

J. O. U. A. M. NEWS CORRAL

Edited by JOHN W. EDWARDS

January 11, 1932, brought another pleasant surprise for the Corral. On this day I received a nice letter from Brother T. M. Rickman of Cowee Council No. 493, also there was enclosed a complete history of the Cowee council.

I am sorry it came too late to be published in the last week's Press. I must have all news for this corner not later than Saturday for the week following.

Brother T. M. Rickman deserves a good word from all Juniors for his splendid research work in working out the history of his council. I hope he sends in other news of interest.

HISTORY OF COWEE COUNCIL NO. 493

(By T. M. Rickman)

Cowee Council No. 493 was organized March 19, 1917 by Sam E. Grant, Deputy State Councilor. There were 31 charter members, as follows: W. E. Sheppard, J. T. Byrd, J. L. Sheppard, W. D. Sheppard, John E. Rickman, Howard Sheppard, E. V. Hurst, J. C. Bryson, C. Clemons, Sam J. Murray, Roy Gibson, J. H. Rickman, J. B. Elmore, R. R. Rickman, E. B. Rickman, J. A. Clarke, J. M. Gregory, J. R. Holbrook, S. C. Leatherman, C. T. Bryson, Paul Potts, A. L. Raby, T. T. Hurst, Roy Bryson, Clyde

N. West, J. W. Rickman and W. M. Queen.

Chas. F. Alexander was State Councilor and Sam F. Vance was State Secretary.

Since 1917 there has been 86 members added to the roll and four deaths: 75 members dropped for non-payment of dues, leaving 38 active members and 4 honorary members.

There has been quite a bit of sick benefits paid. The Order has given 8 Bibles and flags to near-by schools.

The Lodge meets each second and fourth Saturday nights of each month, and the dues are only $10.00 a year. Join in with us and reap a reward.

Albert J. Rickman is the present Councilor and S. C. Leatherman the Recording Secretary.

From the charter of Cowee Council No. 493 I find four Brothers who are more or less in the line light of county affairs:

John E. Rickman, post master of Franklin.

C. T. Bryson, register of deeds of Macon county.

Clyde N. West, Mail carrier to West Mills and other points north.

Sam J. Murray, One of the leading workers for the Junior Order.

Three of the above: John E. Rickman, C. T. Bryson and Sam J. Murray, now belong to Cullasaja Council No. 158.

Cullasaja Council No. 158

On Thursday night, January 14, 1932 the following officers were installed by Cullasaja Council for the present year:

E. B. Dehart, Councilor; C. M. Moore, Outside Sentinel; Carey Patton, Inside Sentinel; Silas J. Womack, Warden; Sam J. Murray, Representative to State; Crude Meadows, Representative to State; Robert L. Poindexter, Chaplain; Frank I. Murray, 18 months Trustee.

Brother Jack Stribling acted as installing officer.

Brothers Wade Reece and George Reece and Oliver Hall were elected to be reinstated. Brothers Wade and George Reece were re-instated and Joe Palmer.

Brother J. J. Mann made an interesting talk, praising the newly elected Councilor, E. B. Dehart.

Brother E. B. Dehart spoke of plans, which he had for the year. If his plans are carried out with the help of the Council; it surely is going to be one banner year for Cullasaja Council.

Brothers Jack Stribling, Frank I. Murray, Bob Poindexter, C. M. Moore, Sam J. Murray, J. S. Womack, John Henry, Carey Patton, George Reece, George Ramey and R. D. Sisk—when granted the floor had something for the good of the order or a witty saying. But I believe that Brother C. M. Moore takes first prize for making the best talk; in fact his is the only one which I remember word for word. "You have made a mistake." He was referring to having been elected an officer.

Brothers Tom Johnson and Tom Stiles are reported to be rapidly traveling the road to health; after much sickness and an operation.

Brother J. D. Franks went to Atlanta, Tuesday, Jan. 12 to attend a B. Y. P. U. convention. Brother Franks was accompanied by Mrs. Fannie Mac Franks and Miss Virginia Cunningham. They reported a successful and enjoyable time.

The Ghost Story contest is over and we all are due the editor of The Press, Mr. Blackburn W. Johnson, a rising vote of thanks for being entertained with such interesting stories for the past three months. It is a rare thing for small weekly newspapers to carry such highly classed features as "Cimarron" and the ghost stories by David McFall.

The railroads have one distinction which the buses are not encroaching upon—you read quite often about men being railroaded to prison; but have you ever heard of one being bussed there?

Is Maxwell Home School doomed to closed doors? We hope not. "Money is the root of all evil," so they say; but it seems to be the tap root for industrial and social advancement.

The gold system of our country is a detriment—the reason is, it doesn't circulate.

"The Man Without a Country" has brought gloomy thoughts to many; but the women say a story of greater gloom could be written—"A Country Without a Man."

Did the Lake Emory bubble burst? I trust it didn't effect the fish.

He said that the country was going to the dogs—what dog? The country's de luxe lunch, the five cent hot dog.

If women are as changeable in politics as in dressing, politics are due for some ups and downs.

Some of the most successful business companies preach the one idea of always keeping their names before the public. This same thought proves that your enemy is your best friend—he is always keeping your name before the public.

A Peddler's Lament
A peddler was once meandering through a rural community, carrying his over-size pack. After a long walk under the summer's sun he ascended a high hill and tried all his mighty sales arguments upon the farmer's wife. But his sales talk fell far short, as the woman had a Sears Roebuck price better than his upon the various articles which he carried. Finally with a gesture of anger the peddler began tying up his pack.

The lady hurried into the house to reappear with a tablet and pencil.

"If you don't mind re-opening your pack I'll take three yards of that print percale. Then I wish you would write me a poem, as I am trying to collect some new ones to read at our next missionary meeting."

The peddler measured off the cloth and re-tying his pack; then took the tablet and pencil; he wrote:

"The grasshopper eats the farmers' grass,
The honey bee sucks his honey;
The bedbug uses the farmers' bed,
And Sears Roebuck gets his money."

Orine Cunningham, the son of Brother Frank Cunningham, is recovering after a very dangerous operation.

Manson Samlers, who is a brother of the Order, has a good traveling job. He is taking subscriptions for the "Yellow Jacket."

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.
That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

Are you buying for fences why not own them

Fences Convert Waste into Profits

How many bushels of corn per acre, how much small grain, how much good hay and feed crops are you leaving in the fields? Hogs and cattle will gobble this waste for you and turn it into meat or milk and butter. But you will need to have your fields well fenced. And be sure you fence with Dixie Steel, the fence made in the South to fit the needs of Southern farms. Dixie Steel will stand the hot sun and the rains of the South. It's galvanized just right, heavy enough to prevent rust, smooth enough to prevent cracking and peeling. Larger farm profits begin with the day Dixie Steel Fence goes up on your farm.

Come in and let us fix you up with the Hog and Cattle Fence, Poultry Fence, Barbed Wire, Lawn Fence, Gates and Steel Posts that you need.
