KELFORD – A Kelford man was found shot dead lying in a ditch on East Church Street in his hometown.

Bertie County Sheriff John Holley said his office received a call in the early morning hours of Sunday that a man was lying in a ditch and didn't appear to be breathing. Officers and medical personnel were dispatched, but the man died at the scene.

The victim was Tarquin Delmar Fogg of Church Street in Kelford. He was 31 years of age.

On Monday, Sheriff Holley said his officers were on the scene and in the surrounding area in Kelford for countless hours, but believes it will be up to the community to help bring the murderer to justice.

There is a slight change in plans for Saturday's schedule COVID-19 vaccine clinics.

Thanks to a partnership between Vidant Bertie Hospital and the West Roanoke Missionary Baptist Association, the COVID-19 vaccine will be available in four Bertie County communities this Saturday (April 17).

The clinics were scheduled to feature the Johnson & Johnson one-shot vaccination, but that will no longer be the case. The federal government has paused the vaccine to study some concerns over blood clotting by some who have received the vaccine.

"Out of an abundance of caution, we are going to change gears," said Ron Wesson, who was instrumental in helping

WINDSOR – "It's all about seeing kids have a good time and enjoying the outdoors."

That's how Jonathan Stalls described the Roanoke Cashie Youth Dream Team's 8th Annual Hook N Shoot event, which took place April 2-3.

The Roanoke Cashie Youth Dream Team is a Christ-centered, nonprofit organization that provides opportunities for all young people to hunt, fish or enjoy any other outdoor adventures their hearts desire.

All young people, regardless of the challenges they may face – physical, emotional or other – are welcome by the team.

Guides and RCYDT members are aware all challenges may not be visible and focus on making sure the participant has a safe and enjoyable experience.

In the decade the team has served young people, they have not seen a situation they
