Tom Wurth, who performs at 6 p.m. on Saturday, is a Nashville based, Grammy nominated singer/songwriter whose musical influences are as diverse as the music he plays.

According to the music industry, "his voice is memorable and versatile while his entertainment style is engaging.

He brings his audience the music they crave while getting them involved in the show.

No two Tom Wurth shows are exactly alike because no two audiences are exactly alike."

Billy Dean, who will close out the Stampede started singing at the age of 8 with his father's band the Country Rocks. His big break came in 1988 when he won Best Male Vocalist on Star Search, hosted by Ed McMahon.

Over his 25-plus-year career, Dean has released 11 albums, five of them gold, and won several award nominations.

He has had 24 Billboard Chart Hit Songs, three of them number ones.

He is a Grammy-award winner and Academy of Country Music Awards winner.

Some of his top hits include Only Here for A Little While, Somewhere in My Broken Heart, Billy the Kid, Let Them Be Little, If There Hadn't Been You, We Just Disagree and Buy Me A Rose (w/Kenny Rogers and Alison Krauss).

The Carolina County Stampede is sponsored by WITN, Martin General Hospital, Martin County Tourism Development Authority, Domtar, Lilley International, Veolia, the Town of Williamston, Rivers and Associates, Truist and Bill Clough Ford of Windsor.
