Franklin Zone Gathering Held at Methodist Church

75 WOMEN PRESENT Mrs. H. C. Freeman Again Named Chairman Of Group

The organization of women's missionary societies known as the Franklin zone held a most helpful and enjoyable meeting at the Franklin Methodist church Tuesday afternoon.

About 75 women, representing all Methodist societies of Macon county, were present. The program included reports from Snow Hill, Iotla, Bethel, Clark's Chapel, Union, Cartoogechaye and Franklin churches. These reports showed splendid progress along all lines, large amounts of money spent for home and foreign missions, social service work, parsonage improvements and also helpful study classes in all the church's.

Mrs. Hampton Heard Mrs. George Hampton of Canton, corresponding secretary of the Waynesville district, was present and made a most inspiring talk on "The Book, Our Bible—its Origin and History." She also conducted a round table discussion about ways and means of conducting the women's work on an ever enlarging scale.

Over $1,000 Raised

Under the leadership of Mrs. H. C. Freeman there are now five organized societies in the Franklin circuit. More than 30 women from these various societies were in attendance. It was reported that the women from the Franklin circuit raised more than one thousand dollars last year for home and foreign missions and home improvements.

Mrs. J. C. Umberger also made a splendid report on work done at Union on the Macon circuit. Mrs. H. C. Freeman was re-elected chairman of Franklin zone; Miss Margaret Cozad, of Franklin, secretary, and Miss Grace Williams, of Macon circuit, corresponding secretary.

At the close of the meeting a social and get-acquainted hour was enjoyed in the Sunday school room, where delicious cake and punch were served. The next meeting will be held at Union church, with the ladies of the Macon circuit as hosts.

12-Headed Potato Is Grown by J. M. Corbin

There is another twelve-headed potato in the window of The Press office. This one was brought in by J. M. Corbin, of Elijah, who was a visitor Tuesday. The first one to be received was brought in by Turner Enloe, of Cartoogechaye, about two weeks ago and is now turning green after being exposed to the light so long. However, it has not grown any more heads, so, if anyone has a potato to beat it, bring it in.

Rev. W. L. Griggs To Hold Series of Services at Franklin Baptist Church

The Rev. W. L. Griggs, a native of Macon county, who is now pastor of the Ninth Avenue Baptist church of Charlotte, will conduct a special series of services at the First Baptist church of Franklin beginning March 7.

Rev. Mr. Griggs was born on Coweta creek, where he lived until he was about six years old, when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Griggs, removed to Skeenah, where he spent most of his boyhood days. The family later removed to Prentiss, where they lived for the last few years of their residence in this county. On leaving Macon they went to Watauga county, where Mr. Griggs' parents still live.

Mr. Griggs attended the public schools of his community and two schools in Franklin—one, the Macon county Baptist high school, with Prof. J. A. Ammons as principal, and the other, the Franklin high school, with Prof. M. D. Billings as principal. He attended Mars Hill college at Mars Hill from 1908 to 1911, and Wake Forest college from 1911 to 1915. He was graduated from both of these colleges and later attended the

Community Meetings Held To Launch 5-10 Year Farm Program in Macon County

Macon County 5-10 Year Organized Farm Program

The following recommendations for Macon County farmers and farm women were made by a group of farmers in cooperation with the Macon county chairman, Franklin Rotary club and the county agent. This list was compiled with the idea that as a start toward better agriculture in Macon County each farmer and farm woman should pledge their support by selecting and putting into practice THIS YEAR one or more of the first six recommendations and two or more of the remainder. This is the best way to make a start and a plan you can follow.

SELECT ONE OR MORE AND START IT NOW

- 1. Improve one or more acres of present pasture by fertilizing and reseeding and using some lespedeza.
2. Raise one acre of legume hay (Soybeans, lespedeza, or clover) for each milk cow or mature beef animal.
3. Have only one breed of chickens and fifty purebred hens as your farm flock.
4. Sow three or more acres of lespedeza, soybeans, cowpeas, clover or other legume to be turned under for soil improvement.
5. Raise one or more hogs (above home needs) for market.
6. Sell cream to give a cash income.

SELECT TWO OR MORE NOW AND PRACTICE AT ALL TIMES

- 7. Breed only to purebred sires, not to cross beef cattle and dairy cattle, and NEVER to keep or BREED to a scrub sire.
8. Keep all heifer calves until they are six months of age.
9. Set out ten apple trees for a home orchard.
10. Use only good seeds. Certified where possible.
11. Feed balanced rations to livestock according to best proven practices.
12. Raise one or more (where practical) baby beef to be sold in early fall.
13. Care for lambs so as to have them ready for market in June.
14. Field select all seeds possible from your farm.
15. Properly house your livestock, poultry, and farm equipment.
16. Sow winter cover crops on all land possible.
17. Improve appearance of home and home conditions.
18. KEEP A FARM CASH INCOME AND EXPENSE RECORD.

SELECT YOUR THREE OR MORE PROJECTS AND SET THEM UP AS A GOAL TO BE REACHED BY YOU THIS YEAR, AND CALL ON ME ANY TIME I CAN BE OF SERVICE TO YOU EITHER IN MY OFFICE OR ON YOUR FARM.

F. S. Sloan, County Agent.

China and Japan Get Ready for Big Battle

While Japanese and Chinese troops were reported concentrating their forces in the Shanghai-Wosung area for a "fight to the finish," a dispatch from Geneva late Wednesday brought news that the Japanese delegation to the disarmament conference had voiced a policy of eagerness "to further the cause of disarmament."

Japan was reported rushing troops to China and reinforcing its battle lines for a concerted drive against the great Chinese army, which for the past week has been holding its ground. One report said that 20,000 Japanese soldiers were en route to Shanghai. Meanwhile the Japanese air force have been continuing their indiscriminate bombing.
