OUR COUNTRY

The popular opinion is that this country of ours is a land which flows with milk and honey, but this is an insufferable conceit. It is intellectual feebleness and childish prattle to call this the land of the free. With the rugged grandeur of our mountains; with the beauty of our smiling valleys; with a pictorial beauty of the serene sky; with our exorbitant wealth—yes, all of these are ours; yet there is an exquisite tragedy in our midst.

Can a man be free, if he is overburdened with debts? Taking the word freedom in its broadest meaning, can a man be free, when he is loaded with worries and cares? Our country, with all its dazzling brightness, carries itself with utter carelessness towards its impending doom. No country can well be called a land of the free, unless all men are free.

To make this land a land of the free, we must first consider the common average man. Many a good man has to overcome unbearable hardships barely to make a living. Maybe this man has always had a hard row to hoe; and now everything works against him. He couldn't be held responsible for sickness in his family; he couldn't be held responsible if he tried his best and failed.

Men are losing their farms today, their homes and their good names—all because their earning ability has gone to naught. In times of stress debts must be paid as well as in times of prosperity.

Is it fair on the average person to have its government shoot at the moon; go in debt far beyond any chance of redemption; have a boom one year and a panic the next? You say the government is not to be blamed for depression—the government should at least try to stabilize the dollar; and if foreign nations, who owe us much money are allowed a rest, why couldn't we at home be allowed a rest? You say it would only lead to more debts, to be paid later on. That may be true—well then lower our taxes and living expenses on a level with our earning capacity.

If a farmer's land is taxed, say at the value of fifty dollars an acre, and he grows twenty bushels of corn to the acre; selling it at 33 1-3 cents a bushel, can he make enough above actual cost to pay the taxes?

Then we go a step farther, we find a great number of dreadful instances where people haven't enough to eat; enough clothing to be warm and comfortable; enough money to buy the necessities essential to healthful living; and people whose homes are not as comfortable as the rich man's dog enjoys. Yet the majority of these people are honest; with enough intellectual force to work, if work could be found.

I think to spit upon anything is about the worst indictment a man could bestow upon it—yet I think the proposed dole system should be spat upon. The idle of today, who are clamoring for work are in a sufficient number to build another Chinese Wall, another Pyramid or another Panama Canal. Give us work and, whatever you do, don't let the middle man or overseer gobble up the pie, and only leave us the crust. If $2,000,000,000 is loaned to the country, who will get it? The ones who doesn't deserve it, of course.

Our only hope—the only way to make of this truly a land of the free is to reduce our taxes, create more jobs, decentralize our government, making it a government of states and not a centralized autocratic government; and by letting the average citizen have a voice in the making of laws. Punish with severity any and all mistrusts of office holders—with the freedom of impeachment by votes. Banish the dollar mark in politics, thus enabling a poor man to hold office, if he is the best qualified for the office.

Until the common people have a voice in the government, until the common people are looked upon as humans, until the common people are treated as humans, until the common people carry only their share of the load, this will never be a land of the free—and this government free from an impending doom.

AN OPEN LETTER

Raleigh, N. C., January 20, 1932.

Know ye, that I, Charles E. Brewer, National Councilor of the National Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, by virtue of the power in me vested by Gen. sec. 372 of the National Laws, do grant this, my dispensation, authorizing and empowering any and all councils to initiate candidates as provided by the National Constitution and laws of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, from February 1 to May 17, 1932, for an initiation fee of two dollars ($2.00), and for so doing this shall be sufficient warrant.

Given under my hand and Seal at Raleigh, N. C., this 20th day of January, 1932.

Charles E. Brewer, National Councilor.

CULLASAJA COUNCIL

Cullasaja Council No. 158 met on Thursday night, Feb. 4. A large crowd was in attendance. Ed J. Carpenter was reelected into the order on a reinstatement form. Fred A. Arnold, manager of Arnold's cafe, sent in an application for membership. Quince Norton applied for reinstatement.

Two facts of interest to all Juniors were called to attention: (1). That the reinstatement fee of $1.50 is extended from May 17 to June 30. (2). From February 1 to May 17, men who desire to be initiated into the order may do so for $2.00, instead of the old fee of $5.00.

All members who secure a new member between February 1 and June 30 are entitled to a beautiful Washington Watch job absolutely free.

The training school for Cullasaja Council will begin meeting regularly, at 7:30 p. m., from February 8. All members are urged to attend.

Brother James Ammons, of Mill-sheal Council No. 246, who recently joined the Marites, is stationed at Paris Island, S. C.

If there is a member of the Satalah Council or the Higonville Council, who reads this corner, I wish that he would have some one to copy the names of charter members, when the lodge was set up, and how many members they have at this time. This matter is of importance, and until it is published we will not have a complete history of the Junior Orders within the county. I would like to have a list of the officers of Higonville. Come on, Brothers, and send in the facts about your council.

Efficient tax system we have: a farmer pays tax on his land, then on the provisions he grows; pays tax on a pig then next spring has to give in the meat for taxes—there are only two things in our country today not taxed, moonshine and sunshine.

The preachers are in a seasonable silence upon whiskey; but their superior eloquence will begin haranguing about nomination time—after religion the most abused word in the American language is whiskey. The more cursing it gets, the meaner it gets and more plentiful.

Some of the goody good folks of Franklin use to say that playing pool was a frivolous amusement—today pool playing is Franklin's leading industry.

Once the cry was, "Forty acres and a mule," and today "Give us any number and a mule."

Some of our senators believe that a dole system, working for the interests of the poor unemployed would be a detriment to our country. I guess it would; this has been the history of our country of

SIZE DOESN'T ALWAYS COUNT

Bill—(To the barber, who had just shaved an extra large-faced fellow.) Barber, do you charge more for shaving a large-faced fellow like him?

Barber—No, but why do you ask?

Bill—I heard that fellow say yesterday that he hadn't had a shave in two weeks; and I allowed the price must have been high for his face.

3 RULES big help to BOWELS

What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:

- 1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the best thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a good cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin, and other helpful ingredients that couldn't hurt a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with a clean system!
