better place.

This message has been sponsored in celebration of Black History Month by.
